standpoint by leading specialists in the fields of conceptual metaphor and metonymy and conceptual integration blending The book has two main goals One of them is to discuss in new provocative ways the nature of these conceptual mappings in English and their interaction The other goal is to explore by means of several detailed case studies the central role of these mappings in English The studies are thus concerned with the operation of metaphor and metonymy in discourse including literary discourse or with the effect of metaphorical and or metonymic mappings on some aspects of linguistic structure be it polysemy or grammar The book is of interest to students and researchers in English and linguistics English literature cognitive psychology and cognitive science      Communication Skills in Health and Social Care Bernard Moss, 2012-03-26 This thoroughly revised and updated Second Edition of Communication Skills for Health and Social Care provides an accessible introduction to the wide range of communication skills needed for contemporary health and social care practice Presented in a unique and easy to use dictionary format the book acts as a working tool which students can dip in and out of throughout their course and continue to use once they have qualified for practice The updated edition includes new chapters on Groupwork Interprofessional Collaboration Emotional Intelligence Assertiveness Information and Communication Technologies ICT Offering a fresh approach to a core topic on the health and social care curriculum each chapter suggests group activities and further reading making this book an ideal resource for students of health social care social work and nursing as well as qualified practitioners Bernard Moss is Emeritus Professor of Social Work Education and Spirituality at Staffordshire University and Senior Fellow and National Teaching Fellow Higher Education Academy UK

Counterbalance Carolyn Logan, 1997-04-15 Like other composition readers Counterbalance has as its primary purpose to improve thinking reading and writing skills recognizing throughout the degree to which these are inextricably interlinked Where Counterbalance differs from almost all other composition readers is in the prominence it gives to writing by women More and more of the writers in modern Western society are women and women now comprise a substantial majority of the students in many undergraduate courses Yet most texts are eighty per cent or more comprised of writing by men As its title suggests this book acts as a counterbalance over three quarters of the essays are by women The feminist stance of Counterbalance is unequivocal an important aim of this text is to encourage students to question assumptions about gender But for those to whom the word feminist engenders immediate unease it should be emphasised that the stance of the text is provocative and open minded rather than strident or exclusionary Audre Lorde and bell hooks are here but so is George Orwell The text is also designed as a counterbalance in other respects many of the essays here explore issues of race culture and class Notions of correctness and issues of free speech and responsibility are also treated As a whole the book is thus an invigorating and enormously wide ranging spur to thought and discussion Yet it avoids the scatter gun approach so common to first year collections Counterbalance retains throughout a focus on language perhaps the one area that all students no matter what their backgrounds and interests can connect to out of their everyday experience The book's thesis is that we can all think more clearly and use language more effectively if we know not only something about the traditional areas of composition and grammar but also something about how language influences us The essays selected demonstrate a variety of expository styles organizations and methods of development They are organized into seven chapters so as to present a coherent progression moving from simpler essays on more familiar topics to more difficult concepts and writing assignments

