Pachai,1973 The Creation of Tribalism in Southern Africa Leroy Vail,1991-01-07 Despite a quarter century of nation building most African states are still driven by ethnic particularism commonly known as tribalism The stubborn persistence of tribal ideologies despite the profound changes associated with modernization has puzzled scholars and African leaders alike The bloody hostilities between the tribally oriented Zulu Inkhata movement and supporters of the African National Congress are but the most recent example of tribalism s tenacity The studies in this volume offer a new historical model for the growth and endurance of such ideologies in southern Africa Pursuing an Elusive Unity Rhodian Munyenembe,2019-09-30 Since its founding in 1924 the Church of Central Africa Presbyterian CCAP has grown to span five synods across Central Eastern and Southern Africa Dr Rhodian Munyenembe traces the history of these synods back to their shared roots in the Reformation and individual roots in three separate Presbyterian missions Dr Munyenembe skillfully explores both historic and contemporary challenges to the unity of the CCAP and raises the question of whether the CCAP truly functions as a single denomination or could better be understood as a loose federation of five distinct churches His in depth explanation provides a critical look that goes beyond a surface understanding of what it means to unite churches from different cultural traditions and brings honest answers to disputes and conflicts among the CCAP synods Through this analysis and exploration Dr Munyenembe also sheds light on the political and socio economic aspects of life in relation to the influence of religious denominations In this objective yet astute account Munyenembe gives voice to the CCAP s complex history present reality and future potential Mission and Church in Malawi Christoff Martin Pauw,2016-05-01 Martin Pauw was born in 1940 at Madzimoyo Mission Eastern Zambia where both his grandparents and parents had served as missionaries After completing his theological studies at the University of Stellenbosch he was ordained in Malawi in the Church of Central Africa Presbyterian CCAP in 1965 Like his great grandfather grandfather and father he became a missionary the fourth generation He served as youth pastor and lecturer at the CCAP Theological College at Nkhoma until 1973 From 1975 he lectured at Justo Mwale Theological College of the Reformed Church in Zambia in Lusaka and from 1983 to 2001 he was lecturer and eventually professor in Missiology in the Faculty of Theology at the University of Stellenbosch where he also had previously completed his doctoral studies with a thesis on the history of the CCAP Nkhoma Synod Over the years Prof Pauw acted as study leader to a large number of under and post graduate students authored a considerable number of publications and served in various leadership positions in the church After retiring as lecturer he served the Western Cape Synod of the Dutch Reformed Church for a further six years as Secretary for Witness and focussed on building partnerships between the DRC and sister churches in various countries in Africa His vast experience in knowledge of and passion for humbly serving the churches in Southern and Central Africa is remarkable Lilongwe (Malawi) , Promises, Power, Politics and Poverty John Lloyd Lwanda,2024-05-03 Dr Banda s thirty year rule was the subject of Lwanda s earlier book Kamuzu Banda of Malawi a Study in Promise Power and Paralysis the first edition of which was in 1993 Now the small

Southern African nation of Malawi has been a multiparty democracy since the first multiparty elections on 17 May 1994. The first multiparty dispensation under the United Democratic Front's President Bakili Muluzi experienced both startling successes and fantastic failures. Since then the paralysing poverty has persisted yet the once silent land is resonating with freedom of speech, free universal primary school education, an independent judiciary. The first incarnation of this book was written in 1996, three years before the elections of 1999. At the time, some of the critical political questions then were: Could the UDF begin delivering on their pledges on poverty alleviation and development? Was the MCP capable of genuinely reforming itself? Could AFORD survive? Could democracy itself survive in Malawi? Could a new cadre of leadership emerge, one that was both unencumbered by the Banda legacy and which spoke for both rich and poor, rural and urban? These are some of the issues discussed in Promises, Power, Politics and Poverty: the Democratic Transition in Malawi. This book is still by far the most detailed account of the political transition of 1991 to 1994, containing details of the origins of the UDF and AFORD and charting the rise and fall of the Diaspora-based political parties. It also critically examined the performance of the new government up to 1996. It is an essential comprehensive reading for all those interested in the turbulent politics of Malawi from 1961 to the present. It has dozens of illuminative pictures and anecdotes. Lwanda is the kind of writer who wants to put everything in. Landeg White, Emeritus Director, Centre for Southern African Studies, York University. He writes with deep knowledge, commendable compassion, and often remarkable analytical insight. This analysis of a complex political situation in Malawi since the defeat of Dr Banda deserves to be considered very carefully by anyone who has the future of Africa especially central Africa at heart. Professor George Shepperson.

Archival Silences Michael Moss, David Thomas, 2021-05-10. Archival Silences demonstrates emphatically that archival absences exist all over the globe. The book questions whether benign silence is an appropriate label for the variety of destructions, concealment, and absences that can be identified within archival collections. Including contributions from archivists and scholars working around the world, this truly international collection examines archives in Australia, Brazil, Denmark, England, India, Iceland, Jamaica, Malawi, The Philippines, Scotland, Turkey, and the United States. Making a clear link between autocratic regimes and the failure to record often horrendous crimes against humanity, the volume demonstrates that the failure of governments to create records or to allow access to records appears to be universal. Arguing that this helps to establish a hegemonic narrative that excludes the other, this book showcases the actions historians and archivists have taken to ensure that gaps in archives are filled. Yet the book also claims that silences in archives are inevitable and argues not only that recordkeeping should be mandated by international courts and bodies but that we need to develop other ways of reading archives broadly conceived to compensate for absences. Archival Silences addresses fundamental issues of access to the written record around the world. It is directed at those with a concern for social justice, particularly scholars and students of archival studies, history, sociology, international relations, international law, business administration, and information science.
