Security Sector Reform Issues Challenges And Prospects:

Security Sector Reform Jane Chanaa,2002 Over the last decade the failure of countries to emerge from conflict has focused attention on state security sectors This book examines how the external approaches to security sector reform SSR have evolved and what they entail the specific problems faced by the SSR agenda and what policy recommendations for engagement can be drawn from reform experiences

Reform and Reconstruction of the Security Sector Alan Bryden,Heiner Hänggi,2004 Security sector reform SSR is widely recognised as key to conflict prevention peace building sustainable development and democratisation SSR has gained most practical relevance in the context of post conflict reconstruction of so called failed states and states emerging from violent internal or inter state conflict As this volume shows almost all states need to reform their security sectors to a greater or lesser extent according to the specific security political and socio economic contexts as well as in response to the new security challenges resulting from globalisation and post 9 11 developments Contributions from academics and practitioners elaborate on both the conceptual underpinnings and the practical realities of security sector reform and a crucial aspect of post conflict peace building security sector reconstruction

The Politics of Security Sector Reform Magnus Ekengren,2016-02-24 Security Sector Reform SSR is increasingly becoming a cornerstone in international security and development cooperation Indeed the concept has often been seen as a panacea for many of the biggest threats to the world such as failed states terrorism and poverty In particular this book focuses on the complexities of implementation of SSR across the globe and the actual and potential role for the European Union EU to play in SSR As suggested in the title of the book this involves not only opportunities but challenges to be overcome as well There are three core themes to this book Policy Policies and Practice By presenting the themes in this particular order a greater appreciation of the influences on the process of SSR from conception to implementation is relayed to the reader This volume appeals to audiences interested in the EU as a global actor and the interrelationships between foreign security defence and development policies

Research in Security Sector Reform Policy Andrea Edoardo Varisco,2017-07-19 This book investigates the extent to which research has influenced and interacted with SSR policies programmes and activities implemented by the UK in conflict affected Sierra Leone Varisco uses concepts and notions from the literature on the policy process and research utilisation to explore the ways in which research has influenced UK led SSR policy Here the author analyses the evolution of the network of policy makers street level bureaucrats and researchers working on SSR in Sierra Leone and argues that two main variables an increased stability in the country and a progressive evolution of SSR in policy and research contributed to the expansion of the policy network over time and to a better use of research by street level bureaucrats on the ground This title derives from the Sierra Leone case study a series of recommendations to improve the use of research by international organisations and bilateral donors working in fragile states

Security Sector Reform in Conflict-Affected Countries Mark Sedra,2016-11-03 This book examines the evolution

impact and future prospects of the Security Sector Reform SSR model in conflict affected countries in the context of the wider debate over the liberal peace project Since its emergence as a concept in the late 1990s SSR has represented a paradigm shift in security assistance from the realist regime centric train and equip approach of the Cold War to a new liberal holistic and people centred model The rapid rise of this model however belied its rather meagre impact on the ground This book critically examines the concept and its record of achievement over the past two decades putting it into the broader context of peace building and state building theory and practice It focuses attention on the most common celebrated and complex setting for SSR conflict affected environments and comparatively examines the application and impacts of donor supported SSR programing in a series of conflict affected countries over the past two decades including Afghanistan Sierra Leone the Democratic Republic of Congo East Timor and Bosnia Herzegovina The broader aim of the book is to better understand how the contemporary SSR model has coalesced over the past two decades and become mainstreamed in international development and security policy and practice This provides a solid foundation to investigate the reasons for the poor performance of the model and to assess its prospects for the future This book will be of much interest to students of international security peacebuilding statebuilding development studies and IR in general

Security sector reform in transforming societies Timothy Edmunds, 2018-07-30 This book is about the relationship between societies and their security forces at times of great political and societal change It uses the experiences of Croatia Serbia and Montenegro to examine the control management and reform of armed forces police and intelligence agencies in the aftermath of conflict and authoritarianism The book assesses the theory and practice of security sector reform programmes in the context of Europe and the Western Balkans the relationship between security sector reform and normative international policy more generally and the broader dynamics of post conflict and post authoritarian transformation In so doing it addresses two underlying questions First how and in what ways does reform in the security sector interrelate with processes of domestic political and societal transformation particularly democratisation Second how and in what ways do these processes relate and respond to internationally driven efforts to promote a particular type of security sector reform as a component of wider peacebuilding and democracy promotion strategies

