Murder In New Hampshire:

Notes on a Killing Kevin Flynn, Rebecca Lavoie, 2013-04-02 Their friendship would kill her Weaver and fiber artist Edith Pen Meyer knew her friend Sandy Merritt's relationship with a married man was wrong She had even urged Sandy to take out a restraining order against Kenneth Carpenter Which was why her call to Sandy on February 23 2005 seemed to come from out of the blue During it she told Sandy to drop the restraining order and get back together with Ken Pen was never seen again One man stood to gain from Pen's disappearance Ken Carpenter But evidence was bleak no blood no DNA no body Until detectives found notes hidden beneath a leather chair that turned out to be a playbook for murder INCLUDES PHOTOS

Our Little Secret Kevin Flynn, Rebecca Lavoie, 2010-05-04 The true story of a teenage killer and the silence of a small New England town For twenty years Daniel Paquette's murder in New Hampshire went unsolved It remained a secret between two high school friends until Eric Windhurst's arrest in 2005 What was revealed was a crime born of adolescent passion between Eric and Daniel's stepdaughter Melanie redefining the meaning of loyalty justice and revenge Digest of Cases Determined in the Supreme Court of New Hampshire from the Year 1816 to 1920 Crawford Dawes Hening, 1926 The New Hampshire Reports New Hampshire. Supreme Court, 1884 American Homicide Randolph Roth, 2010-02-15 Roth charts changes in the character and incidence of homicide in the U S from colonial times to the present He examines the four factors that explain why homicide rates have gone up and down in the U S and in other Western nations over the past four centuries and why the U S is today the most homicidal affluent nation The Dartmouth Murders Eric Francis, 2002-04-15 Provides an account of the murders of popular Dartmouth College professors Half and Susanne Zantop by two high school students in 2001 who committed the crime in an effort to get money to travel to Australia

The 'Peyton Place' Murder Renee Mallett, 2021-01-15 This true crime history examines the surprising connection between an infamous small town murder and the bestselling novel it inspired Born and raised in Manchester New Hampshire Grace Metalious shocked the nation in 1956 with Peyton Place her sexually charged debut novel about murder in a small town It spawned a series of novels two Hollywood movies and a long running television series on ABC It also made Metalious a pariah in her hometown where she became tabloid fodder until her untimely death at the age of thirty nine Unknown to most readers the fictional story was inspired by a real crime known as The Sheep Pen Murder which took place in Gilmanton New Hampshire in the late 1940s Now historian Renee Mallett skillfully weaves together the lives of Metalious and Barbara Roberts the confessed killer behind The Sheep Pen Murder In The Peyton Place Murder Mallett explores what happens when true crime and literature meet Capital Punishment Bruce E. R. Thompson, 2009-06-25 This volume provides an abundance of information on the history of capital punishment and ongoing opposition to it Author Bruce E R Thompson includes narratives on well known figures on both sides of the issue Various methods of execution are explained and their use placed in historical context Legal terminology important to the debate is defined and explained Reports of Cases in the Superior

Jerath,Rajinder Jerath,2020-08-26 Homicide represents the result of an exhaustive search of the world literature regarding homicide More than 7 000 entries have been compiled from references selected from major indexes in libraries from outstanding universities government agencies and military posts science libraries law libraries and the Library of Congress Each entry features a one or two word annotation that indicates whether it is an article or a book and all entries conform to the American Psychological Association stylebook guidelines Key word and author indexes provide quick access to works pertaining to particular subjects or by a certain author The Social History of Crime and Punishment in America

Wilbur R. Miller,2012-07-20 Several encyclopedias overview the contemporary system of criminal justice in America but full understanding of current social problems and contemporary strategies to deal with them can come only with clear appreciation of the historical underpinnings of those problems Thus this five volume work surveys the history and philosophy of crime punishment and criminal justice institutions in America from colonial times to the present It covers the whole of the criminal justice system from crimes law enforcement and policing to courts corrections and human services Among other things this encyclopedia explicates philosophical foundations underpinning our system of justice charts changing patterns in criminal activity and subsequent effects on legal responses identifies major periods in the development of our system of criminal justice and explores in the first four volumes supplemented by a fifth volume containing annotated primary documents evolving debates and conflicts on how best to address issues of crime and punishment Its signed entries in the first four volumes supplemented by a fifth volume containing annotated primary documents provide the historical context for students to better understand contemporary criminological debates and the contemporary shape of the U S system of law and justice The Death of the American Death Penalty Larry Wayne Koch,Colin D. Wark,Colin Wark,John F. Galliher,2012

The death penalty has largely disappeared as a national legislative issue and the Supreme Court has mainly bowed out leaving the states at the cutting edge of abolition politics This essential guide presents and explains the changing political and cultural challenges to capital punishment at the state level As with their previous volume America Without the Death Penalty Northeastern 2002 the authors of this completely new volume concentrate on the local and regional relationships between death penalty abolition and numerous empirical factors such as economic conditions public sentiment the roles of social political and economic elites the mass media and population diversity They highlight the recent abolition of the practice in New York New Jersey New Mexico and Illinois the near misses in New Hampshire Connecticut Maryland and Nebraska the Kansas rollercoaster rides and the surprising recent decline of the death penalty even in the deep South Abolition of the death penalty in the United States is a piecemeal process with one state after another peeling off from the pack until none is left and the tragic institution finally is no more This book tells you how and why that will likely happen

American Court System Marilyn McShane,2020-10-28 Depending on whom one talks to today's criminal courts are either the savior or the demon of our social order While everyone seems to have an answer about what needs to be done the solutions are neither simple nor within our current allocation of resources Media hype and political posturing emotionally dilute the reality of what motivates crime and what constitutes effective punishment The essays and research in this anthology give the reader a realistic view of complex problems affecting our juvenile and adult courts and consequently the rest of the criminal justice system Topics include sentencing disparity sentencing reform and wrongful convictions Some traditionally controversial issues are covered such as the insanity defense and the death penalty as well as the more recent three strikes and you're out movement and mandatory minimums This series will be of great utility to students scholars and others with interests in the literature of criminal justice and criminology Selected Articles on Capital Punishment, 1925

Sexual Homicide John E. Douglas, Ann W. Burgess, Robert K. Ressler, 2008-06-30 Who are the men committing the rising number of serial homicides in the U S and why do they kill The increase in these violent crimes over the past decade has created an urgent need for more and better information about these men their crime scene patterns violent acts and above all their motivations for committing these shocking and repetitive murders This authoritative book represents the data findings and implications of a long term F B I sponsored study of serial sex killers Specially trained F B I agents examined thirty six convicted incarcerated sexual murderers to build a valuable new bank of information which reveals the world of the serial sexual killer in both quantitative and qualitative detail Data was obtained from official psychiatric and criminal records court transcripts and prison reports as well as from extensive interviews with the offenders themselves Featured in this book is detailed information on the F B I's recently developed Violent Criminal Apprehension Program VICAP and a sample of an actual VICAP Crime Analysis Report Form

Cheap on Crime Hadar Aviram, 2015-02-06 After forty years of increasing prison construction and incarceration rates winds of change are blowing through the American correctional system The 2008 financial crisis demonstrated the unsustainability of the incarceration project thereby empowering policy makers to reform punishment through fiscal prudence and austerity In Cheap on Crime Hadar Aviram draws on years of archival and journalistic research and builds on social history and economics literature to show the powerful impact of recession era discourse on the death penalty the war on drugs incarceration practices prison health care and other aspects of the American correctional landscape
