Pakistan, the Roots of Dictatorship Hassan Nawaz Gardezi, 1983 From the John Holmes Library collection New

Perspectives on Pakistan's Political Economy Matthew McCartney, S. Akbar Zaidi, 2019-09-19 This volume makes a major intervention in the debates around the nature of the political economy of Pakistan focusing on its contemporary social dynamics This is the first comprehensive academic analysis of Pakistan's political economy after thirty five years and addresses issues of state class and society examining gender the middle classes the media the bazaar economy urban spaces and the new elite The book goes beyond the contemporary obsession with terrorism and extremism political Islam and simple civilian military relations and looks at modern day Pakistan through the lens of varied academic disciplines It not only brings together new work by some emerging scholars but also formulates a new political economy for the country reflecting the contemporary reality and diversification in the social sciences in Pakistan The chapters dynamically and dialectically capture emergent processes and trends in framing Pakistan's political economy and invite scholars to engage with and move beyond these concerns and issues Pakistan - The Political Economy of Growth, Stagnation and the State, 1951-2009 Matthew McCartney, 2011-06-07 This book provides a comprehensive reassessment of the development of the economy of Pakistan since independence to the present It employs a rigorous statistical methodology which has applicability to other developing economies to define and measure episodes of growth and stagnation and to examine how the state has contributed to each Contesting the orthodox view that liberalisation has been an important driver of growth in Pakistan the book places the state at the centre of economic development rather than the market It examines the state in relation to its economic roles in mobilising resources and promoting a productive allocation of those resources and its political roles in managing the conflict inherent in economic development The big conclusions for economic growth in Pakistan are that liberalisation the market and the external world economy in fact have less influence than that of the state and conflict Overall the book offers analyses of the different successive approaches to promoting economic growth and development in Pakistan relates these to medium term economic outcomes periods of growth and stagnation and thereby explains how the mechanisms by which the state can better promote growth and development Making Sense of Pakistan Farzana Shaikh, 2018-10-15 Pakistan's transformation from supposed model of Muslim enlightenment to a state now threatened by an Islamist takeover has been remarkable Many account for the change by pointing to Pakistan's controversial partnership with the United States since 9 11 others see it as a consequence of Pakistan's long history of authoritarian rule which has marginalized liberal opinion and allowed the rise of a religious right Farzana Shaikh argues the country's decline is rooted primarily in uncertainty about the meaning of Pakistan and the significance of being Pakistani This has pre-empted a consensus on the role of Islam in the public sphere and encouraged the spread of political Islam It has also widened the gap between personal piety and public morality corrupting the country's economic foundations and tearing apart its social fabric More ominously still it has given rise to a new and dangerous symbiosis between the country's powerful armed forces and Muslim extremists Shaikh demonstrates how the ideology that constrained Indo Muslim politics in the years leading to Partition in 1947 has left its mark skillfully deploying insights from history to better understand Pakistan's troubled present Education and Gendered Citizenship in Pakistan M. Naseem, 2010-12-14 This book challenges the uncritical use of the long held dictum of the development discourse that education empowers women Situated in the post structuralist feminist position it argues that in its current state the educational discourse in Pakistan actually disempowers women Founding Moments in Constitutionalism Richard Albert, Menaka Guruswamy, Nishchal Basnyat, 2019-10-17 Founding moments are landmark events that break ties with the ancien r gime and lay the foundation for the establishment of a new constitutional order They are often radically disruptive episodes in the life of a state They reshape national law reset political relationships establish future power structures and influence happenings in neighbouring countries This edited collection brings together leading and emerging scholars to theorise the phenomenon of a founding moment What is a founding moment When does the founding process begin and when does it end Is a founding moment possible without yielding a new constitution Can a founding moment lead to a partial or incomplete transformation And should the state be guided by the intentions of those who orchestrated these momentous breaks from the past Drawing from constitutions around the world the authors ask these and other fundamental questions about making and remaking constitutions Corporate Social Responsibility and Development in Pakistan Nadeem Malik, 2014-08-13 Corporate Social Responsibility CSR has not only become an important concept for corporate organizations but also civil society community state and the multilateral and bilateral development agencies It has acquired great significance in the aftermath of the global financial crisis of 2008 not only in the advanced economies but also in emerging and developing countries In contemporary Pakistan problems of poverty unemployment illiteracy and human rights violations are frequent These problems cannot be dealt with by the state and civil society alone and call for corporate involvement Backed by rich empirical data based on extensive fieldwork and complemented with the official data sources this book offers a detailed analysis of the socially responsible corporate policies and practices of companies operating in the emerging economy of Pakistan Employing qualitative and quantitative research methods it examines the sensitivity of companies in Pakistan to CSR measured in terms of their policies and perceptions about CRS their CSR development activities perceptions about development Non Governmental Organisations and channels and forms of support for development projects both monetary and non monetary Filling a significant gap in our understanding of an important part of contemporary