Methodical Bible Study:

Methodical Bible Study Robert A. Traina, 2002 This inductive study in a simple practical textbook in hermeneutics compares related Bible texts in order to let the Bible interpret itself Methodical Bible Study Robert Angelo Traina, 1952

Inductive Bible Study David R. Bauer, Robert A. Traina, 2011-04-01 Following up on Robert Traina's classic Methodical Bible Study this book introduces the practice of inductive Bible study to a new generation of students, pastors, and church leaders. The authors, two seasoned educators with over sixty combined years of experience in the classroom, offer guidance on adopting an inductive posture and provide step-by-step instructions on how to do inductive Bible study. They engage in conversation with current hermeneutical issues, setting forth well-grounded principles and processes for biblical interpretation and appropriation. The process they present incorporates various methods of biblical study to help readers hear the message of the Bible on its own terms. A Pentecostal Hermeneutic for the Twenty First Century Kenneth Archer, 2004-12-30 The purpose of this book is to present a critically informed contemporary Pentecostal hermeneutic rooted in Pentecostal identity in its stories, beliefs, and practices. As Pentecostals began entering academic communities of higher learning, their interpretive methods became both mainstream and modernistic as they adapted the historical critical methods or the so-called scientific hermeneutic. The proposed hermeneutic contained in this book desires to move beyond the impasse created by Modernity instead pushing Pentecostals into the contemporary context by critically re-appropriating early Pentecostal ethos and interpretive practices for a contemporary Pentecostal community. The Pentecostal hermeneutic is a three-way interaction for theological meaning between the Holy Spirit, the Pentecostal community, and sacred Scripture.

sermon preparation The Meaning of "Make Disciples" in the Broader Context of the Gospel of Matthew Lindsay D. Arthur, 2022-05-09 Students of the Bible are generally comfortable with their understanding of the command make disciples Matt 28 19 Indeed most of them would argue that the Gospel writer Matthew spells out very clearly the meaning of the term in the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 by utilizing three key words viz go ing baptizing and teaching This point of view is the result of centuries of scholarly opinion that has looked primarily if not solely to these three adjacent participles of make disciples Matt 28 19 and not to the entire Gospel of Matthew for the meaning of the command This book does not suggest that going baptizing and teaching are not to be considered in determining the essence of Christian disciple making Rather it contends that the three terms should not be our only source of meaning This problem is tackled herein by demonstrating that Matthew establishes a framework within the Great Commission itself that points to a fuller meaning of make disciples in the broader context of his Gospel and that the Gospel writer expects his reader to draw on his entire Gospel to grasp the full meaning of this important command Independent Bible Study Irving Lester Jensen, 1963 Proclamation! Blake J. Neff, 2007-07-01 At long last here is a textbook for the basic public speaking course one that integrates a Christian worldview with up to date scholarship in the field of communication Proclamation covers the standard speech types informative speech persuasive speech and ceremonial speech In addition Blake J Neff recognizes that Christians need to know how to deliver an edifying speech and a personal testimony speech Neff acknowledges that one of the reasons to study public address at the university level is that God has commanded His people to always be prepared to give an account 1 Peter 3 15 Proclamation prepares Christians to speak not only as one to many but also as members of interpersonal or small groups Christian teachers of public speaking will appreciate the assistance this book offers toward integrating faith with learning Students will applaud the practical and readable approaches found in Proclamation Applying the Bible Jack Kuhatschek, 2010-08-10 Many Christians open the Bible eagerly but close it discouraged and frustrated After all is there really value in the pots and pans sections of Leviticus Why does the New Testament include an entire book on the dangers of circumcision Which commands should we obey today and which are no longer binding While dozens of books tell us how to study the Bible they give little help with the most important part of Bible study application Jack Kuhatschek provides a clear and reliable method for applying the Bible Using numerous illustrations and examples he explains how to uncover the timeless principles of Scripture even in those passages that seem meaningless today He also shows how to relate those principles to the timely needs we face each day Meditation, Confession and Healing in Writing Testimonies Samuel Dongho Lee, 2008-11 MEDITATION CONFESSION AND HEALING IN WRITING TESTIMONIES This book is about the role of Bible meditation confession and resolution through writing testimonies which is a personal reflection on the word of God This is a vital part of spiritual discipline that can lead to spiritual formation and development and yield great benefits in a Christian s spiritual growth including the healing of the whole person Dr Samuel D Lee s insightful book explains the inductive method of Bible study and the importance of meditation and confession He explains very well the value of testimony writing Meditation is prayerfully thinking about and sometimes writing about the contents of the Bible passage Confession is not only confession of sin it is also confession of faith and confession of praise and thanksgiving to God He emphasizes the importance of writing and sharing in building up one's own faith and the faith of others I believe that this book can be very helpful to the person who seeks to make his personal Bible study more meaningful Sarah Barry Co founder of University Bible Fellowship I believe that Dr Samuel D Lee has without doubt written in lucid style the essentials of Christian disciplines of meditation in writing This book is a must for all who desire to grow in their spiritual development in personal meditation Dr David P Lavigne General Superintendent The Evangelical Christian Church in Canada Unquestionably this book is a significant contribution to the Christian church in postmodern time presenting an effective and persuasive way of spiritual formation and influential discipleship shown in the case illustration of the practice Augustine Suh Ph D Professor in Systematic Theology Midwest University Samuel D Lee Ph D Bethany Divinity College Seminary is a missionary Bible teacher and Biblical counsellor in Canada and an ordained pastor Reverberating Word Michael Denham, 2018-06-12 Like sounds of beautiful music worship can renew us for God's glory and our good by the invigorating power of God's reverberating Word It is God's story that redeems all our stories We want to tell it again and again as best we can clearly conveying its message meaning richness claim and call Through its every facet and component worship that is biblically expositional can heighten how we proclaim God's story faithfully and creatively pointing to the One who alone offers us true identity security and destiny If you seek me you will find me if you search with all your heart declares the Lord With the ancient prophets and apostles we must repeat and repeat and repeat the most wonderful truth that God wants to be found In Christian worship such tremendous and tender encounter is available to us as nowhere else Circles in the Stream Paul E. Koptak, 2022-04-28 Maybe we should read Genesis 37-50 as the story of Joseph and Judah Both kept their families alive and received major blessings from their father Jacob Like his brother Joseph Judah knew how to use words to lead and persuade primarily by appealing to common experience His speeches model Kenneth Burke's rhetoric of identification inducing cooperation by showing his listeners how they are consubstantial that is where they stand together Preachers hope to do the same making gospel connections between ancient texts and life today Circles in the Stream shows that the connections are there in the Scripture text freeing preachers from the pressure to find contemporary illustrations Adapting Burke's literary rhetorical approach to reading Paul Koptak offers ever widening circles of reading to that end Indexing a passage and looking for identification there lead to the transformative purpose and life issue Intertextual study a combination of both discovers these connections in the wider two testament canon Circles in the Stream offers both a distinct perspective for reading Scripture and practical steps for in depth study Its method can make sermon preparation more efficient and effective More importantly it leads to the life issues that listeners want their preachers to address (re)Aligning with God Brian D.
