The Heart of It All Christian Kiefer,2023-09-12 Deeply moving and beautifully written I couldn t put it down Jesmyn Ward author of Sing Unburied Sing For anyone who believes as I do that the best hope for our fractured country is local not national Christian Kiefer s new novel The Heart of it All will provide a welcome balm for the spirit Here are people worth spending time with not because they re perfect but because they re not What s wrong with them isn t nearly as consequential as how hard they fight for a better life and not just for themselves You set the book down and think This is what we re made of Or should be Richard Russo author of Somebody s Fool A small declining town in Ohio A family bereaved by terrible loss A searing narrative about how American lives touch each other across divides both real and imagined Set in failing small town in central Ohio The Heart of It All asks how one manages in an America of increasing division to find a sense of family and community Focusing on the members of three families the Baileys a white family who have put down deep roots in the community the Marwats an immigrant family that owns the town s largest employer and the Shaws especially young Anthony an outsider whose very presence gently shakes the town s understanding of itself A gorgeous stirring novel in the classic vein of Richard Ford Marilynne Robinson Richard Russo and Kent Haruf The Heart of It All asks the reader to consider an America both divided and bound by its differences

Heart of Darkness - Ed. Goonetilleke - Third Edition Joseph Conrad,2020-07-21 The first incarnation of this Broadview edition of Heart of Darkness appeared in 1995 the second in 1999 both were widely acclaimed and the Goonetilleke Heart of Darkness remained for many years one of Broadview s best selling titles For the third edition the book has been completely revised and updated to take account of the scholarship of the most recent generation The introduction has been extensively rewritten and the appendices of contextual materials thoroughly overhauled The two previous editions of the Goonetilleke Heart of Darkness included a substantial selection of documents on the history of Benin ranging from excerpts taken from Olaudah Equiano s eighteenth century narrative to documents concerning the Benin massacre of 1897 Those documents concerning a neighboring Bantu society were included in large part because of the paucity of known late nineteenth century documents concerning the Congo by black Africans or indeed by black observers of any nationality In place of those Benin related materials this new edition includes substantial excerpts from George Washington Williams's Letter to Leopold II as well as substantial excerpts from an extraordinary document not included in any other edition of Heart of Darkness but discussed extensively in two ground breaking twenty first century works of scholarship David Van Reybrouck's Congo The Epic History of a People and Maya Jasanoff's The Dawn Watch Joseph Conrad in a Global World the autobiography of Disasi Makulo Makulo grew up near the shore of the Congo River in the 1880s and early 1890s was enslaved by notorious ivory dealer Tippu Tip and then was taken under the wing of Henry Morton Stanley Makulo's account substantial excerpts of which are here translated into English for the first time opens an unprecedented window on life in the equatorial forest of the Congo in the late nineteenth century
