

The background of the image shows a child's artwork on the left, featuring a purple and red drawing. To the right, a tree trunk is visible. In the foreground on the right, the back of a child's head with braided hair and a polka-dot headband is partially visible. The child is wearing a shirt with a colorful, abstract pattern. The overall scene is outdoors, with a grassy area and a blurred background of trees and a building.

At popups, we see incredible play unfold—but we also hear a lot of play policing. It's usually well-meaning, intended to keep kids safe or help them navigate social situations. But the words we use can unintentionally send messages that shut play down rather than support it.
