The Thinking Historian Eric W. Sager, 2025-01-27 What is history What are historians doing when we create our histories The need for answers is more urgent than ever We live in an era when history is often rejected or ignored and when all teachers of history confront formidable challenges In the culture of screen capitalism and social media historical knowledge is evaded in an expanding present minded consciousness How can history be defended and what is it that we are defending This book argues that history is a mode of thinking a form of imaginative reasoning with its own informal logic In non technical language and using examples from important works of history the book defines core elements in historical thinking These include contingency complexity temporality parts and wholes consilience perspectives analogy and abduction These elements are subsumed into the concept of imaginative reasoning The overall argument echoes the work of hermeneutic philosophers History is a disciplined imagination tempered and empowered by its forms of reasoning It embraces ethical imperatives that the historian has a duty to declare Equipped with such understanding historians may answer the many rejections of history and secure its place in our shared futures

Seeing, Knowing, Being John Greer, 2012-02-15 From ancient Taoist sages and Sufi mystics to Christian contemplatives and contemporary Zen masters Seeing Knowing Being explores the profound truth behind all the world's mystic traditions Living a spiritual life has nothing to do with fixing ourselves It is simply a matter of awakening to what we already are The real work of self discovery and the answer to our suffering emptiness and loss of meaning is learning to see in a different way The mystical adventure is all in the seeing says John Greer From departure to arrival nothing changes but our eyes But the process isn't that simple In this all embracing work that is destined to become a classic Greer artfully traces the steps and stages of the delicate process of awakening He shows how we can move from society's hand me down version of reality to the wonder of our true nature from conceptual habitual patterns of thinking to knowing the truth by being Like a master artist who captures an image and stirs something deep inside of us Greer also highlights nearly one hundred evocative metaphors as varied and colorful as the sages themselves to kindle your imagination and spark your intuition to shift your perspective and shake you into an awareness that no amount of explanation can What Greer shows with great wisdom and compassion is that when you put aside the map of the mind you can follow the compass of your heart You can move through the details of life going to work raising a family throwing out the garbage and still experience the wonders and oneness of life with deep reverence gratitude and joy Books often describe journeys Seeing Knowing Being actually takes you on one A profound expedition into the true nature of life

Naked Seeing Christopher Hatchell, 2014 Buddhism is in many ways a visual tradition with its well known practices of visualization its visual arts its epistemological writings that discuss the act of seeing and its literature filled with images and metaphors of light Some Buddhist traditions are also visionary advocating practices by which meditators seek visions that arise before their eyes Naked Seeing investigates such practices in the context of two major esoteric traditions the Wheel of Time Kalacakra and the Great Perfection Dzogchen Both of these experimented with sensory deprivation and developed yogas involving long periods of dwelling in dark rooms or gazing at the open sky These produced unusual experiences of seeing which were used to pursue some of the classic Buddhist questions about appearances emptiness and the nature of reality Along the way these practices gave rise to provocative ideas and suggested that rather than being apprehended through internal insight religious truths might also be seen in the exterior world realized through the gateway of the eyes Christopher Hatchell presents the intellectual and literary histories of these practices and also explores the meditative techniques and physiology that underlie their distinctive visionary experiences The book also offers for the first time complete English translations of three major Tibetan texts on visionary practice a Kalacakra treatise by Yumo Mikyo Dorj The Lamp Illuminating Emptiness a Nyingma Great Perfection work called The Tantra of the Blazing Lamps and a Bon Great Perfection work called Advice on the Six Lamps along with a detailed commentary on this by Drugom Gyalwa Yungdrung

Dasti, 2024-06-28 Stephen Phillips has devoted his career to excavating some of the most valuable gems of Indian philosophy and bringing them into conversation with contemporary thought This volume honors him and follows his lead by continuing his lifelong project faithfully interpreting Sanskrit texts to think along with their authors about ideas that still perplex us today It features ten new essays focusing on epistemology logic and metaphysics from outstanding philosophers and scholars of Sanskrit philosophy with contributions varying in methodology both historical and cross cultural Further in addition to essays on Nyaya and Advaita Vedanta it engages with Navya Nyaya new Nyaya an important but understudied part of Indian philosophy Through these investigations in conversation with Phillips's groundbreaking work the contributors show the value of cross cultural engagement for philosophical progress The Vindication of the World will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in Indian philosophy comparative philosophy and more generally epistemology logic and metaphysics

