pervasive anxiety in the process Users of technology have been forced to contend with data driven equations that try to anticipate their desires and often get them wrong What results is a state of docility that allows tech companies to curtail human experiences human lives for profit But to have our tastes behaviors and emotions governed by computers while convenient does nothing short of call the very notion of free will into question In Filterworld Chayka traces this creeping machine guided curation as it infiltrates the furthest reaches of our digital physical and psychological spaces With algorithms increasingly influencing not just what culture we consume but what culture is produced urgent questions arise What happens when shareability supersedes messiness innovation and creativity the qualities that make us human What does it mean to make a choice when the options have been so carefully arranged for us Is personal freedom possible on the Internet To the last question Filterworld argues yes but to escape Filterworld and even transcend it we must first understand it York Magazine, 1996-09-02 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an Art/Basel/Miami Beach ,2008 A Surrealist Stratigraphy of Dorothea Tanning's Chasm Catriona idea McAra, 2016-11-10 1 Unpacking Tanning's library 2 The alternative reality of Sedona 3 Surrealism in the attic 4 The fur of the fairy tale 5 Quoting Tanning surrealist heirlooms in contemporary practice Meret Oppenheim Institute of Contemporary Alfred H. Barr, Jr. and the Intellectual Origins of the Museum of Modern Art Sybil Arts (London, England), 1989 Kantor, 2003-08-29 An intellectual biography of Alfred H Barr Jr founding director of the Museum of Modern Art Growing up with the twentieth century Alfred Barr 1902 1981 founding director of the Museum of Modern Art harnessed the cataclysm that was modernism In this book part intellectual biography part institutional history Sybil Gordon Kantor tells the story of the rise of modern art in America and of the man responsible for its triumph Following the trajectory of Barr's career from the 1920s through the 1940s Kantor penetrates the myths both positive and negative that surround Barr and his achievements Barr fervently believed in an aesthetic based on the intrinsic traits of a work of art and the materials and techniques involved in its creation Kantor shows how this formalist approach was expressed in the organizational structure of the multidepartmental museum itself whose collections exhibitions and publications all expressed Barr's vision At the same time she shows how Barr's ability to reconcile classical objectivity and mythic irrationality allowed him to perceive modernism as an open ended phenomenon that expanded beyond purist abstract modernism to include surrealist nationalist realist and expressionist art Drawing on interviews with Barr's contemporaries as well as on Barr's extensive correspondence Kantor also paints vivid portraits of among others Jere Abbott Katherine Dreier Henry Russell Hitchcock Philip Johnson Lincoln Kirstein Agnes Mongan J B Neumann and Paul Sachs Modernist Diaspora Richard D. years before during and after the First World War hundreds of young Jews flocked to Paris artistic capital of the world and center of modernist experimentation Some arrived with prior training from art academies in Krak w Vilna and Vitebsk others came armed only with hope and a few memorized phrases in French They had little Jewish tradition in painting and sculpture to draw on yet despite these obstacles these young Jews produced the greatest efflorescence of art in the long history of the Jewish people The paintings of Marc Chagall Amedeo Modigliani Chaim Soutine Sonia Delaunay Terk and Emmanuel Man Katz the sculptures of Jacques Lipchitz Ossip Zadkine Chana Orloff and works by many other artists now grace the world s museums As the cole de Paris was the most cosmopolitan artistic movement the world had seen the left bank neighborhood of Montparnasse became a meeting place for diverse cultures How did the tolerant bohemian atmosphere of Montparnasse encourage an international style of art in an era of bellicose nationalism not to mention racism and antisemitism How did immigrants not only absorb but profoundly influence a culture This book examines how the clash of cultures produced genius
