Mestizo Logics Anthropology Of Identity In Africa And Elsewhere:

Mestizo Logics Jean-Loup Amselle, 1998 This work seeks to reverse the perspective and reasoning of anthropology and to develop an alternative mode of conceiving culture that would not automatically privilege the colonizing West That necessarily involves a critique of the ethnological reason that extracts elements from their context aestheticizes them and then uses their supposed differences to classify types of political economic or religious ensembles Such reason yields classical oppositions like the state versus segmentary societies market versus subsistence economies and Islam or Christianity versus paganism As an alternative the author opposes to exclusionary categories a mestizo logic that sees social phenomena as situated on a continuum and accentuates indistinction and the originary syncretism in all cultures and other ways of categorizing human life The book s rich source material is drawn from the author s fifteen years of fieldwork and research in West Africa The Study of Africa Volume 2: Global and Transnational Engagements Tiyanbe Zeleza, 2006-06-15 This is the second of a two volume work taking stock of the study of Africa in the twenty first century its status research agenda and approaches and place It is divided into two parts the first entitled Globalisation Studies and African Studies and the second African Studies in Regional Contexts Topics addressed in part one include trans boundary formations and the study of Africa global economic liberalisation and development in Africa African diasporas academics and the struggle for a global epistemic presence and the problem of translation in African studies Part two considers African and area studies in France the US the UK Australia Germany and Sweden anti colonialism and Russian soviet African studies African studies in the Caribbean in historical perspective the teaching of African history and the history of Africa in Brazil African studies in India African studies and historiography in China in the twenty first century and African studies and contemporary scholarship in Japan Africa after Modernism Michael Janis, 2013-05-13 Africa after Modernism traces shifts in perspectives on African culture arts and philosophy from the conflict with European modernist interventions in the climate of colonialist aggression to present identitarian positions in the climate of globalism multiculturalism and mass media By focusing on what may be called deconstructive moments in twentieth century Africanist thought on intellectual landmarks revolutionary ideas crises of consciousness literary and philosophical debates this study looks at African modernity and modernism from critical postcolonial perspectives An effort to sketch contemporary frameworks of global intersubjective relations reflecting African cultures and concerns must resist taking modernism as a term of African periodization or master narrative but as a constellation of discursive and subjective forms that obtains upon the present moment in African literature philosophy and cultural history Africa after Modernism argues for a philosophical consciousness and pan African multiculturalist ethos that operate after the deconstruction of Eurocentrism beyond self other paradigms of exoticism or West Africa political ideologies in dialogue with postcolonial approaches to cultural reciprocity The Study of Africa Volume 2: Global and Transnational Engagements Paul Tiyanbe Zeleza, 2006 This is the second of a two volume work taking stock of the study of Africa in the twenty first century its status research agenda and approaches and place It is divided into two parts the first entitled Globalisation Studies and African Studies and the second African Studies in Regional Contexts Topics addressed in part one include trans boundary formations and the study of Africa global economic liberalisation and development in Africa African diasporas academics and the struggle for a global epistemic presence and the problem of translation in African studies Part two considers African and area studies in France the US the UK Australia Germany and Sweden anti colonialism and Russian soviet African studies African studies in the Caribbean in historical perspective the teaching of African history and the history of Africa in Brazil African studies in India African studies and historiography in China in the twenty first century and African studies and contemporary scholarship in Japan

Sounds of Other Shores Andrew J. Eisenberg, 2024-04-02 Sounds of Other Shores takes an ethnographic ear to the history of transoceanic stylistic appropriation in the Swahili taarab music of the Kenyan coast Swahili taarab a form of sung poetry that emerged as East Africa's first mass mediated popular music in the 1930s is a famously cosmopolitan form rich in audible influences from across the Indian Ocean But the variants of the genre that emerged in the Kenyan coastal city of Mombasa during the twentieth century feature particularly dramatic even flamboyant appropriations of Indian and Arab sonic gestures and styles Combining oral history interpretive ethnography and musical analysis Sounds of Other Shores explores how Swahili speaking Muslims in twentieth century Mombasa derived pleasure and meaning from acts of transoceanic musical appropriation arguing that these acts served as ways of reflecting on and mediating the complexities and contradictions associated with being Swahili in colonial and postcolonial Kenya The result is a musical anthropology of Kenyan Swahili subjectivity that reframes longstanding questions about Swahili identity while contributing to broader discussions about identity and citizenship in Africa and the Indian Ocean world

Ethnicity and the Colonial State Alexander Keese, 2015-11-30 Ethnicity and the Colonial State compares the choices of community leaders in three different West African groups Wolof Temne and Ewe with regard to selling their identifications to the colonial rulers The book thereby addresses ethnicity as a factor in global history

