Walton's Among Others might guess Walton is both an inveterate reader of SF and fantasy and a chronic re-reader of books. In 2008 then new science fiction mega-site Tor.com asked Walton to blog regularly about her re-reading about all kinds of older fantasy and SF ranging from acknowledged classics to guilty pleasures to forgotten oddities and gems. These posts have consistently been among the most popular features of Tor.com. Now this volume presents a selection of the best of them ranging from short essays to long reassessments of some of the field's most ambitious series. Among Walton's many subjects here are the Zones of Thought novels of Vernor Vinge, the question of what genre readers mean by mainstream, the underappreciated SF adventures of C.J. Cherryh, the field's many approaches to time travel, the masterful science fiction of Samuel R. Delany, Salman Rushdie's Midnight's Children, the early Hainish novels of Ursula K. Le Guin, and a Robert A. Heinlein novel you have most certainly never read. Over 130 essays in all. What Makes This Book So Great is an immensely readable, engaging collection of provocative, opinionated thoughts about past and present-day fantasy and science fiction from one of our best writers. For readers unschooled in the history of SF, this book is a treasure trove. Publishers Weekly starred review.

The Alliance Union universe is a fictional universe created by science fiction and fantasy author C.J. Cherryh. It is the setting for an epic future history series extending from the 21st century out into the far future. To date, the corpus of the Alliance Union universe consists of 27 science fiction novels along with a series of seven short story anthologies edited by Cherryh and a few other miscellaneous works. It encompasses both books for which Cherryh won the Hugo Award for Best Novel, Downbelow Station and Cyteen, and also incorporates various other series books such as the Faded Sun trilogy, the Chanur novels, the four Morgaine books, and the Merovingen Nights shared world series. As humanity reaches out to the stars, space stations are financed by the private Sol Corporation, eventually known as the Earth Company. Each new station is built by the previous one and is located ever farther away from Earth. In the days before faster-than-light travel (FTL), nine stations are laboriously constructed around nine stars, all lacking habitable planets. The stationers and the merchanters who man the ships that supply them both develop distinct cultural identities but remain psychologically and to some degree materially dependent on Earth.
