Committed to Victory Richard E. Holl,2015-10-09 When World War II broke out in Europe in September 1939 Kentucky was still plagued by the Great Depression Even though the inevitability of war had become increasingly apparent earlier that year the citizens of the Commonwealth continued to view foreign affairs as a lesser concern compared to issues such as the lingering economic depression the approaching planting season and the upcoming gubernatorial race It was only the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor that destroyed any lingering illusions of peace In Committed to Victory The Kentucky Home Front During World War II author Richard Holl offers the first comprehensive examination of the Commonwealth s civilian sector during this pivotal era in the state s history National mobilization efforts rapidly created centers of war production and activity in Louisville Paducah and Richmond producing new economic prosperity in the struggling region The war effort also spurred significant societal changes including the emergence of female and minority workforces in the state In the Bluegrass this trend found its face in Pulaski County native Rose Will

Monroe who was discovered as she assembled B 24 and B 29 bombers and was cast as Rosie the Riveter in films supporting the war effort Revealing the struggles and triumphs of civilians during World War II Holl illuminates the personal costs of the war the black market for rationed foods and products and even the inspiration that coach Adolph Rupp and the University of Kentucky basketball team offered to a struggling state Committed to Victory is a timely and engaging account that fills a significant gap in the literature on a crucial period of American history

Jump for Joy Gena Caponi-Tabery, 2008 If the 1930s was the Swing Era then the years from 1937 on might well be called the Jump Era That summer Count Basie recorded Jumping at the Woodside and suddenly jump tunes seemed to be everywhere Along with the bouncy beat came a new dance step the high flying aerials of the jitterbuggers and the basketball games that took place in the dance halls of African America became faster higher and flashier Duke Ellington and a cast of hundreds put the buoyant spirit of the era on stage with their 1941 musical revue Jump for Joy a title that captured the momentum and direction of the new culture of exuberance Several high profile public victories accompanied this increasing optimism the spectacular successes of African American athletes at the 1936 Olympics the 1937 union victory of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and Joe Louis's 1937 and 1938 heavyweight championship fights For the first time in history black Americans emerged as cultural heroes and ambassadors and many felt a new pride in citizenship In this book Gena Caponi Tabery chronicles these triumphs and shows how they shaped American music sports and dance of the 1930s and beyond But she also shows how they emboldened ordinary African Americans to push for greater recognition and civil liberties how cultural change preceded and catalyzed political action Tracing the path of one symbolic gesture the jump across cultural and disciplinary boundaries Caponi Tabery provides a unique political intellectual and artistic analysis of the years immediately preceding World War II

Tales from the Indiana High School Basketball Locker Room Jeff Washburn, 2013-08-01 It is often said that while Dr James Naismith invented basketball in Massachusetts the sport was raised and ultimately came of age in the high schools of Indiana the state where politics religion and sweet corn fall in line behind the game played with the round orange ball Tales from Indiana High School Basketball now newly revised centers on those special people who have played the game their stories their passion their drive for excellence their laughs and their tears This is a book about Lebanon schoolboy hero Rick Mount the first prep basketball player ever featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated it's about Gene Cato the Indiana High School Athletic Association's former commissioner whose father his high school coach would not put the young scoring phenomenon into a game until his team's fans demanded it it's also about Marion's Purple Reign consecutive state championships in 1985 1986 and 1987 when the Giants were the most important game on every opponent's schedule John Wooden Bobby Plump Steve Alford Damon Bailey it's as easy for an Indiana high school basketball fan to roll the names off the tongue as it is to find the broadcast of a high school game on AM radio on any Friday night during an Indiana winter Tales from Indiana High School Basketball is not so much about statistics and winning streaks as it is about the personalities and emotions of those who created a phenomenon that became a way of life in the Hoosier State
