When the World Was Black Part One Supreme Understanding, 2013-02-02 When the World Was Black The Untold History of the World's First Civilizations Volume Two of The Science of Self series has been published in TWO parts Why two Because there are far too many stories that remain untold We had over 200 000 years of Black history to tell from the southern tip of Chile to the northernmost isles of Europe and you can't do that justice in a 300 page book So there are two parts each consisting of 360 pages of groundbreaking history digging deep into the story of all the world's original people Part One covers the Black origins of all the world's oldest cultures and societies spanning more than 200 000 years of human history Part Two tells the stories of the Black men and women who introduced urban civilization to the world over the last 20 000 years up to the time of European contact Each part has over 100 helpful maps graphs and photos an 8 page full color insert in the center and over 300 footnotes and references for further research In this book you'll learn about the history of Black people I don't mean the history you learned in school which most likely began with slavery and ended with the Civil Rights Movement I'm talking about Black history BEFORE that Long before that In this book we'll cover over 200 000 years of Black history For many of us that sounds strange We can't even imagine what the Black past was like before the slave trade much less imagine that such a history goes back 200 000 years or more Part Two covers history from 20 000 years ago to the point of European contact This is the time that prehistoric cultures grew into ancient urban civilizations a transition known to historians as the Neolithic Revolution

New Directions in Copyright Law Fiona Macmillan, 2006-02-24 This second volume contains further exploration of the themes considered in Volume 1 namely the theoretical framework of copyright and the convergence divergence and globalisation of copyright highly entertaining and often shocking new book James Morton and Susanna Lobez follow up their bestselling Gangland Australia by delving into the world of Australian con artists such as Mario Condello Helen Demidenko Christopher Skase Brenton Jarrett Peter Foster Lola Montez and Fairlie Arrow Here are highly talented men and women and their tricks changing paper into banknotes selling other people's property faking deaths and forging paintings promising miracle cures and impersonating aristocracy preachers military gents lawyers and doctors In fact whatever it takes to separate the unwary from their money Read about the scams and think twice about that offer that seems almost too good to be true The Seat of Consciousness in Ancient Literature Richard E. Lind, 2015-01-09 For early civilizations consciousness and the sense of self were experienced as located in the center of the body most often near to or within the physical heart Enlightenment was understood as the illumination of a transformed spiritual heart Thus the mind of the body as a whole was represented by the heart soul In contrast modern culture places consciousness within the brain resulting in a mind body dualism This separation of mind and body has recently been emphasized as characteristic of the psychopathologies of the modern self This volume explores the understanding and experience of consciousness in the earliest civilizations before about 500 BCE Beginning with a description of ancient Western and Eastern heart consciousness the psychological and spiritual manifestations of the ancient mature heart soul are summarized Ancestor worship lineage identity primitive consciousness and the ways in which the external world was mirrored by the inner world provide additional clues about the experience of heart consciousness Finally the work addresses the fundamental changes in the experience of consciousness that led to the mind body dualism of today Message from Forever Marlo Morgan, 1998-06-03 Following her modern classic and worldwide bestseller Mutant Message Down Under Marlo Morgan's long awaited new novel is a tale of self enlightenment about aboriginal twins separated at birth and the search for roots that reunites them from opposite sides of the globe Once more Morgan unveils the inspiring aboriginal worldview while pointedly exposing the plight of an ancient race rapidly becoming extinct as a result of more than two hundred years of systematic discrimination Message from Forever follows the lives of Australian aboriginal twins who were taken from their young mother by Christian missionaries The baby boy is sent to a huge sheep ranch where he grows up with little adult supervision and random affection On his own Geoff develops his talent as an artist producing work at a level well beyond his five years The boy is adopted by an American minister and is raised in New England with little sense of who he is or of his cultural heritage His sister is given only the first name Beatrice by the nuns at an Australian orphanage where she encounters continual racism and experiences shattering losses for the first eighteen years of her life Upon reaching adulthood Beatrice leaves the orphanage to work at a boardinghouse Beatrice hungers to know more about her ancestral roots She walks away from her life in the city to strike out into the northern desert nation where she goes on a walkabout with a small band of Aborigines Geoff does not fare so well in America As a teen he runs away from home and slips into a life of crime alcohol and alienation His addictions destroy him and he finds himself on Death Row with little sense of
