Death and the Textile Industry in Nigeria Elisha P Renne, 2020-11-23 This book draws upon thinking about the work of the dead in the context of deindustrialization specifically the decline of the textile industry in Kaduna Nigeria and its consequences for deceased workers families The author shows how the dead work in various ways for Christians and Muslims who worked in KTL mill in Kaduna not only for their families who still hope to receive termination remittances but also as connections to extended family members in other parts of Nigeria and as claims to land and houses in Kaduna Building upon their actions as a way of thinking about the ways that the dead work for the living the author focuses on three major themes The first considers the growth of the city of Kaduna as a colonial construct which as the capital of the Protectorate of Northern Nigeria was organized by neighborhoods by public cemeteries and by industrial areas The second theme examines the establishment of textile mills in the industrial area and new ways of thinking about work and labor organization time regimens and health particularly occupational ailments documented in mill clinic records The third theme discusses the consequences of KTL mill workers deaths for the lives of their widows and children This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies development studies anthropology of work and the history of industrialization The Introduction Chapter 2 and the Conclusion of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003058137> Sustainable Fashion Carme

Moreno-Gavara, Ana Isabel Jiménez-Zarco, 2019-03-08 This book analyzes female entrepreneurship in the textile sector in Africa as a phenomenon that favors the social integration and economic development of women in certain geographical areas It identifies entrepreneurship as an avenue through which women can escape the feeling of being trapped in the home and assert their independence while providing for their families In the field of fashion female entrepreneurs in resource rich Africa have significant opportunities through knowledge of natural resources and cultural traditions as the use of natural fabrics and original designs is one of the latest trends This book provides a framework for how African women can develop sustainable fashion enterprises offering an original and lasting contribution to the field of entrepreneurship Nigeria's Cultural and Creative Industries Ikechukwu Obiaya, Kizito Ogedi Alakwe, Emmanuel Nzeaka, 2025-12-08 This book offers a compelling exploration of Nigeria's vibrant cultural and creative industries unpacking their core components challenges institutional frameworks and transformative potential for national development From the role of government and regulatory bodies to the power of local innovation the volume provides a timely and strategic assessment of how Nigeria's creative economy is shaping a new narrative for growth As Africa's most populous country Nigeria boasts a rich cultural mosaic and a growing generation of dynamic creatives making waves both locally and globally With Nollywood Afrobeats and indigenous fashion now commanding international attention creative output is fast overtaking oil as Nigeria's most influential export Through sector specific case studies the book critically examines this shift highlighting high impact sectors like film fashion music and visual arts while also shining a light on underexplored industries such as publishing advertising and hospitality It asks bold questions about whether the right structures are in place to truly harness Nigeria's soft power for economic and social impact Providing a thorough and nuanced analysis of Nigeria's creative landscape this book will be an important read for researchers students and policymakers with an interest in the future of African culture innovation identity and industry

Cloth in West African History Colleen E. Kriger, 2006 In this holistic approach to the study of textiles and their makers Colleen Kriger charts the role cotton has played in commercial community and labor settings in West Africa By paying close attention to the details of how people made exchanged and wore cotton cloth from before industrialization in Europe to the twentieth century she is able to demonstrate some of the cultural effects of Africa's long involvement in trading contacts with Muslim societies and with Europe Cloth in West African History thus offers a fresh perspective on the history of the region and on the local regional and global processes that shaped it A variety of readers will find its account and insights into the

African past and culture valuable and will appreciate the connections made between the local concerns of small scale weavers in African villages the emergence of an indigenous textile industry and its integration into international networks

African Art Eugene C. Burt,1990 The History of Chinese Presence in Nigeria (1950s-2010s) Shaonan Liu,2022-06-29 As the first book length work on the history of Chinese presence in Nigeria this book examines how Chinese migrants and the Nigerian state workers traders and consumers interacted with and influenced one another from the mid twentieth century to the early twenty first century Based on a combination of archival sources and oral history interviews this book argues that the significant Chinese presence in Nigeria Chinese owned factories commodities and entrepreneurs is not as recent a phenomenon as it might appear As early as the 1950s an influential yet understudied group of Chinese entrepreneurs moved to Nigeria set up factories and gradually came to dominate some of the country s key manufacturing industries such as textile and enamelware over subsequent decades Such dominance remained unchallenged until the coming of mainland Chinese traders with their made in China goods in the late 1990s dramatically changing the structure and influential pattern of the Chinese in Nigeria The research also emphasizes African Nigerian agency in shaping this Chinese presence both economically and culturally This is a vital read for academics researchers and students of African History African Studies Chinese Studies and those who are interested in contemporary issues relating to Africa China relations The Essential Art of African Textiles Alisa LaGamma,Christine Giuntini,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2008 Eastern Nigeria Barry Floyd,1969-06-18 A History of Textiles and Fashion in the Twentieth Century Yoruba World Mutiat Titilope Oladejo,2022-01-05 From the local to the global Yoruba people cherish textile consumption and fashion in everyday life Central to this is the role of Yoruba women in the making of a fashion culture As this book shows textile commodities are entangled in global economic histories yet the local consumption culture has created a fashion industry that portrays new ways of work and talent display beyond the twentieth century This text is useful for researchers who wish to gain deeper insights into a critical but often neglected aspect of being Yoruba Sub-Saharan African Textile and Apparel Inputs: Potential for Competitive Production, Inv. 332-502 , Industrialization in an Open Economy: Nigeria 1945-1966 Peter Kilby,1967 Igbo Women and Economic Transformation in Southeastern Nigeria, 1900-1960 Gloria Chuku,2005 Extrait de amazon com Among Africanists and feminists the Igbo speaking women of southeastern Nigeria are well known for their history of anti colonial activism which was most demonstrated in the 1929 War against British Colonialism Perplexed by the magnitude of the Women s War the colonial government commissioned anthropologists ethnographers to study the Igbo political system and the place of women in Igbo society The primary motive was to have a better understanding of the Igbo in order to avoid a repeat of the Women s War This study will analyze the complexity and flexibility of gender relations in Igbo society with emphasis on such major cultural zones as the Anioma the Ngwa the Onitsha the Nsukka and the Aro Development In Modern Africa Martin S.
