Kumarasingham, 2020-11-25 Liberal Ideals and the Politics of Decolonisation explores the subject of liberalism and its uses and contradictions across the late British Empire especially in the context of imperial dissolution and subsequent state building The book covers multiple regions and issues concerning the British Empire and the Commonwealth in particular the period ranging from the late nineteenth century to the late twentieth century Original intellectual contributions are offered along with new arguments on critical issues in imperial history that will appeal to a wide range of scholars including those outside of history Liberal Ideals and the Politics of Decolonisation exposes commonalities contradictions and contexts of different types of liberalism that animated the late British Empire and its rulers radicals subjects and citizens as they attempted to forge new states from its shadow and understand the impact of imperialism This book examines the complexities of the idea and quest for self government in the last stages of the British Empire It also argues the importance of the political intellectual and empirical aspects of liberalism to understand the process of decolonisation The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History

Indian Constitutional Problems Sir Paramanhēri Sundaram Sivasvāmi Aiyar, 1928

The Centenary of the Irish Free State Constitution Laura Cahillane, Donal K. Coffey, 2024-03-12 This book deals with the role development and legacy of the first Constitution of independent Ireland within the wider context of the establishment of the State After decades of relative neglect the 1920s have been receiving increased attention from historians recently thanks to the centenary of the State's foundation This book continues this trend of re examination of this period and looks at key themes such as the establishment of institutions under the Irish Free State Constitution and the focus on the ideals of popular sovereignty and democracy It does so from novel and cross disciplinary perspectives and it also looks at areas which have received little to no previous attention from individual aspects like property rights the Irish language and environmental rights to aspects such as opposition and partition

Constitutionalism in Ireland, 1932-1938 Donal K. Coffey, 2018-05-17 The first of two volumes this book examines constitutionalism in Ireland in the 1930s Donal K Coffey places the document and its drafters in the context of a turbulent decade for the United Kingdom the Commonwealth and Europe He considers a series of key issues leading up to its drafting including the failure of the 1922 Constitution the rise of nationalism in the 1920s and 1930s and the abdication of Edward VIII He sketches the drafting process examines the roles of individual drafters and their intellectual influences and considers the Constitution's public reception both domestically and internationally This book illuminates a critical moment in Irish history and the confluence of national Commonwealth and international influences that gave rise to it for scholars of Irish history as well as of legal constitutional and Commonwealth history more broadly
