Designing Memory Sabina Tanović, 2019-11-28 This innovative study of memorial architecture investigates how design can translate memories of human loss into tangible structures creating spaces for remembering Using approaches from history psychology anthropology and sociology Sabina Tanović explores purposes behind creating contemporary memorials in a given location their translation into architectural concepts their materialisation in the face of social and political challenges and their influence on the transmission of memory Covering the period from the First World War to the present she looks at memorials such as the Holocaust museums in Mechelen and Drancy as well as memorials for the victims of terrorist attacks to unravel the private and public role of memorial architecture and the possibilities of architecture as a form of agency in remembering and dealing with a difficult past The result is a distinctive contribution to the literature on history and memory and on architecture as a link to the past

Louise Bourgeois: Paintings Clare Davies, Briony Fer, 2022-04-12 Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 is celebrated today for her sculptures Less known are the paintings she produced between her arrival in New York in 1938 and her turn to three dimensional media in 1949 Crucial to her artistic practice these early works the focus of this groundbreaking publication show how Bourgeois evolved her deeply personal artistic lexicon and how the themes and motifs she explored in her paintings coalesced into symbols of her sculptural practice Informed by new archival research and the artist's extensive diaries Louise Bourgeois Paintings explores Bourgeois's relationship to the New York art world of the 1940s and her development of a unique pictorial language adding a key element to our understanding of this crucial artist's career

Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play Lynn M. Somers, 2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 in light of psychoanalyst D W Winnicott's 1896 1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects potential space and play offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000 Critical concepts from British object relational theories destruction reparation integration relationality and play drawn from the writings of Winnicott Melanie Klein Marion Milner and Christopher Bollas among others bear upon the decades long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic metaphorical and most importantly useful The book demonstrates how Bourgeois's transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object relations both psychical and tangible and explores Bourgeois's contention that the observer physically engage with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced Each chapter focuses on a key body of work Femme Maison Personages Lairs Janus and Cells examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality reciprocity and ambivalence of our object relationships Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic cultural and psychological encounters Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois's work and that of other artists from Pieter Brueghel to Eva Hesse It brings together practical archival and theoretical material offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis cultural analysis feminist queer literary and affect studies the book extends its specific art historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life Louise Bourgeois, Marmorarbeiten Louise Bourgeois, Michaela Unterdörfer, 2002 Famous for her sculptures and installations Louise Bourgeois is recognized as one of the most important living artists Having worked with a number of different materials the artist has returned again and again to marble since the 1960s In more than 60 photographs this publication presents the results of Bourgeois's continuous confrontation with the unforgiving yet organic stone BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Cultivating Perception through Artworks Helen A. Fielding, 2021-11-30

What are the ethical political and cultural consequences of forgetting how to trust our senses How can artworks help us see sense think and interact in ways that are outside of the systems of convention and order that frame so much of our lives In Cultivating Perception through Artworks Helen Fielding challenges us to think alongside and according to artworks cultivating a perception of what is really there and being expressed by them Drawing from and expanding on the work of philosophers such as Luce Irigaray and Maurice Merleau-Ponty Fielding urges us to trust our senses and engage relationally with works of art in the here and now rather than distancing and systematizing them as aesthetic objects Cultivating Perception through Artworks examines examples as diverse as a Rembrandt painting M. Nourbese Philip's poetry and Louise Bourgeois public sculpture to demonstrate how artworks enact ethics politics or culture By engaging with different art forms and discovering the unique way that each opens us to the world in a new and unexpected way Fielding reveals the importance of our moral political and cultural lives Urban Ecology, Water Quality and Climate Change Arup K.

Sarma, Vijay P. Singh, Rajib K. Bhattacharjya, Suresh A. Kartha, 2018-03-14 This unique book brings together high quality research contributions on ecological aspects of urbanization water quality concerns in an urban environment and climate change issues with a strong Indian focus under one umbrella It includes several case studies that discuss urban water management particularly highlighting the quality aspects Urbanization is an ecological disturbance that the modern world accepts as essential in the absence of a better alternative that could provide an equal level of comfort The prohibitive costs of eco-friendly production technologies are forcing the developing world to generate industrial waste that is detrimental to the environment At the same time the availability of adequate fresh water is another challenge for our climate change impacted world The scientific community is therefore searching for ways towards ecologically sustainable urban development Discussing all these issues this book offers a useful guide for academicians researchers practicing engineers and managers
