Saemtliche Gedichte Und Hyperion:

Sämtliche Werke: Gedichte. Hyperion. Briefe. 1794-1798 Friedrich Hölderlin, 1923 Sämtliche Gedichte und Hyperion Friedrich Hölderlin, 2001 Sämtliche Werke; historisch-kritische: bd. Gedichte. Hyperion. Briefe, 1794-1798 Friedrich Hölderlin, 1923 Memory Dmitriï Vladimirovich Nikulin, 2015 In recent decades memory has become one of the major concepts and a dominant topic in philosophy sociology politics history science cultural studies literary theory and the discussions of trauma and the Holocaust In contemporary debates the concept of memory is often used rather broadly and thus not always unambiguously For this reason the clarification of the range of the historical meaning of the concept of memory is a very important and urgent task This volume shows how the concept of memory has been used and appropriated in different historical circumstances and how it has changed throughout the history of philosophy In ancient philosophy memory was considered a repository of sensible and mental impressions and was complemented by recollection the process of recovering the content of past thoughts and perceptions Such an understanding of memory led to the development both of mnemotechnics and the attempts to locate memory within the structure of cognitive faculties In contemporary philosophical and historical debates memory frequently substitutes for reason by becoming a predominant capacity to which one refers when one wants to explain not only the personal identity but also a historical political or social phenomenon In contemporary interpretation it is memory and not reason that acts in and through human actions and history which is a critical reaction to the overly rationalized and simplified concept of reason in the Enlightenment Moreover in modernity memory has taken on one of the most distinctive features of reason it is thought of as capable not only of recollecting past events and meanings but also itself In this respect the volume can be also taken as a reflective philosophical attempt by memory to recall itself its functioning and transformations throughout its own history

The Poetization of Metaphors in the Work of Novalis Veronica Freeman, 2006 The poet Friedrich von Hardenberg Novalis 1772 1801 exemplifies romantic ideals in his nostalgic yearning for spiritual fulfillment and in doing so invokes the language of authentic mystics While romantics and mystics believe in the common goal of original union the path toward wholeness has led them down separate roads which it may be argued have converged only linguistically This book therefore emphasizes the importance of examining metaphors in their respective traditions Henry Miller James M. Decker, Indrek Mõnniste, 2016-10-20 Scholarly responses to Henry Miller's works have never been numerous and for many years Miller was not a fashionable writer for literary studies In fact there exist only three collections of essays concerning Henry Miller's oeuvre Since these books appeared a new generation of international Miller scholars has emerged one that is re-energizing critical readings of this important American Modernist Henry Miller New Perspectives presents new essays on carefully chosen themes within Miller and his intellectual heritage to form the most authoritative collection ever published on this author Die Ästhetik der augusteischen Dichtung: Eine Ästhetik des Verzichts Hans-Christian Günther, 2009-11-23

Starting from some central texts of Horace's late poetry this book tries to offer a general picture of Horace's poetry his political poetry and his relationship with his patrons in particular It offers a large variety of comparative material from modern literature and is aimed not only at classicists but at students of literature and history in general All quotations from Greek and Latin texts are translated

Relational Hermeneutics Paul Fairfield, Saulius Geniusas, 2018-10-04 Investigating connections between philosophical hermeneutics and neighbouring traditions of thought this volume considers the question of how post Heideggerian hermeneutics as represented by Gadamer Ricoeur and recent scholars following in their wake relate to these traditions both in general terms and bearing upon specific questions The traditions covered in this volume existentialism pragmatism poststructuralism Eastern philosophy and hermeneutics itself are all characterized by significant internal diversity adding to the difficulty in reaching an interpretation that is at once comparative and critical None of these traditions represent a unified system of belief all are umbrella terms which are at once useful and imprecise and the differences internal to each must not to be understated An innovative work of comparative philosophy this volume avoids oversimplification and offers specific analyses that treat hermeneutics in relation to particular themes and key figures in each of these traditions of thought Philosophical hermeneutics is explicitly dialogical and it is in this spirit that the authors of this book approach their subjects revealing the important affinities and opportunities for mutually enriching conversations which have until now been overlooked

Empire of Song Dafni Tragaki, 2013-07-11 The Eurovision Song Contest ESC is more than a musical event that ostensibly unites European people through music It is a spectacle a performative event that allegorically represents the idea of Europe Since its beginning in the Cold War era the contest has functioned as a symbolic realm for the performance of European selves and the negotiation of European identities Through the ESC Europe is experienced felt and imagined in singing and dancing as the interplay of tropes of being local and or European is enacted In Empire of Song Europe and Nation in the Eurovision Song Contest contributors interpret the ESC as a musical mediascape and mega event that has variously performed and performs the changing visions of the European project Through the study of the cultural politics of the ESC contributors discuss the ways in which music operates as a dynamic nexus for making national identities and European sensibilities generating processes of assimilation or integration and defining the celebrated notion of the European citizen in a global context Scholars in the volume also explore the ways otherness and difference are produced spectacularized challenged or even neglected in the televised musical realities of the ESC For the contributing authors song serves as a site for constituting Europe and the nation on and offstage History and politics as well as the constant production of European subjectivities are sounded in song The Eurovision song is a shifting realm where old and new states imagine their pasts question their presents and envision ideal futures in the New Europe Essays in Empire of Song adopt theoretical and epistemological orientations in their exploration of popular music within ethnomusicology and critical musicology questioning the idea of Europe and the nation through and in music at a time when the European self appears more fragmented if not entirely shattered Bringing together ethnomusicology music studies history social anthropology feminist theory linguistics media ethnography postcolonial theory comparative literature and philosophy Empire of Song will interest students and scholars in a vast array of disciplines Mortal Thought James Luchte, 2016-07-28 Mortal Thought seeks to illustrate the artistic and philosophical contexts for Holderlin's poetic thought and to trace his profound impact upon subsequent philosophy most notably Nietzsche the Frankfurt School Heidegger and Post structuralism Beginning with the point of departure of Holderlin in Kant and Fichte Mortal Thought outlines the novel philosophical innovations of Holderlin and their influence upon philosophy from the 19th century to the present day A renewed appreciation of Holderlin will allow us to retrieve an authentic philosophy for our own era Mortal Thought lays out a concise clear and comprehensive account of the emergence of Holderlin as philosopher and poet of his influence upon the four dominant strands of Continental philosophy Nietzsche Heidegger Critical Theory and Post structuralism and of his relevance for us in our own era
