The Shah's Imperial Celebrations of 1971 Robert Steele,2020-10-15 In October 1971 Mohammad Reza Pahlavi Shah of Iran held a celebration to commemorate the 2500th anniversary of the founding of the Persian Empire by Cyrus the Great Dozens of heads of state descended on Persepolis for these Celebrations where they were regaled to sumptuous banquets and entertainment Critical journalists in Western Europe and North America lambasted the Shah for holding such a decadent event while many of his people lived in poverty Due to the overwhelmingly negative press at the time the event is still today widely remembered as a catastrophic failure It is even said by many to have sparked the unrest that eventually led to the revolution and the Shah's downfall in 1979 In this first comprehensive academic study of the 2500th Anniversary Celebrations Robert Steele looks beyond the pomp and splendour to examine the events origins the goals the organisers set out to achieve with them and the extent to which these goals were accomplished The book seeks to place the Celebrations in the context of the Shah's rise rather than his fall uncovering the unparalleled international cultural and scholarly operation that was spurred by the Iranian regime for the occasion exploring the effects the event had on Iran's tourism industry and questioning narratives of the event's cost

The Handbook of Archival Practice Patricia C. Franks,2021-09-12 To meet the demands of archivists increasingly tasked with the responsibility for hybrid collections this indispensable guide covers contemporary archival practice for managing analog and digital materials in a single publication Terms describing activities central to the archival process such as appraisal acquisition arrangement description storage access and preservation are included In addition responsibilities traditionally considered outside the purview of the archivist but currently impacting professional activities such as cybersecurity digital forensics digital curation distributed systems e g cloud computing and distributed trust systems e g blockchain are also covered The Handbook is divided into ten sections current environment records creation and recordkeeping systems appraisal and acquisition arrangement and description storage and preservation digital preservation user services community outreach and advocacy risk management security and privacy and management and leadership Some terms touch on more than one category which made sorting a challenge Readers are encouraged to consult both the table of contents and the index as a topic may be addressed in more than one entry A total of 111 entries by 105 authors are defined and described in The Handbook The majority 79 of the contributors were from the US 12 from Canada 7 from the United Kingdom 3 from Australia 1 each from Germany Jamaica New Zealand and the Russian Federation Because archival practice differs among practitioners in different countries this work represents an amalgamation The Handbook was written primarily for archival practitioners who wish to access desired information at the point of need However can also serve as a valuable resource for students pursuing careers in the archival profession and information professionals engaged in related fields

A History of Advertising. Volume 4 Part 1. Graham Thomas,2024-06-24 Marketing Week called Allen Brady Marsh one of the UK s greatest and most famous advertising agencies This was no exaggeration It was an agency that ploughed its own furrow and produced advertising that still remains remembered and famous today It was also an agency that others in the industry feared or even disliked Not just muttering their distaste behind closed doors but publicly At the root of this was the co founders flamboyance and that the agency was a believer in the power of jingles even when they became deeply unfashionable None the less there is much to learn from the ABM story And much to be amused by to the extent that there are two volumes devoted to it

Celebrations William M. Johnston, 2017-07-05 In the twentieth century celebrations of historical anniversaries abounded There was the bicentennial of the French Revolution the 150th anniversary of photography Bach's 300th anniversary and the 200th anniversary of the American Constitution to name just a few Every year hundreds of anniversaries still attract media attention and government investment in ever greater degrees Deploying an astonishing array of insights Celebrations explores the causes and consequences of this major phenomenon of our time As Johnston shows anniversaries fulfill a number of needs They provide the kind of experience of regularity across a lifetime that the weekly cycle supplies in daily life The use of anniversaries for political ends emerged during the French Revolution and expanded to promote nationalism during the nineteenth century although there are differences in how they are used Europeans tend to celebrate cultural heroes while Americans tend to celebrate events Entire nations exploit anniversaries of founding events in order to promote national identity Commercially there are whole industries built around commemoration and they provide intellectuals an opportunity to take center stage Using methods of cultural history sociology and religious studies Johnston shows how the cult of anniversaries reflects postmodern concerns It fills a void left by the disappearance of ideologies and avant gardes In an era when there is little consensus about styles or methods anniversaries allow intellectuals businesses and governments to acknowledge and celebrate every nuance of opinion By suggesting ways to use anniversaries more creatively this book offers a broad range of insights

