view of Maurice Merleau Ponty s work this selection collecting in one volume the foundational essays necessary for understanding the core of this critical 20th century philosopher's thought Maurice Merleau-Ponty Joan Nordquist,2000

The Birth of Sense Don Beith, 2018-04-01 In The Birth of Sense Don Beith proposes a new concept of generative passivity the idea that our organic psychological and social activities take time to develop into sense More than being a limit passivity marks out the way in which organisms persons and interbodily systems take time in order to manifest a coherent sense Beith situates his argument within contemporary debates about evolution developmental biology scientific causal explanations psychology postmodernism social constructivism and critical race theory Drawing on empirical studies and phenomenological reflections Beith argues that in nature novel meaning emerges prior to any type of constituting activity or deterministic plan The Birth of Sense is an original phenomenological investigation in the style of Maurice Merleau Ponty and it demonstrates that the French philosopher's works cohere around the notion that life is radically expressive While Merleau Ponty's early works are widely interpreted as arguing for the primacy of human consciousness Beith argues that a pivotal redefinition of passivity is already under way here and extends throughout Merleau Ponty's corpus This work introduces new concepts in contemporary philosophy to interrogate how organic development involves spontaneous expression how personhood emerges from this bodily growth and how our interpersonal human life remains rooted in and often thwarted by domains of bodily expressivity The Immune Self Alfred I. Tauber, 1996-10-28 The Immune Self is the first extended philosophical critique of immunology Elements of Responsible Politics B.P. Dauenhauer, 2012-12-06 This collection of essays draws together work done during a period of more than fifteen years In the course of these years much has changed including much about politics Patterns of political activity have been trans formed Ways in which we had been accustomed to construe politics have been substantially modified and sometimes replaced Some apparently in tractable conflicts have been resolved Other apparently more manageable conflicts have shown shocking durability A number of political doctrines once considered indefinitely serviceable have lost all relevance And the material and technical resources at our disposal look strikingly different than they did just a few years ago Practical politics of whatever stripe encounters at every turn ever more grave environmental degradation But or so this collection assumes not everything political has changed Some political issues both theoretical and practical remain persistently trenchant Questions like the following demand ever renewed consideration What is the point and worth of belonging to a political community What entitlements and responsibilities follow upon such membership Or even more fundamentally what conditions are required for there to be politics at all Taken together the essays collected in this volume propose a way both to understand and to engage in politics which is properly responsive both to perennial political issues and to the peculiar exigencies of our era Some of them present criticisms of widely held warmly cherished ways of addressing political matters Others propose constructive alternatives Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Art and Institution Rajiv Kaushik, 2011-08-11 An examination of how for Merleau Ponty the work of art opens up the event of being Modern Architecture Graham Livesey, 2024-11-15 Modern Architecture The Basics examines technological stylistic socio political and cultural changes that have transformed the history of architecture since the late 18th century Broad definitions of modernity and postmodernity introduce the book which comprises 24 short thematic chapters looking at the concepts behind the development of modern and postmodern architecture These include major historical movements key figures and evolving building typologies There is also an emphasis on the changing city during the 19th and 20th centuries Approaches to representation and its impacts on architecture are studied along with the changing global role of architecture as cultural expression The book introduces new topics including gender race postcolonialism and indigeneity An undaunting contemporary and inclusive account of modern architectural history this is a must read for all students of architecture as well as those outside the discipline approaching the subject for the first time The Merleau-Ponty Aesthetics Reader Maurice Merleau-Ponty, Michael B. Crises in Continental Philosophy Arleen B. Dallery, Charles E. Scott, 1990-10-02 This book punctuates the moments of crisis in continental thought from the foundational crisis of reason in Husserl s call for a rigorous science of phenomenology to the current crisis of postmodernism and its rejection of Husserl s metanarrative of history and rationality The mediating links between these moments is the centrality of the epochal history of Being the power of cultural and disciplinary practices and the dispersal of meaning in the post Husserlian and post subjective philosophies of Heidegger Foucault Derrida and others Included here are the thoughts of leading scholars who critically discuss Husserl s analysis of the crisis of Western thought and the importance of the concepts of world in Husserl s early writings The authors analyze the deprivileging of philosophy as social critique through the text of Husserl Habermas Foucault and recent feminist theory They examine the end of the epistemological and morally autonomous subject in continental thought Together these thoughts articulate multiple points or moments of crisis without cure or end
