A Junior Library Guild Gold Standard Selection Family Journeys Through Peaks and Valleys Demetria Vargas, 2020-04-02 These essays are true narratives about the author's life with her Philippine family of origin. It covers her childhood and early adult years in the Philippines between the 1950s and 1970s and her more than three decades of working as a permanent resident in Canada and then continues with her retirement years alternating between these two countries. Reflecting on her roles as daughter, granddaughter, niece, and sister to six siblings, she describes joyful and unhappy incidents in the context of alliances and alienations formed between her and her elders and those between her and her siblings. Stories about her magnificent parents and other elders show how life's joys become more rewarding when shared with deserving meaningful relations; those echoing from the valleys are reminders that when a hand is extended to somebody hurting, it invariably eases the pain and oftentimes inspires gratefulness and reciprocity. Both peak and valley journeys provide a glimpse into the all too often inexplicable intertwining of chance and choice as the actors in this sort of tragicomic family play sought validation for their respective sense of person at certain points in time.

Mosquito Gayl Jones, 2022-03-08 From the highly acclaimed author of Corregidora and The Healing, a rare and unforgettable journey set along the US-Mexico border about identity, immigration, and the new underground railroad. Jones's great achievement is to reckon with both history and interiority and to collapse the boundary between them. Anna Wiener, The New Yorker. First discovered and edited by Toni Morrison. Gayl Jones has been described as one of the great literary writers of the 20th century. In Mosquito, she examines the US-Mexico border crisis through the eyes of Sojourner Nadine Jane Johnson, an African American truck driver known as Mosquito. Her journey begins after discovering a stowaway who nearly gives birth in the back of her truck, sparking her accidental and yet growing involvement in the new underground railroad, a sanctuary movement for Mexican immigrants. As Mosquito's understanding of the immigrants' need to forge new lives and identities deepens, so too does Mosquito's romance with Ray, a gentle revolutionary philosopher and perhaps a priest. Along the road, Mosquito introduces us to Delgadina, a Chicana bartender who fries cactus, writes haunting stories, and studies to become a detective; Monkey Bread, a childhood pal who is improbably assistant to a blonde star in Hollywood; Maria, the stowaway who names her baby Journal, a misspelled tribute to her unwitting benefactor Sojourner; and many more.