Rebuilding the Security Sector in Post-conflict Societies Judy Smith-Höhn, 2010 In Liberia and Sierra Leone strategies to reform and reconstruct the security sector have centred on re establishing the state s monopoly on the use of force However little attention is given to the array of non state actors that often play a major role in how individuals and communities experience security Rebuilding the Security Sector in Post Conflict Societies Perceptions from Urban Liberia and Sierra Leone seek to address this gap by applying a human security approach to security provision across these two contexts A key point of departure is that in the long run there can be no alternative within post conflict societies to a locally owned security sector Operationalising the concept of local ownership means that internationally supported security sector reform SSR activities need to reflect these local realities As explored within this study fostering synergies between state and non state security actors may therefore offer an important avenue to support more sustainable legitimate SSR efforts Judy Smith H hn is a senior researcher at the Institute for Security Studies in Pretoria South Africa Prior to her present position she was a research fellow at the GIGA Institute of African Affairs in Hamburg Germany and later a senior researcher at the Centre for Conflict Resolution in Cape Town in South Africa Her thematic emphases lie in the areas of violent conflict and its prevention and security sector reform within a regional focus on Liberia Sierra Leone Zambia and Zimbabwe She has published nationally and internationally on topics ranging from security sector reform and postconflict peacebuilding to democratic transformation in South Africa She holds a PhD from the University of Leipzig Germany and a Diplom masters degree in Political Science from the University of Hamburg Germany

Challenges to Security Sector Reform Len Le Roux, Yemane Kidane, 2007 Security sector reform SSR is key to ensuring sustainable democratisation and peacebuilding processes in the Horn of Africa This monograph edited by Len Le Roux and Yemane Kidane compares SSR experiences in the region and highlights security reform challenges facing the Horn of Africa SSR in the Horn should include both restructuring of security institutions and strengthening of political judicial and civil society oversight capacities It should also be based on a comprehensive accurate analysis of overall regional and national contexts

Local Ownership and Security Sector Reform Timothy Donais, 2008 The notion of local ownership has emerged in recent years as part of the contemporary commonsense of security sector reform SSR While the argument that externally driven reform processes are unsustainable is now widely accepted the principle of local ownership has proven difficult to both define and operationalise With contributions by leading practitioners both insiders and outsiders Local Ownership and Security Sector Reform subjects the broader issue of local ownership to critical scrutiny furthers the debate on what local ownership is and why it matters and explores how ownership issues have played out in the context of specific SSR case studies

The European Union as an Actor in Security Sector Reform Oya Dursun-Ozkanca, 2017-09-19 This book critically analyzes the European Union s role in Security Sector Reform SSR a topical issue with regards to European security While the literature on SSR has increased significantly in the past decade too little remain in the way of comparative analyses of SSR case studies that are geared toward theory development This collection strives to push the SSR literature in that direction One key question it focuses on is whether the EU pursues a holistic approach vis vis SSR Another question the book addresses is why and how the EU activities towards SSR in conflict management peacebuilding and statebuilding have produced a wide variety of outcomes that range from the failure to reform any or all of the sub set of security sectors police justice military etc to complete and integrated reform The volume encompasses all relevant cases of SSR in terms of the financial human and political resources involved at the EU level Cases are drawn from the Balkans Kosovo Bosnia Herzegovina Africa Democratic Republic of Congo the Middle East Palestinian Territories Post Soviet Space Georgia and Asia Aceh Indonesia The end product is a welcome contribution to the literature providing both an empirically and theoretically grounded approach to the study of SSR This book was originally published as a special issue of European Security

Building Security in Post-Conflict States Ursula Schroeder, Fairlie Chappuis, 2017-10-02 Support for security and justice institutions has become a crucial instrument of international engagement in fragile and conflict affected states In attempts to shore up security as a precondition for sustainable peace international actors have become deeply engaged in reforming the security agencies and security governance institutions of states emerging from conflict But despite their increasing importance in the field of international peace and state building security sector reform SSR interventions remain both highly political and deeply contentious processes Expanding on this theme this edited volume identifies new directions in research on the domestic consequences of external support to security sector reform Both empirically and theoretically the focus lies on the so far neglected role of domestic actors interests and political power constellations in recipient states Based on a wide range of empirical cases the volume discusses how the often conflictual and asymmetric encounters between external and domestic actors with divergent interests and perceptions affect the consequences of international interventions By taking into account the plurality of state and non state security actors and institutions beyond classical models of Weberian statehood the contributions make the case for engaging more closely with the complexity of the domestic security governance configurations that can result from external engagement in the field of security sector reform This book was published as a special issue of International Peacekeeping

