Union Thomas Christie wrote to his father voicing desires shared by many an enlistee I do want to see the world to get out of the narrow circle in which I have always lived to make a man of myself and to have it to say in days to come that I too had a part in this great struggle As it turned out Thomas had an excellent partner in his quest his brother William Both signed on with the First Minnesota Light Artillery working as cannoneers responsible for loading and aiming big guns at the enemy The First Minnesota saw action in major battles at Shiloh Corinth Vicksburg and Atlanta But the adventurers also endured the monotony of camp life the hunger of poor supply lines and in William s case the challenges of enemy capture The ups and downs the doubts and thrills are recounted from their differing perspectives in this collection of letters to worried parents a winsome sister and a younger brother eager to join in the fight Their vivid epistles are enhanced by the familial connection of brothers in arms who eventually did see the world and returned home changed Hampton Smith is a reference librarian at the Minnesota Historical Society In his many years at the society he has developed expertise in Civil War and military history The Christie letters are a treasured part of MHS collections
