Night Train to Lisbon Pascal Mercier, 2008-10-07 The bestselling novel of love and sacrifice under fascist rule and a treat for the mind One of the best books I have read in a long time Isabel Allende Raimund Gregorius a professor of dead languages at a Swiss secondary school lives a life governed by routine Then an enigmatic Portuguese woman stirs his interest in an obscure and mind expanding book of philosophy that opens the possibility of changing Raimund's existence That same night he takes the train to Lisbon to research the book's phantom author Amadeu de Prado a renowned physician whose principles led him to confront Salazar's dictatorship Raimund now obsessed with unlocking the mystery behind the man is determined to meet all those on whom Prado left an indelible mark Among them his eighty year old sister who maintains her brother's house as if it were a museum an elderly cleric and torture survivor confined to a nursing home and Prado's childhood friend and eventual partner in the Resistance The closer Raimund comes to the truth of Prado's life and eventual fate an extraordinary tale takes shape amid the labyrinthine memories of Prado's intimate circle of family and friends working in utmost secrecy to fight dictatorship and the betrayals that threaten to expose them A meditative deliberate exploration of loneliness language and the human condition The San Diego Union Tribune Night Train to Lisbon call s to mind the magical realism of Jorge Amado or Gabriel Garcia Marquez allusive and thought provoking intellectually curious and yet heartbreakingly jaded and inexorably propelled by the haunting mystery at its heart The Providence Journal Night Train to Lisbon was adapted into Bille August s award winning 2013 film starring Jeremy Irons Lena Olin Christopher Lee and Charlotte Rampling Night Train: A Novel Donald O'Donovan,2010-01-25 Fast furious unforgettable and set against the backdrop of a crumbling civilization NIGHT TRAIN follows arch outsider Jerzy Mulvaney in an audacious account of what it means to be homeless on the streets of Los Angeles Night Train Caroline Stutson,2002-04-15 A majestic streamlined locomotive sweeps into the pages of this striking picture book and a little boy climbs aboard for a nighttime journey Through the countryside and on to the city passing farms and houses and trucks on the highway the journey is seen through the wide open eyes of a child taking his first train trip Investigating Identities Marieke Krajenbrink,Kate M. Quinn,2009 Investigating Identities Questions of Identity in Contemporary International Crime Fiction is one of the relatively few books to date which adopts a comparative approach to the study of the genre This collection of twenty essays by international scholars examining crime fiction production from over a dozen countries confirms that a comparative approach can both shed light on processes of adaptation and appropriation of the genre within specific national regional or local contexts and also uncover similarities between the works of authors from very different areas Contributors explore discourse concerning national and historical memory language race ethnicity culture and gender and examine how identity is affirmed and challenged in the crime genre today They reveal a growing tendency towards hybridization and postmodern experimentation and increasing engagement with philosophical enquiry into the epistemological dimensions of investigation Throughout the notion of stable identities is subject to scrutiny While each essay in itself is a valuable addition to existing criticism on the genre all the chapters mutually inform and complement each other in fascinating and often unexpected ways This volume makes an important contribution to the growing field of crime fiction studies and to ongoing debates on questions of identity It will therefore be of special interest to students and scholars of the crime genre identity studies and comparative literature It will also appeal to all who enjoy reading contemporary crime fiction Official Programme ,1929 North Fork Coal Program ,2000 Interstate Commerce Commission Reports United States.
