Mes secrets de la mer Rouge Monfreid, Gisèle de, 1981      Shanghai on the Metro Michael B. Miller, 2023-04-28 Secret agents gun runners White Russians and con men they all play a part in Michael B Miller s strikingly original study of interwar France Based on extensive research in security files and a mass of printed sources Shanghai on the M tro shows how a distinctive milieu of spies and spy literature emerged between the two world wars reflecting the atmosphere and concerns of these years Miller argues that French fascination with intrigue between the wars reveals a far more assured and playful national mood than historians have hitherto discerned in the final decades of the Third Republic But the larger history set in motion by World War I and the subsequent reading of French history into global history are the true subjects of this work Reconstituting through his own narratives the histories of interwar travel and adventure and the willful turning of contemporary affairs into a source of romance Miller recovers the ambience and special qualities of the age that produced its intrigues and its tales of spies This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994      Adventures of a Hashish Smuggler Henri de Monfreid, 2017-04-26 Nobleman writer adventurer and inspiration for the swashbuckling gun runner in the Adventures of Tintin Henri de Monfreid lived by his own account a rich restless magnificent life as one of the great travelers of his or any age The son of a French artist who knew Paul Gauguin as a child de Monfreid sought his fortune by becoming a collector and merchant of the fabled Persian Gulf pearls He was then drawn into the shadowy world of arms trading slavery smuggling and drugs Infamous as well as famous his name is inextricably linked to the Red Sea and the raffish ports between Suez and Aden in the early years of the twentieth century De Monfreid 1879 to 1974 had a long life of many adventures around the Horn of Africa where he dodged pirates as well as the authorities In Adventures of a Hashish Smuggler de Monfreid who was not particularly law abiding by nature and was essentially a professional gunrunner tells the story of his one foray into the world of hashish smuggling during the 1920s The source of the hashish was Greece where hemp was openly grown The market was Egypt where the British government had banned the popular drug When de Monfreid got the notion of going to Greece to purchase hashish to smuggle into Egypt he didn t even know what hashish looked like De Monfreid arranged to have 600 kilos of hashish brought from Greece to Marseilles and then into Djibouti a French colony From there he sailed with it in his own boutre or dhow and a loyal crew of natives assembled when he had run the pearl diving operation up the Red Sea to Suez from where the shipment was carried on to Cairo by camel caravan Along the way de Monfreid had several close calls and met a number of colorful characters Shortly after de Monfreid s venture the Greek monarchy was turned out and the Second Hellenic Republic was declared Under strong pressure and with economic inducements from Great Britain the new