A Companionable Way Lisa M. Hess, 2016-09-16 In today's polarized publics we are rarely prepared to encounter one another peaceably and deeply across irreconcilable difference A Companionable Way invites inquisitive minds body souls and spiritual hearts into the delightful but demanding inner work required for peaceable encounters with integrity across interreligious and intercultural difference Unmet yearnings and the unconscious refusal of deep feeling in so many of our cultures need redress not only within scholarly analytical habits of mind but also in aging communal containers not adept at holding deep feeling without harm Ancient but new containers today webs of spiritual friendship and circle way communities of practice offer hope for new learning and formative encounters with difference toward an expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others Part memoir of a deep feeling academic part toolbox for the curiously contemplative A Companionable Way witnesses to the deeply rooted Sacred available to each of us in a return to the body devotion in conscious love and new ways of being human together across irreconcilable difference held gently in a patient and living wisdom particular to each but needed by all

The Semantics of English Prepositions Andrea Tyler,Vyvyan Evans,2003-06-05 Using a cognitive linguistics perspective this book provides a comprehensive theoretical analysis of the semantics of English prepositions All English prepositions originally coded spatial relations between two physical entities while retaining their original meaning prepositions have also developed a rich set of non spatial meanings In this study Tyler and Evans argue that all these meanings are systematically grounded in the nature of human spatio physical experience The original spatial scenes provide the foundation for the extension of meaning from the spatial to the more abstract This analysis articulates an alternative methodology that distinguishes between a conventional meaning and an interpretation produced for understanding the preposition in context as well as establishing which of several competing senses should be taken as the primary sense Together the methodology and framework are sufficiently articulated to generate testable predictions and allow the analysis to be applied to additional prepositions

Racial Conflict and Healing Andrew Sung Park,2009-12-01 A Korean theologian approaches the issue of racial conflict including discrimination between minority communities and constructs a theology of seeing that aims to heal the ruptures of racism As ethnic tensions continue to simmer and occasionally erupt immigration and affirmative action laws are hotly debated in every ethnic minority African Americans Hispanic Americans Native Americans even Asian Americans the so called model minority struggle in the racially charged atmosphere of contemporary America In the aftermath of the Los Angeles riots of 1992 and the ensuing violence against Korean Americans Andrew Sung Park seeks a theological model that will help transform a society of oppression injustice and violence into a community of equity fairness and mutual consideration Park emphasizes that such a transformation does not and cannot begin only with good intentions but must be grounded in an understanding of all the socio economic and cultural issues that lead to oppression and tension Using the Korean term han to describe the deep seated suffering of racial oppression he then suggests resources for understanding and healing in both Christian and Asian traditions Part I of Racial Conflict and Healing describes the status quo from a Korean American perspective including discrimination against ethnic minorities and the discrimination they inflict on one another In Parts II and III Park suggests that American society as a whole needs a superordinate vision to form a unified community Park argues that our profoundly individualistic society must learn to understand an idea of self that is formed through relationship with others Finally in Part IV he presents a theological model a theology of seeing as a way to genuinely understand the other and to promote healing within our society

The Metanarrative of Blindness David Bolt,2014 Sheds new light on literary representations of blindness from a disability studies perspective

