Sex, Drugs and Creativity Dustin Kahoud,Danielle Knafo,2018-06-19 In Sex Drugs and Creativity The Search for Magic in a Disenchanted World Kahoud and Knafo take a close look at omnipotent fantasies in three domains sex drugs and creativity They demonstrate how these fantasies emerge and how artists draw on them both to create and destroy sometimes simultaneously and how understanding this can help psychoanalysts work more effectively with these individuals Using the personal statements of influential artists and entertainers in addition to clinical material the authors examine the omnipotence of self destruction as it contends with that of creative artists The authors argue that creative artists use omnipotent fantasies to imagine the world differently this enables them to produce their art but also leaves these artists vulnerable to addiction Chapters devoted to Stephen King and Anne Sexton demonstrate the ways these authors used drugs and alcohol to fuel imagination and inspire creative output while simultaneously doing harm to themselves A detailed case study also demonstrates successful clinical work with a creative substance user Sex Drugs and Creativity will appeal to anyone interested in the links between creativity and substance use and will be of great use to psychoanalysts and mental health practitioners working with these challenging clients
