Secrecy and Disclosure in Victorian Fiction Leila Silvana May,2016-07-15 Why were the Victorians more fascinated with secrecy than people of other periods What is the function of secrets in Victorian fiction and in the society depicted how does it differ from that of other periods and how did readers of Victorian fiction respond to the secrecy they encountered These are some of the questions Leila May poses in her study of the dynamics of secrecy and disclosure in fiction from Queen Victoria s coronation to the century s end May argues that the works of writers such as Charlotte Bront William Makepeace Thackeray Mary Elizabeth Braddon Edward Bulwer Lytton and Arthur Conan Doyle reflect a distinctly Victorian obsession with the veiling and unveiling of information She argues that there are two opposing vectors in Victorian culture concerning secrecy and subjectivity one presupposing a form of radical Cartesian selfhood always remaining a secret to other selves and another showing that nothing can be hidden from the trained eye May calls the relation between these clashing tendencies the dialectics of secrecy and disclosure May s theories of secrecy and disclosure are informed by the work of twentieth century social scientists She emphasizes Georg Simmel s thesis that sociality and subjectivity are impossible without secrecy and Erving Goffman s claim that sociality can be understood in terms of performativity the presentation of the self in everyday life and his revelation that performance always involves disguise hence secrecy May s study offers convincing evidence that secrecy and duplicity in contrast to the Victorian period s emphasis on honesty and earnestness emerged in response to the social pressures of class gender monarchy and empire and were key factors in producing both the subjectivity and the sociality that we now recognize as Victorian The Breeze of Love and Life Perumal

Farrelly,2005-01-04 The mystery of the Trinity is the central Christian belief that defines God s essence God s ongoing love for humanity and saving grace Yet over the past few centuries especially in the West Christians have either ceased believing in the Trinity or simply no longer recognize its relevance in their ecclesial or individual lives Written in an ecumenical spirit that engages contemporary questions and theological viewpoints The Trinity Rediscovering the Central Christian Mystery articulates the mystery of the Trinity for people formed by modern historical consciousness science awareness of the equal dignity of men and women and respect for world religions By first identifying contemporary problems with the Christian proclamation of the Trinity in our culture and major differences among modern theologians John Farrelly OSB explores Scripture the life and message of Jesus Christ the various stages of the development of Trinitarian doctrine in Christian History the relation of the Trinity to creation and salvation the generation of the Son from the Father within the Trinity and the procession of the Holy Spirit from Father and Son and the meaning of three persons in one God He concludes by reflecting on the implications this renewed theology of the Trinity has for ecclesiology and Christian spirituality in our twenty first century world especially in relation to other world religions Red Tarot Christopher Marmolejo,2024-03-05 Designed to be used with any deck Red Tarot is a radical praxis and decolonized oracle that moves beyond self help and divination to reclaim tarot for liberation self determination and collective healing For readers of Postcolonial Astrology and Tarot for Change Red Tarot speaks to anyone othered for their identity or ways of being or thinking LGBTQIA2S and BIPOC folks in particular presenting the tarot as a radical epistemology that shifts the authority of knowing into the hands of the people themselves Author Christopher Marmolejo frames literacy as key to liberation and explores an understanding of tarot as critical literacy They show how the cards can be read to subvert the dynamics of white supremacist capitalist imperialist patriarchy weaving historical context and spiritual practice into a comprehensive overview of tarot Situating tarot imagery within cosmologies outside the Hellenistic frame Death as interpreted through the lens of Hindu goddess Chhinnamasta the High Priestess through Aztec goddess Coyolxauhqui

Marmolejo's Red Tarot is a profound act of native reclamation and liberation. Each card's interpretation is further bolstered by the teachings of Toni Morrison, bell hooks, Paulo Freire, José Esteban Muñoz and others in an offering that integrates intersectional wisdom with the author's divination practice and reveals tarot as an essential language for liberation. The Law of Love Charles St. Morris, 1908
