The central core of master's teaching: Until man can free himself from false identifications, from pretensions and delusions of various kinds, he cannot come face to face with the eternal verity that is latent within his own self. "What the mind invents, the mind destroys. But the real is not invented and cannot be destroyed ..." says Maharaj.

Seeds of Consciousness

The Wisdom of Sri Nisargadatta Maharaj

Edited by Jean Dunn

The wisdom contained in this collection, edited by Jean Dunn, emerged from dialogues with those who came from all over the world to learn the mysteries of life at the feet of Sri Nisargadatta Maharaj, one of the most revered holy men of India.

The residence of this renowned spiritual guide was a tiny room in a crowded and noisy street in Bombay. Maurice Frydman, who immortalized Maharaj's teachings in the first collection of the dialogues, I AM THAT, in 1973, vividly describes the man and his surroundings: "In the humble abode of Sri Nisargadatta Maharaj, but for the electric lights and the noises of the street traffic, one would not know in which period of human history one dwells. There is an atmosphere of timelessness about this tiny room; the subjects discussed are timeless—valid for all times. The way they are expounded and examined is also timeless . . . one deals with matters immensely ancient and eternally new . . . Whence came it? What am I? Whether go I? Such questions have no beginning and will never end. And it is crucial to know the answers, for without the full understanding of oneself, both in time and in timelessness, life is but a dream, imposed upon us by powers we do not know, for purposes we cannot grasp."

Maharaj's admonition to "be" and to know what one "is"—in the sense of timeless being—emerges from these dialogues and will touch the lives of many for a long time to come. The conversations recorded by Jean Dunn, an ardent follower of Maharaj, in Seeds of Consciousness and a companion volume, Prior to Consciousness, make an invaluable contribution to the body of his spiritual testament. These conversations continue to provide insights for modern man in his spiritual journeys, leading him out of suffering and sorrow.

Profound View Dalai Lama XIV Bstan-'dzin-rgya-mtsho, Dalai Lama, Thubten Chodron, 2022-12-20 This second of three volumes on emptiness presents the analysis and meditations necessary to realize emptiness by forcefully and completely negating inherent existence. With attention to Candrakīrti's seven-point examination, Nāgārjuna's five-point analysis, and Pīśaśtras we investigate who or what is the person and if there is an inherently existent I, thereby gaining clarity on two diverse meanings of self: the person and inherent existence. Not finding the person under ultimate analysis and having negated inherent existence, it is equally important to establish what does exist: illusion-like dependent arisings, for it is the dependently existing person that carries the karmic seeds from one lifetime to the next. And so we learn the three levels of related dependent arising as noted by Tsongkhapa as well as His Holiness's way of delineating them: his spectacular explanation of how, for a person who has realized emptiness, emptiness dawns as the meaning of dependent arising and dependent arising dawns as the meaning of emptiness, which is the culmination of the correct view according to the Prāsaṅgika-Mādhyamaka tradition.
