Security Of The Caspian Sea Region:

The Security of the Caspian Sea Region Gennadii Illarionovich Chufrin, Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 2001 Over the past decade the Caspian Sea region has risen from relative obscurity to considerable prominence in global affairs Located at the crossroads of traditional trade routes between Europe and Asia and possessing vast natural resources oil and natural gas among them it attracts widespread international interest The emergence of new sovereign states in the region has fundamentally transformed its political landscape The future of the Caspian region is far from certain however as it is challenged by a wide variety of political socio economic and military threats which include the declining living standards of vast segments of local populations inter ethnic and inter confessional tensions and conflicts militant separatism international terrorism and illegal trade in arms and drugs The security of the region is also affected by the intensifying strategic competition among major outside powers over establishing their political and economic influence in regional affairs The book offers a competent analysis of the major political economic and security developments in the region by a diverse group of highly qualified experts from the Caspian littoral states the USA and the European Union

Afghanistan and Central Asia: NATO's Role in Regional Security Since 9/11 O. Tanrisever, 2013-02-15 Instability in Afghanistan has had a considerable effect on regional security in Central Asia particularly in the aftermath of the events of 9 11 and this has meant that the importance of NATO and its contribution to security in this area has increased considerably A detailed analysis of this topic is precisely important because it could highlight the areas where the Central Asian countries could increase their security contributions to Afghanistan s security through enhancing their cooperation with NATO This book presents the fully revised and updated versions of papers presented at the NATO Advanced Research Workshop ARW NATO the Fight against International Terrorism in Afghanistan and Security Situation in Central Asia since 9 11 held in Ankara Turkey in April 2011 This ARW was supported by the NATO Science for Peace and Security Programme The book takes a comprehensive approach to the regional security complex in Central Asia by emphasizing the human security socio political and energy dimensions in addition to the traditional military dimension of the fight against international terrorism in and around Afghanistan The findings of the book enhance our understanding of the root causes of international terrorism and the effective ways of coping with the security challenges in this region The book is divided into five parts First NATO s Contribution to Lasting Security in Afghanistan Second Responses of the Central Asian States to Political Instability Organized Crime and International Terrorism in Afghanistan Third Energy Security in and around Central Asia Fourth International Competition and Co operation over Afghanistan and Central Asia and Last but not least Regional Security Organizations and the Fight against International Terrorism in Afghanistan

Security Dynamics in the Black Sea Region Kornely Kakachia, Stephan Malerius, Stefan Meister, 2024-07-15 This book examines the geopolitical shifts triggered by Russia s military aggression against Ukraine from February 2022 onwards This conflict has catalyzed unprecedented transformations in the Black Sea region's security landscape reshaping the foundations of international relations Presenting various case studies on key players such as Russia Ukraine the USA Turkey the European Union and NATO the book presents a comprehensive analysis of the multifaceted impacts stemming from the conflict focusing on three critical dimensions military economic and human security The contributions examine whether and how the conflict has not only magnified security challenges but also spurred resistance by Ukrainian forces and society It also examines the impact of comprehensive economic sanctions and Western military and financial assistance to Ukraine on Russia's military capabilities and regional balance of power The book sheds new light on the intricate interplay between state actors multilateral institutions and emerging regional orders By dissecting the impact on governance models rule of law and human security the book illuminates the far reaching consequences of the conflict beyond military dynamics With a keen focus on the emergent European security order the book underscores the need for novel strategies to address the evolving security complexities in the Black Sea region This book is a must read for those seeking insights into the changing face of European security and the emergence of a new geopolitical order

Environmental Security in Harbors and Coastal Areas Igor Linkov, Gregory A. Kiker, Richard J. Wenning, 2007-05-24 History has shown how powerful societies decline when natural resources are unable to be replenished This book explores the challenges facing coastal areas during in the near future It emphasizes beliefs that the convergence of seemingly disparate viewpoints and uncertain and limited information is possible only by using available risk assessment methodologies and decision making tools such as multi criteria decision analysis MCDA

The Caspian Sea William Ascher, Natalia Mirovitskaya, 2000-04-30 This volume is based on the presentations and deliberations of an Advanced Research Workshop ARW Caspian Sea A Quest for Environmental Security that was held on March 15 19 1999 in Venice Italy The Workshop was sponsored by the NATO's Division for Scientific and Environmental Affairs with additional support provided by the Trust for Mutual Understanding USA It was organized by Duke University's Center for International Development Research with the guidance of the International Committee of scientists from Russia United States Georgia and Italy and organizational assistance rendered by Venice International University The Caspian Sea region is of profound importance from the perspective of global and regional environmental security New geopolitical and economic circumstances have created a mixture of competition reluctant collaboration and legal political economic and ideological wrangling There is an intense debate over how the Caspian and its resources should be divided among littoral states and how these resources are to be developed While most littoral states and the international companies strive to develop the area's immense hydrocarbon potential it is clear that the Caspian's unique and fragile ecosystem is at risk