A History of Race in Muslim West Africa, 1600-1960 Bruce S. Hall, 2011-06-06 The mobilization of local ideas about racial difference has been important in generating and intensifying civil wars that have occurred since the end of colonial rule in all of the countries that straddle the southern edge of the Sahara Desert From Sudan to Mauritania the racial categories deployed in contemporary conflicts often hearken back to an older history in which blackness could be equated with slavery and non blackness with predatory and uncivilized banditry This book traces the development of arguments about race over a period of more than 350 years in one important place along the southern edge of the Sahara Desert the Niger Bend in northern Mali Using Arabic documents held in Timbuktu as well as local colonial sources in French and oral interviews Bruce S Hall reconstructs an African intellectual history of race that long predated colonial conquest and which has continued to orient inter African relations ever since

Making Early Medieval Societies Kate Cooper, Conrad Leyser, 2016-01-21 Examines the fundamental question of what held the societies of the post Roman world together Long-Distance Nationalism in the Global City Bennett Eason Cross,2022-08-15 Focusing on migration within the global south Bennett Eason Cross uses the example of the Malian trade diaspora in Lagos to argue that aspects of the original model of the transmigrant were based on labor migrations from global south to global north that are not representative of their south to south counterparts In Long Distance Nationalism in the Global City A Cultural History of the Malian Diaspora in Lagos Nigeria Cross notes that the cultural and racial differences between migrant communities and their host societies in Europe and the U S are often narrower or even nonexistent in south to south migrations which shapes different outcomes As this multi site case study reveals however these differences in outcome can seem counterintuitive as immigrants in the north typically develop loyalties to both origin and host nations whereas among the Malians in Lagos affinity for the host nation was virtually nonexistent despite a common regional culture He complicates the standard bilateral struggle for belonging between host and origin societies by examining the role of Islam both as a parallel transnational movement and as a competing localized form This book analyzes the deep historical structure of each society to explain the Malians failure to develop the multiple national identities observed in other diasporas

Mestizaje Nestor Medina ,2014-07-30 Power and Landscape in Atlantic West Africa J. Cameron Monroe,Akinwumi Ogundiran,2012-02-13 This volume examines the archaeology of precolonial West African societies in the era of the trans Atlantic slave trade Using historical and archaeological perspectives on landscape this collection of essays sheds light on how involvement in the commercial revolutions of the early modern period dramatically reshaped the regional contours of political organization across West Africa The essays examine how social and political transformations occurred at the regional level by exploring regional economic networks population shifts cultural values and ideologies The book demonstrates the importance of anthropological insights not only to the broad political history of West Africa but also to an understanding of political culture as a form of meaningful social practice Global Africans Toyin Falola,Cacee Hoyer,2017-01-20 Black African African descendant and of African heritage are just some of the ways Africans and Africans in the diaspora both old and new describe themselves This volume examines concepts of race ethnicity and identity as they are ascribed to people of colour around the world examining different case studies of how the process of identity formation occurred and is changing Contributors to this volume selected from a wide range of academic and cultural backgrounds explore issues that encourage a deeper understanding of race ethnicity and identity As our notions about what it means to be black or of African heritage change as a result of globalization it is important to reassess how these issues are currently developing and the origins from which these issues developed Global Africans is an important and insightful book useful to a wide range of students and scholars particularly of African studies sociology diaspora studies and race and ethnic studies

The Predicament of Blackness Jemima Pierre,2013 What is the meaning of blackness in Africa This title tackles the question of race in West Africa through its post colonial manifestations Pierre examines key facets of contemporary Ghanaian society from the pervasive significance of whiteness to the practice of chemical skin bleaching to the government's active promotion of Pan African heritage tourism

Faith in Flux Devaka Premawardhana, 2018-03-02 Pentecostalism Africa's fastest growing form of Christianity is known for displacing that which came before Yet anthropologist Devaka Premawardhana witnessed neither massive growth nor dramatic rupture in the part of Mozambique where he worked His research opens a new paradigm for the study of global Christianity one centered on religious fluidity and existential mobility and on how indigenous traditions remain vibrant and influential even in the lives of converts In Faith in Flux Premawardhana narrates a range of everyday hardships faced by a rural Makhuwa speaking people snakebites and elephant invasions chronic illnesses and recurring wars disputes within families and conflicts with the state to explore how wellbeing sometimes entails not stability but mobility In their ambivalent response to Pentecostalism as in their historical resistance to sedentarization and other modernizing projects the Makhuwa reveal crucial insights about what it is to be human about changing as a means of enduring becoming as a mode of being and converting as a way of life

