Cinema Murray Pomerance,2022-10-20 Murray Pomerance s latest book explores an encyclopedic range of films and television shows to demonstrate the difficulty of conveying the experience of viewing cinema through words and the medium of text From On the Waterfront to Marriage Story Uncanny Cinema illuminates that words and writing are in perilous waters when applied to cinema similar to ungestured talk The book begins with this problem using Julian Jaynes s thoughts on vocality and imagination before delving into three exploratory movements arranged to alternately challenge inspire and confound the reader to question if we know what we think we know or even see what we think we see The viewer is faced with disturbances ruptures and surprises that occur during the viewing experience which Pomerance analyzes to stretch the sense of what we do and do not or possibly cannot know particularly as we think talk and write about cinema Riptide Aleera Anaya Ceres, A sunken ship The cruise was supposed to help Coral forget about the past Instead it thrusts her into a nightmare of carnage death and waves dragging her under Coral was supposed to die but a merman s kiss brings her back to life An evil queen She wished he would have left her for dead But the mysterious merman drags her to the Dark Waters where she must stand trial for accusations of crimes she did not commit Innocence means nothing when the Black Kingdom s queen is vicious and unforgiving And not even the merman she thought to be an ally can protect her from her fate And a mermaid fighting for freedom Enslaved and forced to do the queen s bidding Coral must survive dark magic and strange creatures Frightened and alone she can trust no one Not the maid who is as much a slave as she Not the merman whose heartbroken kiss gave her a second chance Not the tattooed royal guard whose blade promises death and body promises ruin All Coral can rely on is herself To discover the secrets the queen harbors Of old magic and broken kingdoms and wars long lost Of the hold the witch has on the mer Because Coral knows the Dark Waters is not what it appears to be And once she discovers the truth of the Black Kingdom She will bring it crumbling to the ground Author s note This series is a dark fantasy paranormal romance with scenes unsuitable for readers below the age of 18
