Select Sermons Of George Whitefield:

Selected Sermons of George Whitefield George Whitefield, 1904 Select Sermons of George Whitefield George Whitefield, John Charles Ryle, 1985 Whitefield was not only the greatest preacher and orator of the eighteenth century he was also one of its most saintly characters if not the saintliest of all Certainly there was no more humble or lovable man amongst them What can be more profitable next to the Bible itself than to read something of the life of such a man and to read his own words D M Lloyd Jones What can be more profitable next to the Bible itself than to read something of the life of such a man as George Whitefield and to read his own words The famous essay by Bishop Ryle is certainly the best short account of Whitefield that has ever been done and it is good that it should be thus reprinted At the same time this volume provides samples of the great preacher s sermons It is a judicious and representative selection Selected Sermons of George Whitefield ... George Whitefield, 1992 Select Sermons of George Whitefield George Whitefield, 1959 Select Sermons

Select Sermons of George Whitefield John Charles Ryle, 1958 Selected Sermons of George Whitefield (Unabridged) {Revival Press Edition} George Whitefield, Revival Press, 2017-07-08 John 7 37 39 In the last day that great day of the feast Jesus stood and cried saying If any man thirst let him come unto me and drink He that believeth on me as the scripture hath said out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water But this spake he of the Spirit which they that believe on him should receive Nothing has rendered the cross of Christ of less effect nothing has been a greater stumbling block and rock of offense to weak minds that a supposition now current among us that most of what is contained in the gospel of Jesus Christ was designed only for our Lord s first and immediate followers and consequently calculated but for one or two hundred years Accordingly many now read the life sufferings death and resurrection of Jesus Christ in the same manner as Caesar s Commentaries or the Conquests of Alexander are read as things rather intended to afford matter for speculation than to be acted over again in and by us As this is true of the doctrines of the gospel in general so it is of the operation of God s Spirit upon the hearts of believers in particular for we no sooner mention the necessity of our receiving the Holy Ghost in these last days as well as formerly but we are looked upon by some as enthusiasts and madmen and by others represented as willfully deceiving the people and undermining the established constitution of the church Judge ye then whether it is not high time for the true ministers of Jesus who have been made partakers of this heavenly gift to lift up their voices like a trumpet and if they would not have those souls perish for which the Lord Jesus has shed his precious blood to declare with all boldness that the Holy Spirit is the common privilege and portion of all believers in all ages and that we as well as the first Christians must receive the Holy Ghost before we can be truly called the children of God

Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their labour For if they fall the one will lift up his fellow but woe to him that is alone when he falleth for he hath not another to help him up Again if two lie together then they have heat but how can one be warm alone And if one prevail against him two shall withstand him and a threefold cord is not quickly broken Eccles iv 9 12 AMONG the many reasons assignable for the sad decay of true Christianity perhaps the neglecting to assemble ourselves together in 1 Preached in the Church of St Mary de Crypt Gloucester the church in which Whitefield was baptised where he had first received the Holy Communion and contiguous then to the school in which he had been educated on the afternoon of June 27 1736 Mr Tyerman i 51 thinks it probably the same sermon he afterwards preached before the Religious Societies at one of their quarterly meetings in Bow Church London A large crowd drawn together Whitefield tells us by curiosity filled the church at Gloucester The results of the sermon were remarkable A few mocked but most for the present seemed struck and I have since heard that a complaint has been made to the Bishop that I drove fifteen mad On the following day the Bishop sent the young preacher five guineas a great supply for one who had not a guinea in the world religious societies may not be one of the least That I may therefore do my endeavour towards promoting so excellent a means of piety I have selected a passage of Scripture drawn from the experiences of the wisest of men which being a little enlarged on and illustrated will fully answer my present design being to
