John F. Evans

Message Of Isaiah 40 55 A Literary Theological Commentary:

The Message of Isaiah 40-55 John Goldingay, 2005-10-27 The Message of Isaiah 40 55 traces the argument of Isaiah 40 55 to show how the chapters bring a message of encouragement and challenge about God's intention to restore the Judean community some of whose members are in exile in Babylon others living in the city of Jerusalem that has lain devastated since it fell to the Babylonians in 587 The chapters hold before this community's eyes a vision of the nature of its God as the powerful creator and the loving restorer In the course of following the argument the reader becomes aware that the chapters have to deal with their audience's mysterious resistance to their message It cannot give God the kind of response the message needs and deserves nor can it fulfil the role as God's servant that is designed for it God nevertheless remains committed to it The prophet eventually becomes aware of a distinctive personal calling to embody that response until the people are ready to do so It is the prophet's willingness to do this notwithstanding the suffering it brings that embodies the kind of ministry that needs to be exercised to them so that they may be brought back to God and find a restoration of spirit as well as a physical restoration

The Performative Dimensions of Rhetorical Questions in the Hebrew Bible Jim W. Adams,2020-07-23 This book sets out to describe the multi dimensional nature and function of rhetorical questions in the Old Testament Biblical scholars have previously analyzed the use of rhetorical questions in both Testaments but consistently describe their function in persuasive terms While this understanding is appropriate in a number of instances many rhetorical questions do not operate this way and Jim W Adams focuses in particular on rhetoric expressing the self involvement of both the speaker and hearer Among linguistic philosophers speech act theory has illuminated the fact that uttering a sentence does not merely convey information it may also involve the performing of an action The concept of communicative action provides additional tools to the exegetical process as it points the interpreter beyond the assumption that the use of language is merely for descriptive purposes Language can also have performative and self involving dimensions In relation to speech act theory linguistic specialists continue to research the nature of rhetorical questions

Where Is the God of Justice? Michael E. W. Thompson,2011-06-08 What does the Old Testament say about the problem of suffering Though Christians believe themselves to be held in the care of the God of love and strength they yet find that sufferings come their way Moreover whole communities even whole nations experience terrible sufferings all of which frequently raises the question Where is the God of justice Those parts of the Old Testament that deal with this question are here considered and discussed both those that understand suffering as due to human sinfulness and those that raise serious questions about that sort of understanding Further here are Jeremiah s questions about why he as the Lord s prophet must suffer the gentler questions in Ecclesiastes the perplexing life experiences of Joseph the agonized prayer of Habakkuk those most urgent questions in the book of Job the outspoken words of psalmists the radical talk about a suffering servant and the confident hope expressed in Daniel Thompson argues that while the Old Testament cannot always give us answers it does point us to God for hope in the midst of suffering

For Us, but Not to Us Adam E. Miglio,Caryn A. Reeder,Joshua T. Walton,Kenneth C. Way,2020-10-02 John H Walton is a significant voice in Old Testament studies who has influenced many scholars in this field as well as others This volume is an acknowledgment from his students of Walton s role as a teacher scholar and mentor Each essay is offered by scholars and former students working in a range of fields from Old and New Testament studies to archaeology and theology They are offered as a testimony and tribute to Walton s prolific career

Riddles and Revelations Mark J. Boda,Russell L. Meek,William R. Osborne,2018-08-23 A comprehensive examination of the links between wisdom literature and prophecy The book is divided into four sections The first addresses methodological concerns such as identifying wisdom identifying potential sociological spheres for wisdom and prophecy in the ancient Near East and recognizing potential textual relationships The second examines the role of wisdom in the prophetic corpus more broadly in a book by book analysis of biblical texts first examining the role of wisdom in the prophetic corpus of the Hebrew Bible The third section looks at elements of prophecy within the traditional wisdom books such as Job Proverbs and Qoheleth Finally the book continues the conversation by providing two concluding chapters that evaluate critique engage and raise new questions that Hebrew Bible scholars will need to wrestle with as the search for the relationship between wisdom and prophecy moves forward

