Message and Mission (Revised Edition) Eugene A. Nida, 1990-12-17 How can the church meaningfully and intelligently engage cultures with Christianity Eugene Nida a leading scholar and devout Christian presents a thorough study of the means and methods which best communicate Christianity to people of diverse backgrounds Dr Nida is uniquely equipped to write this book He is a well known specialist in linguistics anthropology studies and the interpretation of the Christian faith who worked with missionaries on translation problems for over thirty years

Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller, Theo Sundermeier, Stephen B. Bevans, Richard H. Bliese, 2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe's most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword

Media in Church and Mission: Viggo Sogaard, Viggo Sgaard, 2018-10-01 Although written before much of the revolution in digital media this book provides a lot of useful strategic input for those involved in media and Scripture Engagement

Toward a Science of Translating? Stefan Felber, 2025-03-27 Eugene A Nida is one of the pioneers and founders of modern translation theory coining the terms dynamic equivalence and formal equivalence and energetically promoting the former though in his latter years preferring the term functional equivalence Originally formulated for the Bible Translation efforts amongst people groups without the Bible Nida's theories of translation have also been widely influential in Translation Studies making this presentation of Eugene A Nida's life 1914-2011 and assessment of his works especially timely and significant Stefan Felber is a German Old Testament scholar former seminary professor and author of the German only Wesen und Wort des Wortes Biblisch theologische Grundlagen f r das Verst ndnis von Sprache und Kommunikation The Nature and Dignity of the Word Biblical Theological Foundations for Understanding Language and Communication in Zwischen Babel und Jerusalem Aspekte von Sprache und bersetzung among other works As such he is uniquely qualified to offer this fair minded and masterful yet critical evaluation of Nida's model of translation doing so from a rich variety of disciplines including exegesis theology philology and philosophies of language Whether one agrees or disagrees with either Nida or Felber I highly recommend this rigorous and wide ranging exposition for advancing informed dialogue and promoting further understanding and advances in Translation Studies Professor Tom McCormick Tyndale University College Toronto Although the theory of Dynamic or Functional Equivalence was the most widely used method in global Bible translation after the Second World War there has been no comprehensive study of its foundations and how it was developed by Eugene Nida Filling this gap is one of the great merits of Felber s study Felber while showing great respect for Nida critically evaluates Dynamic Equivalence from various perspectives exegetical theological philosophical and linguistic This multi dimensional nuanced approach provides the reader with thought provoking and helpful insights that further the discussion in important ways Felber s study is a must read for all who deal with language and translation in theology and the church in Bible translation and mission Prof Dr Markus Zehnder Internationale Hochschule Bad Liebenzell Evangelische theologische Fakultät Leuven Ansgarskolen Kristiansand Stefan Felber s Toward a Science of Translating is a landmark study in Biblical Translation Theory focussing on Eugene Nida 1914 2011 who for many years was a central figure in the American Bible Society and the United Bible Societies Nida has been described as probably the world s leading scholar on translation and his theory of Dynamic or Functional Equivalence provided a leading paradigm for Bible translators for decades In this thorough analysis of his work and its reception Felber highlights a number of weaknesses as well as some strengths affiliated with Nida s theory promoting translation theory based on reader oriented thought for thought patterns rather than traditional source oriented analysis of textual form and content Felber s evaluation raises a critical question Are facets of the biblical text pertaining to biblical language and hermeneutics theology and the transcendent downplayed in Nida s addressee oriented approach to translation I hope this book will be widely read by translators biblical scholars and others interested in translation of the Bible Dr Tomas Bokedal Associate Professor of New Testament and Early Christianity NLA University College Norway Docent of New Testament Exegesis Lund University Sweden

The Dialectics of Mission Elmer A. Guzman, 2023-09-15 Drawing on the resources of contemporary systematic theologians Kevin Vanhoozer and Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen Elmer A Guzman explores the generative dimension of mission for the formation of doctrine for a church that needs to witness in a pluralistic world Guzman argues that understanding doctrinal formation and development depends on the missional dimension of doctrinal hermeneutics In other words these theological concepts and practices are justified based on the negotiation between theological sources identity markers and the context s diversity markers This book shows how perspectives arising from the structural elements in theological methodology shed fresh light on missional theology and the interconnections between the doctrinal loci in theology

Shembe, Ancestors, and Christ Edley J. Moodley PhD, 2008-08-18 The Christian axis has shifted dramatically southward to Africa Asia and Latin America so much so that today there are more Christians living in these southern regions than among their northern counterparts In the case of Africa the African Initiated Churches founded by Africans and primarily for Africans has largely contributed to the exponential growth and proliferation of the Christian faith in the continent Yet even more profoundly these churches espouse a brand of Christianity that is indigenized and thoroughly contextual Further the power and popularity of the AICs beyond the unprecedented numbers joining these churches are attributed to their relevance to the existential everyday needs and concerns of their adherents in the context of a postcolonial Africa At the heart of Christian theology is Christology the confessed uniqueness of Christ in history and among world religions Yet this key feature of Christianity as with other important elements of the Christian faith may be variously understood and re interpreted in these indigenous churches The focus of this study is the amaNazaretha Church an influential religious group founded by the African charismatic prophet Isaiah Shembe in 1911 in the province of KwaZulu Natal South Africa The movement today claims a following of some two million adherents and has proliferated beyond the borders of South Africa to neighboring countries in Southern Africa The book addresses the complex and at times ambivalent understanding of the person and work of Christ in the amaNazaretha Church presenting the genesis history beliefs and practices of this significant religious movement in South Africa with broader implications for similar movements across the continent of Africa and beyond

God's Mission in Asia Ken Christoph Miyamoto, 2007-06-15 Ecumenism in postwar Asia institutionalized in the Christian Conference of Asia displayed a remarkable this worldliness from its inception in the 1940s This tendency was in contrast to the tension between the church centric and world centric approaches to Christian mission that marked conciliar mission thinking in the West This work examines the development of such this worldly holiness in Asian ecumenism focusing on M M Thomas of India and C S Song from Taiwan Special attention is drawn to the idea of God's this worldly presence that considers God as redemptively at work in world history apart from the church The study first compares the development of this worldly holiness in the West and Asia and then examines the thinking of Thomas and Song The chapters on these two theologians discuss their backgrounds the basic concerns motivating their intellectual searches and responses to the questions arising from such concerns These chapters also try to understand how these theologians view the relationship between God and the world In so doing the study highlights the significance of the idea of God's this worldly presence shared by Thomas and Song in spite of differences in their backgrounds approaches and theological formulations Having compared Thomas and Song the study concludes that the idea of God's this worldly presence became central to Asian ecumenism because it offered a common unifying vision to Asian Christians who come from a region characterized by tremendous diversity The idea helped them to see the diverse peoples cultures and religions in Asia under one God who transcends the diversity and still takes it seriously
