Making Mental Health Elizabeth Roberts-Pedersen, 2024-08-07 Making Mental Health A Critical History historicises mental health by examining the concept from the madness of the late nineteenth century to the changing ideas about its contemporary concerns and status It argues that a critical approach to the history of psychiatry and mental health shows them to constitute a dual clinical political project that gathered pace over the course of the twentieth century and continues to resonate in the present Drawing on scholarship across several areas of historical inquiry as well as historical and contemporary clinical literature the book uses a thematic approach to highlight decisive moments that demonstrate the stakes of this engagement in Anglo American contexts By tracing the unfinished history of institutions the search for cures for psychiatric distress the growing interest of the nation state in mental health the history of attempts to globalise psychiatry the controversies over the politics of diagnostic categories that erupted in the 1960s and 1970s and the history of theorising about the relationship between the psyche and the market the book offers a comprehensive account of the evolution of mental health into a commonplace concern Addressing key questions in the fields of history medical humanities and the social sciences as well as in the psychiatry disciplines themselves the book is an essential contribution to an ongoing conversation about mental distress and its meanings The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

A Refuge of Cure or Care Madeline Kearin Ryan, 2021-05-18 In A Refuge of Cure or Care The Sensory Dimensions of Confinement at the Worcester State Hospital for the Insane Madeline Kearin Ryan analyzes the therapy model of the nineteenth century asylum Because the five senses were believed to provide a direct conduit into a person s mental condition the curative force of the hospital was thought to reside in its command over sensory experience Ryan examines how the institution was designed to target each of the five senses as a mode of therapy and conversely how that well intentioned design materialized in the haphazard realm of institutional practice In doing so Ryan seeks to reconcile the disjuncture between the benevolent promise of the asylum model and its ultimate failure in a way that captures the complex power dynamics and heterogeneity of actors within the institution
