Metalinguistic Operators with Reference to French Thanh Nyan, 1998 This study focuses primarily on the interface between Anscombe and Ducrot's Argumentation Theory and certain types of expression here defined as metalinguistic operators These operators as construed by Argumentation Theory are directly linked to various issues of particular relevance to Linguistic Theory semantic constraints on context the nature of procedural meaning objective versus subjective aspects of meaning the relationship between cohesion and coherence in discourse and the link between linguistic and cognitive function

Discours Coherence Connect. O/P Maj-Britt Mosegaard Hansen, Gunver Skytte, 1996 Les connecteurs temporels du français Estelle Moline, Dejan Stosic, Carl Vettters, 2006 Ce volume commence par une etude diachronique de Bernard Combettes qui aborde le probleme de l'alternance que ce que dans la constitution des locutions conjonctives temporelles en ancien francais en analysant en detail le cas de des ce que Ensuite Walter De Mulder etudie l'adverbe maintenant a la fois dans ses emplois temporels et non temporels et se propose de montrer que cet element peut etre considere comme une expression token reflexive Anne Le Draoulec s'interesse au glissement de la subordination temporelle a la connexion temporelle Dans son article elle etudie les cas du quand inverse et deux autres subordonnants jusqu'a ce que et avant que Estelle Moline s'interroge sur la question de savoir s'il est ou non pertinent de distinguer en francais deux morphemes homophones comme l'un temporel l'autre causal ou si au contraire il s'agit d'un seul et meme element Gender, Politeness and Pragmatic Particles in French Kate Beeching, 2002 This study aims to investigate politeness in women's and men's speech with a particular focus on the use of c'est a dire enfin hein and quoi in contemporary spoken French Politeness is defined as going beyond the notion of the face threatening act englobing both everyday ideas of politeness and the creation of sociability in face to face interaction The pragmatic particles studied are demonstrated to serve both psycholinguistic and sociolinguistic purposes they lubricate reformulation and contribute to both sociability and social indexation The study which combines qualitative and quantitative analysis is based on a corpus of spontaneous spoken French comprising 155 000 words 95 interviews and subjects ranging in age from 7 to 88 years The sample contains speakers from a broader range of educational backgrounds than is often the case a butcher a video salesman and a toiletteur canin rub shoulders with counter assistants teachers and doctors The Cambridge Handbook of Sociopragmatics Michael Haugh, Dániel Z.

Kádár, Marina Terkourafi, 2021-04-22 Sociopragmatics is a rapidly growing field and this is the first ever handbook dedicated to this exciting area of study Bringing together an international team of leading editors and contributors it provides a comprehensive cutting edge overview of the key concepts topics settings and methodologies involved in sociopragmatic research The chapters are organised in a systematic fashion and span a wide range of theoretical research on how language communicates multiple meanings in context how it influences our daily interactions and relationships with others and how it helps construct our social worlds Providing insight into a fascinating array of phenomena and novel research directions the

The Function of Discourse Particles Maj-Britt Mosegaard Hansen, 1998-03-15 This monograph aims to contribute to linguistic knowledge about the distribution and function of discourse particles particularly with respect to a small group of particles which are highly frequent in contemporary spoken standard French The book is divided into two parts Part 1 Theory defines discourse particles as such and gives a dynamic global approach to their description Matters such as previous research on discourse particles related categories of particles instructional semantics the difference between speech and writing the delimitation of discourse units competing approaches to discourse structure and to coherence and methodology are discussed extensively Part 2 Description offers in depth corpus based analyses of six French discourse particles namely bon ben eh bien puis donc and alors as used in non elicited native speaker interaction The book is of interest to linguists doing research in semantics pragmatics and discourse studies

Linguistic Meaning, Truth Conditions and Relevance C. Iten, 2005-05-13 The main argument of this book is that the notion of truth plays no role in speaker hearers interpretation of linguistic utterances and that it is not needed for theoretical accounts of linguistic meaning either The theoretical argument is developed in the first part while the second part supports it with cognitive relevance theoretic rather than truth based analyses of the concessive expressions but although and even if

Semantic Primes and Universal Grammar Bert Peeters, 2006-08-16 This volume is part of a research program which started with the publication in 1972 of Anna Wierzbicka's groundbreaking work on Semantic Primitives The first within the program to focus on a number of typologically similar languages it proposes a French Spanish Portuguese and Italian version of the Natural Semantic Metalanguage NSM elaborated over the years by Wierzbicka and colleagues Repetition is avoided through teamwork a number of authors working on the languages under examination have had equal input in a set of five papers dealing with distinct parts of the metalanguage Some of the findings presented here invite us to have a fresh look at what has already been achieved and to amend some of the working hypotheses of the NSM approach accordingly The volume also contains six case studies on Italian sfogarsi Portuguese saudades Spanish crisis French certes Spanish expressions of sincerity and Italian and Spanish diminutives respectively

