Blackness and Modernity Cecil Foster, 2007 Cecil Foster presents a rigorous interdisciplinary analysis of blackness by challenging existing notions of blackness and arguing for the viability of a multicultural world In Blackness and Modernity Foster traces the main philosophical anthropological sociological and mythological arguments that support views of modernity as a failed quest for whiteness He outlines how these views were implemented as part of a world history and shows how Canada became the first country to officially reject this approach by adopting multiculturalism Blackness and Modernity presents four categories for understanding blackness and whiteness the somatic cultural status differential and the idealistic The somatic the colour of skin is merely one category and perhaps the least meaningful for while it may be the most important for some people Foster argues that multiculturalism which he views as ontological blackness is an attempt to make rational idealism the only category that matters
