Trailblazing women working in digital arts media and education established the Midwest as an international center for the artistic and digital revolution in the 1980s and beyond Foundational events at the University of Illinois and the School of the Art Institute of Chicago created an authentic community driven atmosphere of creative expression innovation and interdisciplinary collaboration that crossed gender lines and introduced artistically informed approaches to advanced research Interweaving historical research with interviews and full color illustrations New Media Futures captures the spirit and contributions of twenty two women working within emergent media as diverse as digital games virtual reality medicine supercomputing visualization and browser based art The editors and contributors give voice as creators integral to the development of these new media and place their works at the forefront of social change and artistic inquiry What emerges is the dramatic story of how these Midwestern explorations in the digital arts produced a web of fascinating relationships These fruitful collaborations helped usher in the digital age that propelled social media Contributors Carolina Cruz Niera Colleen
