Mercury Visions Of Louis Daguerre A Novel:

The Mercury Visions of Louis Daguerre Dominic Smith, 2007-01-09 The debut novel from the New York Times bestselling author of The Last Painting of Sara de Vos reimagines the life of Louis Daguerre the inventor of photography who becomes convinced that the world is going to end when his mind unravels due to mercury poisoning He is determined to reconnect with the only woman he has ever loved before the End comes Louis Daguerre's story is set against the backdrop of a Paris prone to bohemian excess and social unrest Poets and dandies debate art and style in the cafes while students and rebels fill the garrets with revolutionary talk and gun smoke It is here amid this strange and beguiling setting that Louis Daguerre sets off to capture his doomsday subjects Louis enlists the help of the womanizing poet Charles Baudelaire known to the salon set as the Prince of Clouds and a jaded but beautiful prostitute named Pigeon Together they scour the Paris underworld for images worthy of Daguerre's list But Louis is also confronted by a chance to reunite with the only woman he's ever loved Half a lifetime ago Isobel Le Fournier kissed Louis Daguerre in a wine cave outside of Orleans The result was a proposal a rejection and a misunderstanding that outlasted three kings and an emperor Now in the countdown to his apocalypse Louis wants to understand why he has carried the memory of that kiss for so long The Mercury Visions of Louis Daguerre Dominic Smith, 2017-04-26 An atmospheric and brilliant novel of Paris love madness and photography by the bestselling writer of The Last Painting of Sara de Vos Dominic Smith

A Kite in the Wind Andrea Barrett, Peter Turchi, 2011-03-01 A Kite in the Wind is an anthology of essays by 20 veteran writers and master teachers While the contributors offer specific practical advice on such fundamental aspects of craft as characterization character names the first person point of view and unreliable narrators they also give extended thoughtful consideration to more sophisticated topics including imminence or the power of a sense of beginning creating and maintaining tension lushness and the deliberate manipulation of information to create particular effects The essays in A Kite in the Wind begin as personal investigations attempts to understand why a decision in a particular story or novel seemed unsuccessful to define a quality or problem that seemed either unrecognized or unsatisfactorily defined to understand what despite years of experience as a fiction writer resisted comprehension and to pursue haunting even unanswerable questions Unlike a how to book the anthology is less an instruction manual than it is an intimate visit with twenty very different writers as they explore topics that excite intrigue and even puzzle them Each discussion uses specific examples and illustrations including both canonical stories and novels and writing less frequently discussed from the 19th 20th and 21st centuries by both American and international authors The contributors share their hard earned insights for beginning and advanced writers with humility wit and compassion The first section of the book focuses on narration with particular attention paid to various kinds of narrators the second on strategic creation and presentation of character the third on some of the roles of the visual beginning with establishing setting and the fourth on structural and organizational issues from movement through time to the manipulation of information to create
