Reconceiving the Second Sex Marcia C. Inhorn,2009 Extensive social science research particularly by anthropologists has explored women s reproductive lives their use of reproductive technologies and their experiences as mothers and nurturers of children Meanwhile few if any volumes have explored men s reproductive concerns or contributions to women s reproductive health Men are clearly viewed as the second sex in reproduction This volume argues that the marginalization of men is an oversight of considerable proportions and thereby seeks to break the silence surrounding men s thoughts experiences and feelings about their reproductive lives It sheds new light on male reproduction from a cross cultural global perspective focusing not only upon men in Europe and America but also those in the Middle East Asia and Latin America Both heterosexual and homosexual married and unmarried men are featured in this volume which assesses concerns ranging from masculinity and sexuality to childbirth and fatherhood

Thus men are brought back into the equation as reproductive partners progenitors fathers nurturers and decision makers
