Abigail George, 2013-09-02 This is a first person narrative style text depicting the real life experiences of a woman s life and times in the cosmopolitan city of Johannesburg Having lived a relatively sheltered life with her upbringing in the city of Port Elizabeth this writer ardently tackles a new world Her words honest emotive eloquent and yet precise and relative to the very essence of growing up in an era of transformative change and the impact our segregated history has on the outlook and promise of a future She strums direct on the strings which sound the melody of our souls and relative to the very essence of life to love to lose to yearn for so much more but most importantly to hope against hope itself that in spite of ourselves and our fondest of intentions we learn the life lessons that have allowed our very existence to be ok Abigail has selected moments in her life and interlaced this with the right amount of fiction to stir a readers thoughts and dreams honest to the extent where we might be honest with ourselves knowing that the very experiences which we shelter within our minds have not been replicated but more importantly felt by another human being another soul so close to home The stories are told straight from the core of her being her soul This mix of the ripeness of her age and the folly of her youth leave neither little unsaid nor more to be stirred in the readers soul Ultimatum
