Talking to Ourselves Andrés Neuman, 2014-04-08 A searing family drama from one of Latin America's most original voices One trip Two love stories Three voices Lito is ten years old and is almost sure he can change the weather when he concentrates very hard His father Mario anxious to create a memory that will last for his son's lifetime takes him on a road trip in a truck called Pedro But Lito doesn't know that this might be their last trip Mario is gravely ill Together father and son embark on a journey takes them through strange geographies that seem to meld the different parts of the Spanish speaking world In the meantime Lito's mother Elena restlessly seeks support in books and soon undertakes an adventure of her own that will challenge her moral limits Each narrative of father son and mother embodies one of the different ways that we talk to ourselves through speech through thought and through writing While neither of them dares to tell the complete truth to the other two their individual voices nonetheless form a poignant conversation Sooner or later we all face loss Andr's Neuman movingly narrates the ways the lives of those who survive loss are transformed how that experience changes our ideas about time memory and our own bodies and how the acts of reading and of sex can serve as powerful modes of resistance Talking to Ourselves presents a tender yet unsentimental portrait of the workings of love and family a reflection both on grief and on the consolation of words Neuman the author of the award winning Traveler of the Century displays his characteristic warmth bittersweet humor and wide ranging intellect giving us the rich textured and strikingly different voices and experiences of three singular characters while presenting above all a profound tribute to those who have ever had to care for a loved one

The Practices of the Self Charles Larmore, 2010-12-15 What is the nature of the fundamental relation we have to ourselves that makes each of us a self To answer this question Charles Larmore develops a systematic theory of the self challenging the widespread view that the self's defining relation to itself is to have an immediate knowledge of its own thoughts On the contrary Larmore maintains our essential relation to ourselves is practical as is clear when we consider the nature of belief and desire For to believe or desire something consists in committing ourselves to thinking and acting in accord with the presumed truth of our belief or the presumed value of what we desire Larmore develops this conception with frequent reference to such classic authors as Montaigne Stendhal and Proust and by comparing it to other views of the self in contemporary philosophy He also discusses the important ethical consequences of his theory of the self arguing that it allows us to better grasp what it means to be ourselves and why self understanding often involves self creation Winner of the Académie Française's Grand Prix de Philosophie The Practices of the Self is that rare kind of lucid yet rigorous work that transcends disciplinary boundaries

Origin Christian Eibelshauser, 2014-06-17 Is there a purpose to life Is there a higher power Is there an eternity How can our lives be more fulfilling How do all the pieces fit together What is the nature of the universe Where does all this star stuff come from What is the origin of the universe Curiosity of the author Christian Eibelshauser compelled him to search for the answers to some of life's most enduring questions Now his astonishing findings are revealed in ORIGIN A Journey Of Discovery The power behind the universe what he calls the infinite totality is present in every part of the universe In fact it is the universe As such the infinite totality is present in each individual and is known as the cosmic being traditionally called a soul or intuition He believes that the reason so many have failed at finding true happiness in their lives is because they have fallen out of touch with their personal cosmic being But there is hope To become reacquainted with your cosmic being you must begin consciously examining your Everyday actions and beliefs in an effort to get rid of outdated patterns of living and thinking He also explores the creation of the universe from a scientific standpoint Using physics the author shows that on its most basic level all matter is made up from nothing more than energy with an in depth explanation of the term energy Therefore the universe is the infinite totality or energy itself Finally the author presents a new and totally revolutionary model of the universe hitherto neither contemplated nor depicted