Pakistan's development and the outlook of companies towards CSR the book will be of interest to policymakers and scholars working in the fields of Development Studies Business Studies and Asian Studies Politics of Identity Adeel Khan, 2005-01-06 Excellent and compelling Partha Chatterjee University of Columbia A provocative passionate and stimulating new interpretation of ethnic nationalism Dipesh Chakrabarty University of Chicago A significant study that informs us of the politics and group interests in one of the most volatile regions of the world Stephen Castles Oxford University Very interesting intellectual and political ideas refreshing Gyan Pandey Johns Hopkins University An informed and lucid work that demystifies the politics of nationalism Howard Brasted University of New England A major challenge Pakistan has been confronted with since it came into existence is the self assertion of various ethnic groups which have actively contested the legitimacy of the state structure However despite the seriousness of this ethnic challenge there exists no detailed study of these movements Politics of Identity fills this vacuum Ethnic nationalism the author argues is a political issue and is essentially a struggle for power between dominant and non dominant groups Highlighting the role the state plays in the lives of individuals the book studies both the pre colonial and colonial state system in India and the changes it effected until India s independence and the creation of Pakistan assesses the state in Pakistan and explains its role in giving rise to ethnic discontent studies four ethnic movements Pukhtun Baloch Sindhi and Mohajir demonstrating how their proximity to or distance from state power have influenced their politics

theoretical approach Saeed Shafqat presents a comprehensive exploration of civil military relations in Pakistan He begins by describing the history of military hegemony in this volatile South Asian country and then examines the breakdown of military control assessing the rise of the Pakistan People s Party and th The Rise of the Semi-Core Samee Lashari,2024-05-29 Since its establishment in Europe capitalism has witnessed a shift in global politico economic power dynamics Some nations ascended to dominate the world economy while others fell from prominence to poverty This transformation was particularly evident in the case of China and India which were once central to the pre modern global economy with their respective empires but transitioned into peripheries of the capitalist world trade structure These regions experienced occupation colonization de industrialization and resource exploitation for the industrialization and modernization of core countries primarily Western Europe and the United States The Rise of the Semi Core China India and Pakistan in the World System It delves into modern capitalist history unraveling the increasing complexities that give rise to the emergence of a semi core It argues that nations must possess both economic and strategic national powers to maintain their hierarchical position within the capitalist world system Western powers of the eighteenth century equipped with superior military capabilities expanded their dominion globally including in China and India converting these regions into peripheries that served the core s interests in terms of raw material provision product consumption and facilitating capital flow Once decolonized China and India initially adopted a statist model of development nevertheless these nations could grow only when they aligned with core interests Contemporary Pakistan Veena Kukreja,2003-02-24 Veena Kukreja provides a rare reasoned analysis of the political processes at work in contemporary Pakistan and an objective understanding of the problems and crises confronting the country The author points out that for 25 out of the 53 years of its existence the military has been the arbiter of Pakistan s destiny The military she maintains regards its dominance of Pakistani politics not only as a right but as a duty As a result state security has taken precedence over the need to create participatory political processes and institutions The book points out that the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2001 and the resulting US offensive in Afghanistan has put the military regime in Islamabad in a tight spot Caught between unyielding ulemas a faltering economy and American pressure to demolish militant networks in Pakistan these recent developments combined with the dangerous cleavage within Pakistani society could well push that country into another bout of instability and even anarchy The situation is made more complex by the nexus between terrorism and drugs Inclusive Developments through Socio-economic Indicators Ramesh Chandra Das,2023-07-19 Proposing issues that hinder equal development Inclusive Developments through Socio economic Indicators New Theoretical and Empirical Insights focuses upon the roles of different socio economic indicators in explaining the convergence or inclusiveness of income across groups of varying wealth as well as within larger economies Kashmir and Sindh Suranjan Das,2001 Professor Das provides a fascinating study on the issue of ethnic politics in multi ethnic Third World countries and the non convergence of state and nation in this discussion of the Kashmir and Sindh questions The artificial de colonization process in the South Asian sub continent resulted in the construction of national frontiers for its two successor states that did not rest on a synchronization of ethnic and state boundaries Consequently cross border loyalties amongst significant sections of the population survived the boundaries imposed between the two successor states When in the context of centralizing nation building strategies ethnic political assertions occur in outlying or frontier areas of these nation states the distinction between domestic and external affairs or between home and foreign politics tends to lose its significance in the traditional sense Political actors from across the borders of neighbouring state can then deny the marks of their different objective nationalities and treat themselves as members of a single loyalty group Thus ethnic politics transcends its domestic contours and helps foment regional tensions In such circumstances ethnic assertions tend to constitute vital local or domestic ingredients that define the national security priorities within a particular region The current insurrection in Kashmir and turmoil in Sindh superbly demonstrate this pattern