My Love Is Alive Rev Dempsey Harshaw,2012-08 My Love Is Alive is a love story of Consciousness to Itself It portrays the Idea of Consciousness for the sole purpose of illuminating Consciousness to its Self Imagine your shadow on the ground in front of you Who you really are Infinite Consciousness is the One watching the shadow My Love Is Alive is the process of accepting embracing and living this reality in and as your life The result is an outpouring of love for yourself and your experience The ideas circle in a repetitive dance of discovery as the concepts sink deeper and deeper into the reader s understanding There is a powerful and undeniable message of life that has never been so fully unveiled Using Biblical references the author repeatedly demonstrates the true nature of our essence The text is thought provoking at the least and utterly transformative in its fullest meaning My Love Is Alive is a doorway only you can walk through You will transition from the experience of believing that you are one of many individuals that make up the whole to embracing the experience that you truly are The One Allow yourself to go through this process of My Love Is Alive with expectancy     Exploring Morgan's Metaphors Anders Örtengren, Kiran Trehan, Linda L. Putnam, 2016-07-05 Gareth Morgan's monumental book Images of Organization revolutionized the field of organization theory In honor of Morgan's classic text this edited volume Exploring Morgan's Metaphors Theory Research and Practice in Organizational Studies illustrates how Morgan's eight metaphors inform research practice and organizational intervention in a variety of contexts Including contributions from well known experts in their fields specifically Joep Cornelisen Cliff Oswick David Grant Hari Tsoukas and Gareth Morgan this new text offers fresh perspectives and sets forth new metaphors for conceptualizing organizations in today's workforce Readers will gain insights and guidelines into the different ways that Morgan's metaphors and metaphorical thinking can be used to better understand organizational life as well as how to study and develop organizations     Metaphor and Reconciliation Lynne Cameron, 2012-01-04 Sixteen years after her father was killed by an IRA bomb Jo Berry had her first conversation with the man responsible She had made a long journey walking the footsteps of the bombers as she put it determined not to give in to anger and revenge but to try to understand his motivations and perspective Her preparedness to meet Pat Magee opened up a path to empathy that developed through their conversations over the following years This book studies their growing understandings of each other by focusing on the rich networks of metaphors that appear in their conversations and how these evolve in the process of reconciliation The innovative research method reported in a rigorous but accessible style together with the rich and often poignant data make this book a valuable addition to the study of metaphor and discourse In uncovering the development of empathy between these two extraordinary people Cameron illuminates the moral necessity and the potential rewards in trying to imagine the world and mind of the Other Implications are drawn for how mediators in reconciliation contexts might make positive use of metaphor in supporting the dynamics of empathy     LifeQuest Mark Chironna, 2015-02-04 Move from Unconscious Living to Wide Awake Destiny Have you taken a leap of faith in life only to discover that you have crossed an invisible threshold that seems to have launched you into an unfamiliar place where nothing looks or works the way it used to Do you feel stranded on strange seas without a map or a compass Does it feel as if you are drifting through life without a rudder or as if you are rowing hard but getting nowhere fast hitting stronger more contrary winds than you anticipated Do you feel stuck between a former somewhere to which you cannot return and a new somewhere that you cannot seem to reach Welcome to the gap You are living in a messy but miraculous patch of real estate albeit in the unstable element of the baptismal waters of life's transitions that lies between your current reality and the location of your desired destiny Traversing this gap is a vital step in the journey of all human beings regardless of their race gender or creed The assumption that God is in control of absolutely everything in our life will be challenged as we enter the gap to find that this notion isn't necessarily so Rather the choices we make determine the outcomes we receive When you arrived on this planet you weren't handed a script to memorize and follow You have had to walk by faith from the moment you learned to put one foot in front of the other You were surely created with a grand design in mind one that includes your capacity to invoke evoke and provoke personal destiny Calling your destiny into being requires your intentional participation and cooperation Through LifeQuest seasoned people helper semiotician professional certified coach and master consultant Dr Mark Chironna will guide you in charting a course for your life's journey He will help you to ask the right questions encourage you to explore the mysterious gap between your current reality and your future destiny and show you that change is not your enemy Get started on your LifeQuest today

Studies on foreignness have increased substantially over the last two decades in response to what has been dubbed the migration refugee crisis Yet they have focused on specific areas such as regions periods ethnic groups and authors Predicated on the belief that this so called twenty first century problem is in fact as old as humanity itself this book analyzes cases based on both long term historical perspectives and current occurrences from around the world Bringing together an international group of scholars from Australia Asia Europe and North America it examines a variety of examples and strategies mostly from world literatures ranging from Spain's failed experience with consolidation as a nation state type entity during the Golden Age of Castile to Shakespeare's rhetorical subversion of the language of fear and hate to Mario Rigoni Stern's random status at the unpredictable Italian Austrian borders to Lawrence Durrell's ambivalent approach to noticing the physically visible other to the French government's ongoing criminalization of hospitality to Sandra Cisneros's attempt at straddling two countries and cultures while belonging to neither one to the illusive legal limbo of the DREAMers in the United States We are not born foreigners we are made The purpose of the book is to assert as denoted by the title this fundamental premise that is the making of strangers is the result of a deliberate and purposeful act that has social political and linguistic implications The ultimate expression of this phenomenon is the compulsive labeling of people along artificial categories such as race gender religion birthplace or nationality A corollary purpose of the book is to help shed light worldwide on one of the most pressing issues facing the world today the place of the other amid fear mongering and unabashedly contemptuous acts and rhetoric toward immigrants refugees and all those excluded within because of race gender national origin religion and ethnicity As illustrated by the examples examined in this book humans have certainly evolved in many areas dealing with the other might not have been one of those It is hoped that the book encourages reflection on how the arts and especially world literatures can help us navigate and think through the ever present crisis the place of the stranger among us
