Russian for Librarians Gregory P. Walker, Russian for Librarians Gregory Piers Mountford Walker, 1973 V. Sobolshchikov, Russian Librarian and his English Critic V. Sobolschtschikow, 1864 Reading the Russian Language Rosalind Kent, 1974 Russian for Librarians Gregory Piers Mountford Walker, 1983 Gives essentials of the Russian language for cataloguing and other library procedures Sketches publishing practice in the USSR Includes a directory of Western European suppliers of Russian language books Russian for Librarians Anna Kalniņš., 1972 Harrod's Librarians' Glossary and Reference Book Ray Prytherch, 2016-04-15 Listing over 10 000 entries Harrod's Librarians Glossary and Reference Book spans everything from traditional printing terms to search engines and from book formats to URLs Revisions for this tenth edition have centred in particular on the Information Society and its ramifications on the general shift towards electronic resources and on e commerce e learning and e government whilst at the same time maintaining key areas predating the IT revolution Web terminology URLs and IT terms have been checked and updated and coverage of terms relating to digitization and digital resources portals multimedia and electronic products has been revised or expanded as necessary Harrod's Glossary now includes Knowledge Management terms and this edition has also focused on developments in the field of intellectual property copyright patents privacy and piracy It gives wide international coverage of names addresses and URLs of major libraries and other important organizations in the information sector of professional associations fellowships networks government bodies projects and programmes consortia and institutions influential reports and other key publications Entries are included on classification and file coding on records management and archiving and on both the latest and the most enduring aspects of library and information skills Even with the Web at your fingertips Harrod's Librarians Glossary and Reference Book remains a quicker reference for explaining specialist terms jargon and acronyms and for finding the URLs you need whether you are working in a print based or digital library in archiving records management conservation bookselling or publishing The Death of Vazir-Mukhtar (Russian Library) Yury Tynyanov , 2021 The Death of Vazir Mukhtar a novel by Yury Tynyanov one of the leading figures of the Russian formalist school describes the final year in the life of Alexander Griboedov the author of the comedy Woe from Wit As ambassador to Persia Griboedov was murdered in 1829 by a Tehrani mob during the sacking of the Russian embassy One of the central texts of Russian formalist literary production the novel is a brilliant meditation on the nature of historical and poetic consciousness and of artistic creation It is a complex and fascinating work that explores the relationships among individual memory historical fact and the literary imagination The result is a hybrid text containing elements of various genres historical biographical existential and adventure novels and a deeply personal almost confessional testament to the writer's relationship to his generation and the state Completed in 1927 almost a century after the events it depicts The Death of Vazir Mukhtar marks the watershed between revolution and reaction At a time when the Soviet regime was becoming increasingly restrictive of freedom of expression and conscience Tynyanov grappled with the themes of disillusionment betrayal and unrealized potential Unabashedly intellectual yet filled with intrigue and suspense The Death of Vazir Mukhtar is a great historical novel of Russian modernism A History of Modern Librarianship Pamela Spence Richards, Wayne A.

Wiegand, Marija Dalbello, 2015-05-26 A broad comparative history of librarianship this intriguing work goes beyond the standard focus on institutions and collections to help you explore the part modern librarianship played and continues to play in forming Western cultures Previous histories of libraries in the Western world the last of which was published nearly 20 years ago concentrate on libraries and librarians This book takes a different approach It focuses on the practice of librarianship showing you how that practice has contributed to constructing the heritage of cultures To do so this groundbreaking collection of essays presents the history of modern librarianship in the context of recent developments of the library institution professionalization of librarianship and innovation through information technology Organized by region the book addresses the widely recognized international impact of Anglo American librarianship and its continuing influence over the past century combining critical analysis with chronological histories of modern librarianship in Europe North America Australia New Zealand and Africa An introductory chapter explains the origins of the project and a concluding chapter examines the effects of digitization on modern librarianship in the 21st century International Dictionary of Library Histories David H. Stam, 2001-11 Following the format of Fitzroy Dearborn's highly successful International Dictionary of Historic Places and International Dictionary of University Histories the International Dictionary of Library Histories provides basic information for each institution location and holdings followed by an extensive 1 000 5 000 word essay on its history as well as a Further Reading list In addition the dictionary includes introductory articles on the history of various types of libraries and a library history in various regions of the world The dictionary profiles more than 200 institutions from around the world including the world's most important research libraries and other libraries with globally or regionally notable collections innovative traditions and significant and interesting histories The essays take advantage of the growing scholarship of library history to provide insightful overviews of each institution including not only the traditional values of these libraries but their innovations as well such as developments in automated systems and electronic delivery The profiles will emphasize the unique materials of research in these institutions archives manuscripts personal and institutional papers The introductory articles on types of libraries include topics ranging from theological libraries to prison libraries from the ancient to the digital An international team of more than 200 leading scholars in the field have contributed essays to the project