Women and Islamic Revival in a West African Town Adeline Masquelier, 2009-10-02 In the small town of Dogondoutchi Niger Malam Awal a charismatic Sufi preacher was recruited by local Muslim leaders to denounce the practices of reformist Muslims Malam Awal's message has been viewed as a mixed blessing by Muslim women who have seen new definitions of Islam and Muslim practice impact their place and role in society This study follows the career of Malam Awal and documents the engagement of women in the religious debates that are refashioning their everyday lives Adeline Masquelier reveals how these women have had to define Islam on their own terms especially as a practice that governs education participation in prayer domestic activities wedding customs and who wears the veil and how Masquelier's richly detailed narrative presents new understandings of what it means to be a Muslim woman in Africa today

The Routledge Companion to Digital Humanities and Art History Kathryn Brown, 2020-04-15 The Routledge Companion to Digital Humanities and Art History offers a broad survey of cutting edge intersections between digital technologies and the study of art history museum practices and cultural heritage The volume focuses not only on new computational tools that have been developed for the study of artworks and their histories but also debates the disciplinary opportunities and challenges that have emerged in response to the use of digital resources and methodologies Chapters cover a wide range of technical and conceptual themes that define the current state of the field and outline strategies for future development This book offers a timely perspective on trans disciplinary developments that are reshaping art historical research conservation and teaching This book will be of interest to scholars in art history historical theory method and historiography and research methods in education

The Rise of the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade in Western Africa, 1300-1589 Toby Green, 2011-10-10 The region between the river Senegal and Sierra Leone saw the first trans Atlantic slave trade in the sixteenth century Drawing on many new sources Toby Green challenges current quantitative approaches to the history of the slave trade New data on slave origins can show how and why Western African societies responded to Atlantic pressures Green argues that answering these questions requires a cultural framework and uses the idea of creolization the formation of mixed cultural communities in the era of plantation societies to argue that preceding social patterns in both Africa and Europe were crucial Major impacts of the sixteenth century slave trade included political fragmentation changes in identity and the re organization of ritual and social patterns The book shows which peoples were enslaved why they were vulnerable and the consequences in Africa and beyond Kafka's Monkey and Other Phantoms of Africa Seloua Luste Boulbina, 2019-05-24 Even though many of France's former colonies became independent over fifty years ago the concept of colony and who was affected by colonialism remain problematic in French culture today Seloua Luste Boulbina an Algerian French philosopher and political theorist shows how the colony's structures persist in the subjectivity sexuality and bodily experience of human beings who were once brought together through force This text which combines two works by Luste Boulbina shows how France and its former colonies are haunted by power relations that are supposedly old history but whose effects on knowledge imagination emotional habits and public controversies have persisted vividly into the present Luste Boulbina draws on the work of Michel Foucault Frantz Fanon and douard Glissant to build a challenging original and intercultural philosophy that responds to blind spots of inherited political and social culture Kafka's Monkey and Other Phantoms of Africa offers unique insights into how issues of migration religious and ethnic identity and postcolonial history affect contemporary France and beyond Cape Town Harmonies Armelle Gaulier, Denis-Constant Martin, 2017-07-19 Cape Town's public cultures can only be fully appreciated through recognition of its deep and diverse soundscape We have to listen to what has made and makes a city The ear is an integral part of the research tools one needs to get a sense of any city We have to listen to the sounds that made and make the expansive mother city Various of its constituent parts sound different from each other There is the sound of the singing men and their choirs teams they are called in preparation for the longstanding annual Malay choral competitions The lyrics from the various repertoires they perform are hardly ever written down There are texts of the hallowed Dutch songs but these do not circulate easily and widely Researchers dream of finding lyrics from decades ago not to mention a few generations ago back to the early 19th century This work by Denis Constant Martin and Armelle Gaulier provides us with a very useful selection of these songs More than that it is a critical sociological reflection of the place of these songs and their performers in the context that have given rise to them and sustains their relevance It is a necessary work and is a very important scholarly intervention about a rather neglected aspect of the history and present production of music in the city Strength beyond Structure Mirjam de Bruijn, Jan-Bart Gewald, Rijk van Dijk, 2007-07-31 This book explores the notion of agency in a range of empirical situations in Africa Agency directs our quest for an understanding of the dynamics and social transformations of African situations to the domains of creativity inventiveness and reflexivity It emphasizes the possibilities individuals and social groups perceive when faced with the constraints that tend to mark African social life The case studies provide an alternative view of people and society in Africa by looking at the ways social strength is created in the hope of overcoming many of the structural limitations encountered in daily life Strength beyond Structure challenges the optimism that is engrained in the development rhetoric about Africa by making agency the subject of empirical scrutiny
