Love The Earth An Ecology Resource:

Love the Earth! Barbara Linse, Marty Links, 1991 Young children learn concern for the environment World Christianity and Ecological Theologies Raimundo C Barreto, Graham McGeoch, Wanderley Pereira Da Rosa, 2024 This volume showcases the intersection of religion and ecology as approached by scholars of religious studies and theology in the Global South and the Global North It points to what can be generated by these bodies of scholarship engaged as dialogue partners to investigate new patterns of religious environmentalism Science and Science Teaching Sharon Sherman, Sharon J. Sherman, 2000 This core text for K 8 science methods courses helps novice teachers become confident and competent in inquiry centered standards based classrooms Science content and pedagogy are blended using a carefully crafted developmental approach in which teachers begin by learning basic ideas and practicing simple instructional strategies Once these are mastered teachers move on to learn and teach advanced concepts and complex experiments Students learn how to deliver inquiry based instruction create standards based lesson plans link instruction and assessment design performance assessments use a variety of teaching strategies and integrate science across the curriculum Agricultural Ethics in East Asian Perspective Paul B. Thompson, Kirill O. Thompson, 2018-07-24 This book brings together agricultural ethics scholars from the US Japan and Taiwan to discuss crucial issues in agricultural ethics and sustainability ethics in comparative context Agricultural ethics and sustainability ethics are wide ranging and closely linked to environmental ethics bioethics virtue ethics animal welfare soil conservation not to mention rural traditions and lifestyles Six of the chapters cover historical traditions and values in Europe the US and East Asia Four of the chapters cover the role of virtue ethics in the analysis of agrarian and environmental ethics agricultural biotechnology food ethics and alternative agriculture respectively Finally two of the chapters cover field efforts of agricultural ethics involving preserving agricultural heritage and building consensus for sustainable farming respectively Although the papers are divided into three groups their contents are interconnected and mutually informative Ecological Policy Handbook - Vol. I Alessandro Pirrone, 2020-02-08 Scale problems refer to the threats posed by economic activities to global life support systems such as the atmospheric ozone layer s protection against ultraviolet radiation and the carbon cycle s provision of climate stability Human economic activities are now threatening these natural systems at both the local and global levels for the first time in the history of the planet Scale problems are caused by the physical size of the global economy the sheer volume and toxicity of the mass of physical materials that are moved or transformed in normal economic production cycles are disrupting the ecosystems that provide global life support services The physical size of the global economy continues to expand as economic growth is encouraged and facilitated by trade and other government policies at all levels A variety of approaches to solving scale problems exist Many have been implemented or are being tested in various countries and communities around the world Because of the complex nature of scale issues solutions are being explored via innovative economic and business ideas creative public policy initiatives sustainable technologies and inspiring human values Mother nature is continually affected by problems which are inadequately addressed by decision makers whether they are representatives of government deep states businessmen civil society influencers The aim is to keep interest alive and continue to make generations aware to disseminate information and follow day by day which options and solutions are within everyone's reach EPA-600/5, 1974-02 Proceedings RMRS, 1998 Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa Ecological Solidarities Krista E. Hughes, Dawn B. Martin, Elaine Padilla, 2019-10-30 Operating on the premise that our failure to recognize our interconnected relationship to the rest of the cosmos is the origin of planetary peril this volume presents academic activist and artistic perspectives on how to inspire reflection and motivate action in order to construct alternative frameworks and establish novel solidarities for the sake of our planetary home The selections in this volume explore ecologies of interdependence as a frame for religious theological and philosophical analysis and practice Contributors examine questions of justice climate change race class gender and coloniality and discuss alternative ways of engaging the world in all its biodiversity Each essay poem reflection and piece of art contributes to and reflects upon how to live out entangled differences toward positive global change Constructive and practical global and local communal and personal Ecological Solidarities is an innovative contribution to the discourses on relational and liberative thought and practice in religion philosophy and theology It will be welcomed by scholars of World Christianity and theology as well as seminary students activists and laity interested in issues of justice and ecology Latin American Popular Culture since Independence William H. Beezley, Linda A. Curcio-Nagy, 2011-11-16 This unique reader offers an engaging collection of essays that highlight the diversity of Latin America's cultural expressions from independence to the present Leading historians explore funerals dance and music letters and literature spectacles and monuments and world's fairs and food These themes and events highlight the ways in which a wide range of individuals with copious at times contradictory motives attempted to forge identity turn the world upside down mock their betters forget their troubles through dance express love in letters and altogether enjoy life The authors analyze case studies from Argentina Brazil the Dominican Republic Ecuador Mexico Nicaragua Peru and Trinidad Tobago tracing how their examples resonate in the rest of the region They show how people could and did find opportunities to escape if only occasionally their daily drudgery making lives for themselves of greater variety than the constant quest for dominance drive for profits or knee jerk resistance to the social or economic order so often described in cultural studies Instead this rich text introduces the complexity of motives behind and the diversity of expressions of popular culture in Latin America Contributions by Sal Acosta Thomas L Benjamin John Charles Chasteen Dari