Tropical Multiculturalism Robert Stam, 1997 Simultaneously a history of Brazilian cinema from the standpoint of race a history of Brazil itself through its cinematic representations a comparative study of racial formation in Brazil and the US and a theorized analysis of racialized representation Celebrating Shakespeare Clara Calvo, Coppélia Kahn, 2015-11-19 This book explores how Shakespeare is still alive as a global cultural icon on the 400th anniversary of his death America's Most Gothic Leanna Renee Hieber, Andrea Janes, 2025-09-30 From the Bram Stoker nominated author team who penned A Haunted History of Invisible Women the first book of its kind to investigate gothic tropes that define American lore Here is the hidden dark history of what frightens us and why The Gothic Brooding atmospheric chilling and not always the outpouring of a feverish imagination Reality can be even stranger as borne out in this lush and ghostly look at real people who lived and died amidst the trappings of the Gothic Fog clinging to an isolated mansion A dangerous patriarch or an overbearing matron Locked doors and forbidden rooms Whispers of murder and madness And a woman shadowed by omnipresent threats You've guessed it You've stumbled into a Gothic tale and it will haunt you like a ghost We often think of the enduring tropes of the Gothic in terms of fiction and film breath catching escapes that tap into our fears anxieties forbidden desires and unsettling dreams But what if some of these chilly vibes are rooted in the experiences of real and tragic people who danced a macabre waltz with love and death That's why we're here Take the case of teenage Mercy Brown victim or was it predator of Rhode Island's vampire hysteria of the 1890s Marguerite de la Roque a French noblewoman condemned for sexual crimes to Canada's long lost Isle of Demons What happened to her and the barren landscape itself is the stuff of legend And Mad Lucy Ludwell the decidedly peculiar eighteenth century high society hauteur driven mad in the Virginia estate she prowls to this day President Helen Peabody's spirit still stringently watches over her Women's College now part of Ohio's Miami University Ghosts of workers lost in horrific conditions while building the Hoosac Tunnel warn of imminent danger Settle in There are more Welcome to the phantom ships haunted academic halls menacing landscapes and family curses of America's Most Gothic a tour of true spectral sightings and disordered minds But beware it's sure to get under your skin The haunted and haunting figures herein want it that way Historical Dictionary of Contemporary American Theater: 1930-2010 James Fisher, 2011-06-01 From legends like Eugene O'Neill Tennessee Williams and Arthur Miller to successful present day playwrights like Neil LaBute Tony Kushner and David Mamet some of the most important names in the history of theater are from the past 80 years Contemporary American theater has produced some of the most memorable beloved and important plays in history including Death of a Salesman A Streetcar Named Desire Barefoot in the Park Our Town The Crucible A Raisin in the Sun and The Odd Couple Historical Dictionary of Contemporary American Theater presents the plays and personages movements and institutions and cultural developments of the American stage from 1930 to 2010 a period of vast and almost continuous change It covers the ever changing history of the American theater with emphasis on major movements persons plays and events This is done through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 1 500 cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the history of American theater Proust at the Movies Martine Beugnet, Marion Schmid, 2017-07-28 Film established itself as an artistic form of expression at the same time that Proust started work on his masterpiece A la recherche du temps perdu If Proust apparently took little interest in what he described as a poor avatar of reductive mimetic representation the resonances between his own radical reworking of writing styles and the novelistic forms and cinema as the art of time are undeniable Proust at the Movies is the first study in English to consider these rich interconnections Its introductory chapter charts the missed encounter between Proust and the cinema and addresses the problems inherent in adapting his novel to the screen The following chapters examine the various cinematic responses to A la recherche du temps perdu attempted to date Luchino Visconti and Joseph Losey's failed attempts at adapting the whole of the novel in the 1970s Volker Schlöndorff's Un Amour de Swann 1984 Raoul Ruiz's Le Temps retrouvé 1999 Chantal Akerman's La Prisonnière in La Captive 2000 and Fabio Carpi's Quartetto Basileus 1982 and Le Intermittenze del cuore 2003 The last chapter tracks the echoes of Proust's writing in the work of various directors from Abel Grace to Jean Luc Godard The approach is multidisciplinary combining literary criticism with film theory and elements of philosophy of art Special attention is given to the modernist legacy in literature and film with its distinctive aesthetic and narrative features An outline of the history and recent evolution of contemporary art cinema thus emerges a cinema where the themes at the heart of Proust's work memory time perception are ceaselessly explored Reimagining American Theatre Robert Brustein, 2025-10-16 In his collection of essays and reviews Robert Brustein makes the argument that the American Theatre is enjoying a renaissance that has not been unacknowledged Celebrating the Universe! James Mullaney, 2013-06-21 The very first work of its kind Celebrating the Universe The Science comets asteroids meteors and artificial satellites variable and exploding stars colorful double and multiple stars and glittering star clusters and eerie glowing nebulae our majestic Milky Way and even the remote galaxies Astronomer and author James Mullaney explores profound concepts such as our heritage as children of the stars we are made of stardust and our cosmic destiny as citizens of the universe all from an aesthetic viewpoint Public History in Global Perspective Georgina Laragy, Richard Legay, Ciaran O'Neill, Hannah K. Smyth, 2025-07-21 Where should public history sit within the matrix of global international trans national and more local histories Since its emergence in the 1970s Public History has typically been read as community oriented and more local in its applications The academic field in particular has developed along national lines and indeed we see in the many monographs edited books and journals that have emerged a distinct tendency to consider public history as understandable mostly in its relation to the nation state and its attendant mythologies The meta narratives that public history pushes against are the building blocks of national histories political military and heroic histories Conceiving of a global public history seems to have more radical potential than an international public history which arguably simply collects these national histories What would a global public history look like and how can it disrupt the field if interpreted radically This book will centre the work of scholars and professionals in the field of Public History It will offer novel reflections on postgraduate Public History learning work experience and application from recent graduates and partnered institutions A mix of theory and practice traditional and creative methodologies it demonstrates the value of integrating work experience practitioner workshops and close collaboration in Public History training
