Albany 1886 is a biography by Vernon Lee Published at the height of her career as a leading proponent of Aestheticism and scholar of the Italian Renaissance The Countess of Albany is a biography of Princess Louise of Stolberg Gedern whose unhappy marriage to Charles Edward Stuart also known as Bonnie Prince Charlie often obscured her reputation as an independent and interesting woman in her own right A principled feminist and committed pacifist Lee was virtually blacklisted by critics and publishers following her opposition to the First World War Through the efforts of dedicated scholars however interest in her works has increased over the past several decades granting her the readership she deserves as a master of literary horror On the Wednesday after Easter the bride and bridegroom made their solemn entry into Rome the two travelling carriages of the Prince and of the Princess were drawn by six horses four gala coaches carrying the attendants of Charles Edward and of his brother the Cardinal Duke of York followed behind and the streets were cleared by four outriders dressed in scarlet with the white Stuart cockade Although she is more widely known for her stories of supernatural horror Lee was also a gifted researcher whose knowledge of Italian history and literary gift collide in The Countess of Albany This biography is the story of Louise a German princess who married Charles Edward Stuart Jacobite claimant to the English throne By the time of their acquaintance Bonnie Prince Charlie was a man passed his prime beaten down by years on the run after the failed uprising of 1745 Focusing on her independent spirit and relationship with Count Vittorio Alfieri of Italy Lee provides invaluable insight on the life of a woman who forged her own path in a world dominated by men With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of Vernon Lee's The Countess of Albany is a classic work of visual sources to reconstruct his life and legacy After a general introduction the book begins with an outline of Hadfield s early years and moves on to look in detail at the extant major buildings in Washington D C that he worked on the Capitol Arlington House and Old City Hall Hadfield s contributions to the Capitol and other Federal buildings are fully researched and assessed for the first time and Arlington House is set in context and shown to have been much more influential than has been appreciated hitherto New material is presented on City Hall which is another major and unjustly neglected contribution to the architecture of Washington The complicated interlocking circles of his family and friends his fellow architects and his patrons and clients including the transatlantic connections are also explored revealing much about the course of his career and American architecture in general Subsequent chapters and the Catalogue explore the other projects that Hadfield was involved with ranging from office buildings jails theatres factories and banks to a mausoleum and monuments The book ends with a reassessment of Hadfield s qualities and influence arguing that these were greater than is often acknowledged By offering explanations as to why his work was particularly admired by contemporaries it is concluded that Hadfield s architectural style has been influential from his own times to the present and has been disseminated throughout the United States Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1908 The Story of My Life, with her but the fact was never proved Her property passed to her first cousin Francis Hare son of her aunt Bethaia who forthwith assumed the name of Naylor The new owner of Hurstmonceaux was the only child of the first marriage of that Francis Hare who through the influence first of the Duke of Marlborough by whose side then a chaplain he had ridden on the battle fields of Blenheim and Ramilies and afterwards of his family connections the Pelhams and Walpoles rose to become one of the richest and most popular pluralists of his age Yet he had to be contented at last with the bishoprics of St Asaph and Chichester with each of which he held the Deanery of St Paul s the Archbishopric of Canterbury having twice just escaped him The Bishop s eldest son Francis was un facheux d tail de notre famille as the grandfather of Madame de Maintenon said of his son He died after a life of the wildest dissipation without leaving any children by his wife Carlotta Alston who was his stepmother s sister So the property of Hurstmonceaux went to his half brother Robert son of the Bishop s second marriage with Mary Margaret Alston heiress of the Vatche in Buckinghamshire and of several other places besides Sir Robert Walpole had been the godfather of Robert Hare Naylor and presented him with a valuable sinecure office as a christening present and he further made the Bishop urge the Church as the profession in which father and godfather could best aid the boy s advancement Accordingly Robert took orders obtained a living and was made a Canon of Winchester While he was still very young his father had further secured his fortunes by marrying him to the heiress who lived nearest to his mother s property of the Vatche and by the beautiful Sarah Selman daughter of the owner of Chalfont St Peter s and sister of Mrs Lefevre he had two sons Francis and Robert and an only daughter Anna Maria afterwards Mrs Bulkeley In the zenith of her youth and loveliness however Sarah Hare died very suddenly from eating ices when overheated at a ball and soon afterwards Robert married a second wife the rich Henrietta Henckel who pulled down Hurstmonceaux Castle She did this because she was jealous of the sons of her predecessor and wished to build a large new house which she persuaded her husband to settle upon her own children who were numerous though only two daughters lived to any great age But she was justly punished for when Robert Hare died it was discovered that the great house which Wyatt had built for Mrs Hare and which is now known as Hurstmonceaux Place was erected upon entailed land so that the house stripped of furniture and the property shorn of its most valuable farms passed to Francis Hare Naylor son of Miss Selman Mrs Henckel Hare lived on to a great age and when the burden of her years came on her she repented of her avarice and injustice and coming back to Hurstmonceaux in childish senility would wander round and round the castle ruins in the early morning and late evening wringing her hands and saying Who could have done such a wicked thing oh who could have done such a wicked thing as to pull down this beautiful old place Then her daughters Caroline and Marianne walking beside her would say Oh dear mamma it was you who did it it was you yourself who did it you know and she would despairingly resume Oh no that is impossible it could not have been me I could not have done such a wicked thing it could not have been me that did it My cousin Marcus Hare had at Abbots Kerswell a picture of Mrs Henckel Hare which was always surrounded with crape bows