After Emmaus Brian J. Tabb, 2021-11-17 The church's mission does not begin with the Great Commission but is integrally related to the grand storyline of Scripture Did the Old Testament simply point to the coming of Christ and his saving work or is there more to the story After his resurrection the Lord Jesus revealed how his suffering glory and mission plan for the nations are in fact central to the biblical story of redemption After Emmaus shows how Christology and missiology are integrally connected throughout Scripture especially in the teaching of Jesus and the apostles Brian Tabb explains what Luke 24:46-47 reveals about God's messianic promises in the Old Testament their fulfillment in the New Testament and the purpose of the church By understanding Jesus's last words to his disciples Christians today will be motivated to participate in the Messiah's mission

The Conceptualization of Dress in Prophetic Metaphors S.J. Parrott, 2023-06-19 While the last four years has seen a renewed interest in dress in biblical studies much of this work focuses on dress as object what it is looks like and who wears it In consequence the symbolic and rhetorical function of dress in metaphors is often reduced to its function in real life In response this study bridges the conversation from what dress is to what dress is doing By focusing on dress as subject and a concept this study identifies constellations that hold prophetic metaphors of the investiture divestiture of dress together with respect to identity formation deformation suffering and destruction

Women and Exilic Identity in the Hebrew Bible Martien A. Halvorson-Taylor, Katherine E. Southwood, 2017-12-28 Notions of women as found in the Bible have had an incalculable impact on western cultures influencing perspectives on marriage kinship legal practice political status and general attitudes Women and Exilic Identity in the Hebrew Bible is drawn from three separate strands to address and analyse this phenomenon The first examines how women were conceptualized and represented during the exilic period The second focuses on methodological possibilities and drawbacks connected to investigating women and exile The third reviews current prominent literature on the topic with responses from authors With chapters from a range of contributors topics move from an analysis of Ruth as a woman returning to her homeland and issues concerning the foreign presence who brings foreign family members into the midst of a community and how this is dealt with through the intermarriage crisis portrayed in Ezra 9-10 to an analysis of Judean constructions of gender in the exilic and early post exilic periods The contributions show an exciting range of the best scholarship on women and foreign identities with important consequences for how the foreign known is perceived and what that has meant for women through the centuries The Fear of God in 2 Corinthians 7:1 Euichang Kim,2019-02-21

Euichang Kim focuses upon the phrase the fear of God drawn from 2 Corinthians exhortation to reconcile with God As opposed to these words appearing from no particular source Kim points to the wider contexts of Old Testament passages quoted by Paul and demonstrates that God s eschatological promises in particular his coming judgment his promise to redeem his people and the prospect of a new covenant are intertwined with this motif of fear Beginning with an analysis of the meaning of fear in both the Old Testament and the New Kim proceeds to the context of fear within 2 Corinthians Scripture the writings of Second Temple Judaism and the very eschatology of Paul suggesting that it stems from an awareness of God s judgment to come and serves to motivate righteous behavior Kim finally argues that in the context of 2 Corinthians the fear of God functions as the proper response to God s saving acts in Christ and provides motivation for believers to pursue a holy life in anticipation of the eschatological judgment to come Covenant: A Vital Element of Reformed Theology ,2021-11-29

Covenant A Vital Element of Reformed Theology provides a multi disciplinary reflection on the theme of the covenant from historical biblical theological and systematic theological perspectives The interaction between exegesis and dogmatics in the volume reveals the potential and relevance of this biblical motif It proves to be vital in building bridges between God s revelation in the past and the actual question of how to live with him today Dictionary of the Old Testament: Prophets G MCCONVILLE,MARK J BODA,2020-05-21

