Yetter,2016-08-30 We live in a society that tells us to do whatever feels good at the moment Yet deep down inside we tend to think that there is more than what is offered by the media and the church That is how many feel and I decided to find out what God has to say on different topics i.e. anger love fear heaven and hell through His Word the Bible It is through studying the Bible that forgiveness can be found This book offers hope and encouragement to those who believe they can never be forgiven for the hurtful things they have done in their past 1 Peter Harry Uprichard,2019-12-06 Writing to Christians facing trials and possible persecution Peter begins his letter not with their problems but with the solution Individually as believers they inherit a triune salvation where God chooses Christ cleanses and the Spirit consecrates Corporately brought from darkness to light Christ as cornerstone both establishes and shapes them Practically amid adversity within society in work and at home Christ's death as atonement saves them and his example motivates them He is also their overseer and shepherd Generally and potentially suffering for righteousness's sake means following Christ's example of nonretaliation setting him apart in their hearts as Lord and living for him at all times like this Even in their fellowships leaders and led must be diligent and humble like Christ the chief shepherd The Christian life is really all about Christ This recalls Peter's word to Jesus at Caesarea Philippi You are the Christ the Son of the living God Matt 16 16 That is what First Peter is essentially about Living for Christ in a suffering world involves believing in Christ's atoning death and following Christ's example whatever the circumstances That done all is done