Statebuilding and Justice Reform Matteo Tondini, 2010-02-25

The book provides an updated account of justice reform in Afghanistan which started in the wake of the US led military intervention of 2001. In particular it focuses on the role of international actors and their interaction with local stakeholders highlighting some provisional results together with problems and dilemmas encountered in the reform activities. Since the mid 1990s justice system reform has become increasingly important in state building operations particularly with regard to the international administrations of Bosnia Kosovo East Slavonia and East Timor. Statebuilding and Justice Reform examines in depth the reform of justice in Afghanistan evaluating whether the success of reform may be linked to any specific feature or approach. In doing so it stresses the need for development programmes in the field of justice to be implemented through a multilateral approach involving domestic authorities and other relevant stakeholders. Success is therefore linked to limiting the political interests of donors establishing functioning pooled financing mechanisms restricting the use of bilateral projects improving the efficacy of technical and financial aid and concentrating the attention on the demand for justice at local level rather than on the traditional supply of financial and technical assistance. This book will be of much interest to students of Afghanistan intervention and statebuilding peacekeeping and post conflict reconstruction as well as International Relations in general. Matteo Tondini is a researcher and a legal advisor. He has served as a project advisor to the Embassy of Italy in Kabul Development Cooperation Unit working within the Afghanistan Justice Program and has a Phd in Political Systems and Institutional Change from the Institute of Advanced Studies Lucca Italy.

The Routledge Handbook of Civil-military Relations Thomas C. Bruneau, Florina Cristiana Matei, 2013. The Routledge Handbook of Civil Military Relations not only fills this important lacuna but offers an up to date comparative analysis which identifies three essential components in civil military relations: 1 democratic civilian control 2 operational effectiveness and 3 the efficiency of the security institutions. This Handbook will be essential reading for students and practitioners in the fields of civil military relations.

Intergovernmental Organisations and Security Sector Reform David Murray Law, David Law, 2007. Intergovernmental organisations (IGOs) play a crucial role in security sector reform and governance (SSR). In virtually all instances of recent and current SSR programme delivery IGOs have either led the SSR effort or supported the lead provided by other actors. How this role is played is of vital importance for the prospects of fostering durable security and development in a wide range of countries. This volume looks at a selection of organisations that have been in the forefront of SSR activity or that have the potential for significantly developing their SSR agendas in the future. These IGOs are the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), the European Union (EU), the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation (NATO), the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE), the Council of Europe (CoE), the Economic Organisation of West African States (ECOWAS), the World Bank (WB) and the International Monetary Fund (IMF). This year's volume is divided into four parts: conceptual issues, case studies on how IGOs have approached SSR in programme areas that are particularly representative of their overall action, case studies on the way various actors primarily but not exclusively IGOs have worked with each other in implementing SSR and supporting its implementation and conclusions drawn from the various case studies as well as policy recommendations for future IGO work in the area of SSR G Afghanistan Geoffrey Hayes, Mark Sedra, 2009-08-04 Many have questioned the wisdom of the international intervention in Afghanistan in light of the escalation of violence and instability in the country in the past few years Particularly uncertain are Canadians who have been inundated with media coverage of an increasingly dirty war in southern Afghanistan one in which Canadians are at the frontline and suffering heavy casualties However the conflict is only one aspect of Afghanistan s complicated and incomplete political economic and security transition In Afghanistan Transition under Threat leading Afghanistan scholars and practitioners paint a full picture of the situation in Afghanistan and the impact of international and particularly Canadian assistance They review the achievements of the reconstruction process and outline future challenges focusing on key issues like the narcotics trade the Pakistan Afghanistan bilateral relationship the Taliban led insurgency and continuing endemic poverty This collection provides new insight into the nature and state of Afghanistan s post conflict transition and illustrates the consequences of failure Co published with the Centre for International Governance Innovation Security Sector Transformation in Southeastern Europe and the Middle East Thanos P. Dokos, 2007 For most countries security today is primarily measured in non military terms and threats to security are non military in nature These threats include incompetent government corruption organized crime insecure borders smuggling illegal migration ethnic and religious conflict and of course terrorism

Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding Roger Mac Ginty, 2013-02-15 This new Routledge Handbook offers a comprehensive state of the art overview of the meanings and uses of the term peacebuilding and presents cutting edge debates on the practices conducted in the name of peacebuilding The term peacebuilding has had remarkable staying power Other terms such as conflict resolution have waned in popularity while the acceptance and use of the term peacebuilding has grown to the extent that it is the hegemonic and over arching term for many forms of mediation reconciliation and strategies to induce peace Despite this however it is rarely defined and often used to mean different things to different audiences Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding aims to be a one stop comprehensive resource on the literature and practices of contemporary peacebuilding The book is organised into six key sections Section 1 Reading peacebuilding Section 2 Approaches and cross cutting themes Section 3 Disciplinary approaches to peacebuilding Section 4 Violence and security Section 5 Everyday living and peacebuilding Section 6 The infrastructure of peacebuilding This new Handbook will be essential reading for students of peacebuilding mediation and post conflict reconstruction and of great interest to students of statebuilding intervention civil wars conflict resolution war and conflict studies and IR in general The Global Promise of Federalism Grace Skogstad, David Cameron, Martin Papillon, Keith Banting, 2013-01-01 This book honours the legacy of Richard Simeon one of the most prominent federalist scholars in the world and a long time member of the Department of Political Science at the University of Toronto
