Message Dimensions Of Television:

Message Dimensions of Television News Robert Shelby Frank,1973 Television's Window on the World James F. Larson,1984 This volume examines U S network television coverage of international news based on experiences of the past decade First it describes significant patterns and trends in the international affairs content of network news during the decade from 1972 1981 including story formats visual and audio techniques and trends in the amount and nature of coverage given to nations and regions of the world Second it examines major influences that shape international news content on network television including satellite technology electronic newsgathering and the global distribution of foreign correspondents Measuring Bias on Television Barrie Gunter,1997 Exploring the important issue of impartiality in news reporting with special reference to news broadcasting on television this book examines the position of impartiality or bias within the context of news objectivity by exploring accusations of bias by aggrieved parties claiming to have been treated unfairly misrepresented or underrepresented An Integrated Approach to Communication Theory and Research Don W. Stacks,Michael B. Salwen,2014-04-08 This volume provides an overview of communication study offering theoretical coverage of the broad scope of communication study as well as integrating theory with research To explicate the integration process the chapter contributors experts in their respective areas offer samples in the form of hypothetical studies published studies or unpublished research showing how theory and research are integrated in their particular fields The book will appeal to graduate students and faculty members who want a thorough overview of not only the field but also sample research stemming from its various component parts And There Was Television Professor Ellis Cashmore,Ellis Cashmore,2002-09-09 Argues that television is the central apparatus of consumer society and its success is measured not in terms of whether we enjoy programs but how much we spend as a result of watching them Should be read by anyone who watches television Agenda Setting David Protess,Maxwell E. McCombs,2016-07-22 The role of the news media in defining the important issues of the day also known as the agenda setting influence of mass communication has received widespread attention over the past 20 years Since the publication of McCombs and Shaw s seminal empirical study more than one hundred journal articles and monographs have appeared This collection exemplifies the major phases of research on agenda setting tests of the basic hypothesis contingent conditions affecting the strength of this influence the natural history of public issues mass media influence on public policy and the role of external sources from the president to public relations staffs on the news agenda Communication Research Measures Rebecca B. Rubin,Philip Palmgreen,Howard E. Sypher,2020-08-26 The development of communication as a discipline has resulted in an explosion of scales tapping various aspects of interpersonal mass organizational and instructional communication This sourcebook brings together scales that measure a variety of important communication constructs The scales presented are drawn from areas of interpersonal mass organizational and instructional communication areas in which the use of formal quantitative scales is particularly well developed Communication Research Measures reflects the recent important emphasis on developing and improving the measurement base of the communication discipline. It results in an equal amount of labor saved on the part of the scholars, students and practitioners who find this book useful and it contributes in a significant way to research efforts. Originally published by Guilford Press in 1994, now available from Routledge. Civic Discourse and Digital Age Communications in the Middle East Leo A. Gher, Hussein Y. Amin, 2000-02-08. Because of its focus on communications and new media, this volume in Ablex's Civic Discourse for the Third Millennium series may be used at colleges and universities worldwide. A wide range of curricula may adopt the text as supplementary reading for courses in political science, speech and rhetoric, public relations, sociology, communications, journalism, diplomacy and government. BOOK JACKET TV Dimensions, 1995

Seeing and Believing Greg Philo, 2014-04-04. Television has a powerful impact on our beliefs and is open to use as a political and propaganda tool. Greg Philo has taken a new approach to examining these issues by inviting groups of television viewers to write their own news programmes based on news pictures from the 1984-5 British miners strike. Women Dimension on Television Ila Joshi, 1991. Virtual Communities: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2010-10-31. Covers the development, design and utilization of virtual organizations and communities and the resulting impact of these venues. The International Conference Education and Creativity for a Knowledge based Society - Social and Political Sciences, Communication, Foreign Languages and Public Relations, 2012, Social Interactive Television: Immersive Shared Experiences and Perspectives Cesar, Pablo, Geerts, David, Chorianopoulos, Konstantinos, 2009-05-31. This book discusses the advent of social interactive television with its complex opportunities and challenges for media researchers and others today. Provided by publisher. Making Something of Ourselves Richard M. Merelman, 2023-04-28. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1984. Television in Society Arthur Asa Berger, 2017-09-29. Is television a cultural wasteland or a medium that has brought people more great art, music, dance and drama than any previous media? How do we study and interpret television? What are the effects of television on individuals and society and how do we measure them? What is the role of television in our political and economic life? Television in Society explores these issues in considering how television both reflects and affects society. The book is divided into two sections. The first focuses on programming and deals with commercials, ceremonial events, important series such as MASH and Lou Grant, significant programs, a production of Brave New World on television and the images of police on the medium. The second part of the book deals with important issues and topics related to the medium: the impact of television violence, values found on television, the impact of television on education, the significance of new technological developments and the always thorny issue of freedom of the press The articles are drawn together by a brilliant introductory essay by Arthur Asa Berger who examines television as culture

Communication Research Measures II Rebecca B. Rubin, Alan M Rubin, Elizabeth E. Graham, Elizabeth M. Perse, David Seibold, 2010-04-26 Expanding and building on the measures included in the original 1994 volume Communication Research Measures II A Sourcebook provides new measures in mass interpersonal instructional and group organizational communication areas and highlights work in newer subdisciplines in communication including intercultural family and health It also includes measures from outside the communication discipline that have been employed in communication research The measures profiled here are the best of the best from the early 1990s through today They are models for future scale development as well as tools for the trade and they constitute the main tools that researchers can use for self administered measurement of people s attitudes conceptions of themselves and perceptions of others The focus is on up to date measures and the most recent scales and indexes used to assess communication variables Providing suggestions for measurement of concepts of interest to researchers inspiring students to consider research directions not considered previously and supplying models for scale developers to follow in terms of the work necessary to produce a valid and reliable measurement instrument in the discipline the authors of this key resource have developed a significant contribution toward improving measurement and providing measures for better science