ecological theory to design theory and practice critiquing the ways in which the design industry perpetuates unsustainable development Boehnert argues that when design does engage with issues of sustainability this engagement remains shallow due to the narrow basis of analysis in design education and theory The situation is made more severe by design cultures which claim to be apolitical Where design education fails to recognise the historical roots of unsustainable practice it reproduces old errors New ecologically informed design methods and tools hold promise only when incorporated into a larger project of political change Design Ecology Politics describes how ecological literacy challenges many central assumptions in design theory and practice By bringing design ecology and socio political theory together Boehnert describes how power is constructed reproduced and obfuscated by design in ways which often cause environmental harms She uses case studies to illustrate how communication design functions to either conceal or reveal the ecological and social impacts of current modes of production The transformative potential of design is dependent on deep reaching analysis of the problems design attempts to address Ecologically literate and critically engaged design is a practice primed to facilitate the creation of viable sustainable and just futures With this approach designers can make sustainability not only possible but attractive Brain, Consciousness, and God Daniel A. Helminiak, 2015-07-16 Brain Consciousness and God is a constructive critique of neuroscientific research on human consciousness and religious experience An adequate epistemology a theory of knowledge is needed to address this topic but today there exists no consensus on what human knowing means especially regarding nonmaterial realities Daniel A Helminiak turns to twentieth century theologian and philosopher Bernard Lonergan s breakthrough analysis of human consciousness and its implications for epistemology and philosophy of science Lucidly summarizing Lonergan s key ideas Helminiak applies them to questions about science psychology and religion Along with Lonergan eminent theorists in consciousness studies and neuroscience get deserved detailed attention Helminiak demonstrates the reality of the immaterial mind and addressing the Cartesian mind body problem explains how body and mind could make up one being a person Human consciousness is presented not only as awareness of objects but also as self presence the self conscious experience of human subjectivity a spiritual reality Lonergan s analyses allow us to say exactly what spiritual means and it need have nothing to do with God Practice Wisdom Joy Higgs, 2019-07-01 Practice wisdom is needed because the challenges people face in life work and society are not simple and require more than knowledge actions and decision making capabilities In professional practice wisdom enhances people s capacity to succeed and evolve and to assist their clients in achieving positive relevant and satisfying outcomes Practice Wisdom Values and Interpretations brings diverse views and interpretations to an exploration of what wisdom in professional practice means and can become academically practically and inspirationally The authors reflect on core dimensions of practice wisdom like ethics mindfulness moral virtue particularisation and metacognition The chapter authors tackle the trials that practice wisdom seekers encounter including the demand for resilience perseverance finding credibility and humility in practice wisdom and linking wisdom into evidence for sound professional decision making Readers are invited to consider what the place of practice wisdom encompasses in pursuing good practice outcomes amidst the turmoil and pressure of professional practice today Do the imperatives of evidence based practice and accountability leave enough space for wise practice or is wisdom seen by modern practice worlds as unnecessary antiquated unrealistic and redundant Without a doubt these questions are answered positively in this book in support of the place and value of practice wisdom in professional practice today New Issues in Epistemological Disjunctivism Casey Doyle, Joseph Milburn, Duncan Pritchard, 2019-04-29 This is the first volume dedicated solely to the topic of epistemological disjunctivism The original essays in this volume written by leading and up and coming scholars on the topic are divided into three thematic sections The first set of chapters addresses the historical background of epistemological disjunctivism It features essays on ancient epistemology Immanuel Kant J L Austin Edmund Husserl and Ludwig Wittgenstein The second section tackles a number contemporary issues related to epistemological disjunctivism including its relationship with perceptual disjunctivism radical skepticism and reasons for belief Finally the third group of essays extends the framework of epistemological disjunctivism to other forms of knowledge such as testimonial knowledge knowledge of other minds and self knowledge Epistemological Disjunctivism is a timely collection that engages with an increasingly important topic in philosophy It will appeal to researches and graduate students working in epistemology philosophy of mind and philosophy of perception Structure and Being Lorenz B. Puntel, 2010-11-01 God and Creation in the Theology of Thomas Aquinas and Karl Barth Tyler Wittman, 2019 God s simplicity and perfection shapes both God s distinctive relation to creation and how theologians properly acknowledge this distinctiveness in thought Liquid Ecclesiology Pete Ward, 2017-06-06 In Liquid Ecclesiology Pete Ward explores the theological contours of the turn to ethnography in the study of the Christian Church His approach rests on a theology of culture that holds in tension and paradox the expression of the Church and divine presence This theological framework is then developed through an extended qualitative empirical case study examining the communicative practices of the contemporary evangelical Church The case study examines how the evangelical Gospel through expression has become marginalised in the everyday life of communities being replaced by a new more individual and personalised theology seen in worship songs The final section of the book returns to the debates around ethnographic forms of theology and the question of normativity This book will be of interest to all those engaged in empirical and theological work as well as those researching the contemporary Church and evangelicalism Chimpanzee Cultures Richard W. Wrangham, 1996 Compares and contrasts the ecology social relations and cognition of chimpanzees bonobos and occasionally gorillas Ways of Seeking Emily Drumsta, 2024-02-20 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In Ways of Seeking Emily Drumsta traces the influence of detective fiction on the twentieth century Arabic novel Theorizing a poetics of investigation she shows how these novels far from staging awe inspiring feats of logical deduction mock the truth seeking practices on which modern exercises of colonial and national power are often premised Their narratives return to the archives of Arabic folklore Islamic piety and mysticism to explore less coercive ways of knowing seeing and seeking Drumsta argues that scholars of the Middle East neglect the literary at their peril overlooking key critiques of colonialism from the intellectuals who shaped and responded through fiction to the transformations of modernity This book ultimately tells a different story about the novel s place in the constellation of Arab modernism modeling an innovative method of open ended inquiry based on the literary texts themselves

Construction of Gender and Identity in Genesis Karalina Matskevich, 2019-01-24 Karalina Matskevich examines the structures that map out the construction of gendered and national identities in Genesis 2 3 and 12 36 Matskevich shows how the dominant Subject the androcentric ha adam and the ethnocentric Israel is perceived in relation to and over against the Other represented respectively as female and foreign Using the tools of narratology semiotics and psychoanalysis Matskevich highlights the contradiction inherent in the project of dominance through which the Subject seeks to suppress the transforming power of difference it relies on for its signification Thus in Genesis 2 3 ha adam can only emerge as a complex Subject in possession of knowledge with the help of woman the transforming Other to whom the narrator and Yahweh attributes both the agency and the blame Similarly the narratives of Genesis 12 36 show a conflicted attitude to places of alterity Egypt the fertile and seductive space that threatens annihilation and Haran the mother s land a complex metaphor for the feminine The construction of identity in these narratives largely relies on the symbolic fecundity of the Other