The writings of the prophets make up over a quarter of the Old Testament But perhaps no other portion of the Old Testament is more misunderstood by readers today For some prophecy conjures up knotted enigmas opaque oracles and terrifying visions of the future For others it raises expectations of a plotted out future to be reconstructed from disparate texts And yet the prophets have imprinted the language of faith and imagination with some of its most sublime visions of the future nations streaming to Zion a lion lying with a lamb and endlessly fruiting trees on the banks of a flowing river We might view the prophets as stage directors for Israel s unfolding drama of redemption Drawing inspiration from past acts in that drama and invoking fresh words from its divine author these prophets speak a language of sinewed poetry their words and images arresting the ear and detonating in the mind For when Yahweh roars from Zion and thunders from Jerusalem the pastures of the shepherds dry up the crest of Carmel withers and the prophetic word buffets those selling the needy for a pair of sandals The Dictionary of the Old Testament Prophets is the only reference book of its kind Not only does it focus exclusively on the prophetic books it also plumbs their imagery of mountains and wilderness flora and fauna temple and Zion It maps and guides us through topics such as covenant and law exile and deliverance forgiveness and repentance and the Day of the Lord Here the nature of prophecy is searched out in its social historical literary and psychological dimensions as well as its synchronic spread of textual links and associations And the formation of the prophetic books into their canonical collection including the Book of the Twelve is explored and weighed for its significance Then too contemporary approaches such as canonical criticism conversation analysis editorial redaction criticism feminist interpretation literary approaches and rhetorical criticism are summed up and assayed Even the afterlife of these great texts is explored in articles on the history of interpretation as well as on their impact in the New Testament Petrine Theology Douglas W. Abraham, the Spirit, and Justification in Galatians Chee-Chiew Lee,2013-08-12 What has the Spirit to do with the blessing of Abraham and justification This book challenges the common assumption that the Abrahamic blessing and the Spirit are equated in Gal 3 14 and points out how an accurate understanding of the relationship between these two motifs contributes significantly to appreciating Paul s overall argument in Galatians and his theology of justification Even though

Paul does not cite Old Testament passages on the promise of the Spirit in Gal 3 1 14 his arguments are nonetheless deeply influenced by the whole prophetic tradition about the Spirit Most current discussions on the present and future aspects of justification have yet to consider the Spirit's role in the latter Given the renewed interest in Pauline justification this book contributes to this important aspect of the Spirit's role in future justification which needs to be developed further in Pauline and New Testament theology

As it Was in the Beginning Mark D Owens, 2016-05-26 The meaning of Paul's comments about the new creation in 2 Corinthians 5 17 and Galatians 6 15 has long been obscured Debate has raged for years with some arguing that the phrase new creation solely refers to the inward transformation believers have experienced through faith in Jesus Christ and others that this phrase should be understood cosmologically and linked with Isaiah's new heavens and new earth Still more advocate an ecclesiological interpretation of this phrase that centres Paul in the new community formed around Jesus Christ In As It Was in the Beginning Mark Owens argues that the concept of new creation should be understood within the realm of Paul's anthropology cosmology and ecclesiology Paul's understanding of new creation belongs within an Urzeit Endzeit typological framework especially within 2 Corinthians 5 6 and Ephesians 1 2 Owens's reading of new creation gives due weight to the use of Isaianic traditions in Paul's letters and to demonstrate that the vision of new creation in 2 Corinthians and Galatians is in striking harmony with that of Ephesians

Persian Royal-Judaean Elite Engagements in the Early Teispid and Achaemenid Empire Jason M. Silverman, 2019-11-14 Jason Silverman presents a timely and necessary study advancing the understanding of Achaemenid ideology and Persian Period Judaism While the Achaemenid Persian Empire c 550 330 BCE dwarfed all previous empires of the Ancient Near East in both size and longevity the royal system that forged and preserved this civilisation remains only rudimentarily understood as is the imperial and religious legacy bequeathed to future generations In response to this deficit Silverman provides a critically sophisticated and interdisciplinary model for comparative studies While the Achaemenids rebuilt the Jerusalem temple Judaean literature of the period reflects tensions over its Persian re-establishment demonstrating colliding religious perspectives Although both First

Zechariah 1 8 and Second Isaiah 40 55 are controversial the greater imperial context is rarely dealt with in depth both books deal directly with the temple s legitimacy and this ties them intimately to kings engagements with cults Silverman explores how the Achaemenid kings portrayed their rule to subject minorities the ways in which minority elites reshaped this ideology and how long this impact lasted as revealed through the Judaeans reactions to the restoration of the Jerusalem temple