considerations or the role of Experimental Pragmatics for hypothesis checking

Context Construction as Mediated by Discourse Markers Thanh Nyan, 2016-08-29 From a Darwinian perspective language is rooted in our neurobiology and the process whereby interpretation is reached in the case of argumentative sequences is not dissimilar to that underlying action selection in response to environmental change indeed it arguably involves the same type of decision making Damasio 1994 Context construction as construed by Nyan corresponds to the preliminary stage of decision making when the changed environment needs to be categorised What discourse markers contribute to context construction is an upgraded level of automation whereby the degree of variation assumed to be present in the interlocutor's processing context can be brought within a manageable range How discourse markers influence interpretation is construed in terms of Damasio's 2010 convergence and divergence zone framework

New Perspectives on Irish English Bettina Migge, Máire Ní Chiosáin, 2012 This volume brings together current research by international scholars on the varieties of English spoken in Ireland The papers apply contemporary theoretical and methodological approaches and frameworks to a range of topics A number of papers explore the distribution of linguistic features in Irish English including the evolution of linguistic structures in Irish English and linguistic change in progress employing broadly quantitative sociolinguistic approaches Pragmatic features of Irish English are explored through corpus linguistics based analysis The construction of linguistic corpora using written and recorded material form the focus of other papers extending and analyzing the growing range of corpus material available to researchers of varieties of English including diaspora varieties Issues of language and identity in contemporary Ireland are explored in several contributions using both qualitative and quantitative methods The volume will be of interest to linguists generally and to scholars with an interest in varieties of English

Pragmatic Markers and Pragmaticalization Peter Lauwers, Gudrun Vanderbauwhede, Stijn Verleyen, 2012 In this paper we investigate the evolution from imperatives to discourse markers in Romance with a corpus based approach We focus on the case of items coming from verbs meaning to look in a semasiological perspective Spanish and Catalan mira Portuguese olha Italian guarda French regarde Romanian uite We show that they all share many uses among which turn taking introduction of reported speech hesitation phenomenon topic shifting and modalization except for French regarde We then establish against Waltereit 2002 that the development of these uses is the result of a process

Meanings at the Text Level Thanh Nyan, 2004 If language and the brain are co evolved and language as a latecomer can avail itself of pre existing means to solve its own problems then it should be possible to describe it in terms of processing strategies and constraints arising from brain systems This is precisely what this study attempts to do with respect to the emergence of three types of higher level meanings direct speech acts built in conditions for their success and non defective performance and constraints on sequencing of an argumentational kind In so doing there are three main issues it needs to address What types of problem arise at the text level that could have led to the emergence in question Is there a clear parallel between these problems and those faced by brain systems What solutions

have been evolved to cater for the latter which could have been co opted by language Finally there is the question of the extent to which such an account is compatible with a global theory of brain function such as Edelman s Theory of Neuronal Group Selection

Metalinguistic Discourses Viviane Arigne,Christiane Rocq-Migette,2015-09-18 This book was born from the desire to conduct an inquiry into the heterogeneity and variety of linguistic theories in order to assess their descriptive and explanatory power The first part of the volume brings together contributions addressing formal and theoretical issues It focuses on the specific questions of metalinguistic discourses representations and formal symbols and considers the case of representations pertaining to different metalinguistic levels and their possible translation from one level to another The essays compiled in this section also examine how generative semantics paved the way for current trends in cognitive linguistics and provide an analysis of the historical and epistemological context of the notion of metafunction found in Systemic Functional Grammar The contributions gathered in the second part of the book evaluate the results of a certain number of linguistic studies putting various theories to the test They specifically discuss the notion of intersective gradience analyse modality and the question of irony within two different theoretical frameworks and deal with parenthetical verbs in the light of an utterer centred approach This book will appeal to all linguists with an interest in linguistic theories to advanced students in linguistics as well as to scholars in cognate fields such as epistemology philosophy of language psychology and neurosciences Comparative Romance Linguistics Newsletter ,2000 Current Research in French Studies at Universities and Polytechnics in the United Kingdom and Ireland ,1996 L'énonciation dans tous ses états Merete Birkelund,Maj-Britt Mosegaard Hansen,Coco Norén,2008 Henning N lke continue depuis 25 ans faire d importantes contributions l tude de la langue fran aise surtout dans le domaine de la linguistique nonciative Les trente six tudes recueillies ici se concentrent sur un choix de th matiques qui lui sont ch res savoir la polyphonie la diff rence entre sens assert et sens montr l argumentation dans la langue les connecteurs et les adverbes de phrase la s mantique et la pragmatique textuelle ainsi que la modularit L ouvrage r unit des contributions de sp cialistes travaillant en Belgique au Danemark en France en Isra l en Norv ge au Royaume Uni et en Su de tous coll gues amis et admirateurs parfois anciens tudians de Henning N lke Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2004-12
