Modern Stories:

Modern Hindi Short Stories Gordon C. Roadarmel, 2024-03-29 The Hindi short story is one of the most exciting genres in modern Indian literature The fifteen stories in this volume by some of the most prominent writers in the field provide a unique picture of the country today Most of the stories focus on urban middle class individuals and especially those whose lives are marked by alienation and loneliness They highlight the disruptions caused in a society that is modernizing at a rapid pace while still being blessed and burdened by a strong sense of traditional morality duty and family ties Among the writers included in this volume are Kamleshwar Nirmal Verma Phanishwarnath Renu Krishna Baldev Vaid and Mohan Rakesh This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1972 The Hindi short story is one of the most exciting genres in modern Indian literature The fifteen stories in this volume by some of the most prominent writers in the field provide a unique picture of the country today Most of the stories focus on urban

The Great Modern American Stories William Dean Howells, 1921 The Trojan Horse and Other Stories Julia Kindt, 2024-01-11 What makes us human What if anything sets us apart from all other creatures Ever since Charles Darwin's theory of evolution the answer to these questions has pointed to our own intrinsic animal nature Yet the idea that in one way or another our humanity is entangled with the non human has a much longer and more venerable history In the West it goes all the way back to classical antiquity This grippingly written and provocative book boldly reveals how the ancient world mobilised concepts of the animal and animality to conceive of the human in a variety of illuminating ways Through ten stories about marvelous mythical beings from the Trojan Horse to the Cyclops and from Androcles lion to the Minotaur Julia Kindt unlocks fresh ways of thinking about humanity that extend from antiquity to the present and that ultimately challenge our understanding of who we really are

Authors Rochelle S. Townsend, 1924 Life Stories of Women Artists, 1550-1800 Julia K. Dabbs, 2020-08-18 The struggles and achievements of forty-six notable women artists of the early modern period as documented by their contemporaries are uniquely brought together in this anthology The life stories presented here are foundational texts for the history of art but since most are found only in rare volumes and few have been translated into English until now they have been generally inaccessible to many scholars Originally published in biographical compendia such as Vasari's Lives of the Artists the writings included here document not only the lives of relatively well-known women artists such as Artemisia

Gentileschi and Sofonisba Anguissola but also those who have languished in obscurity like Anna Waser and Li Yin Each life story is preceded by a brief introduction to the artist as well as to her biographer and the texts themselves are annotated to provide necessary clarification Beyond their documentary value these stories provide fascinating insight as to how men commonly characterized women artists as exceptions to their sex and attempted to explain their presence in the male dominated realm of art The introductory chapter to the book explores this intriguing gender dynamic and elucidates some of the strategies and historical context that factored into the composition of these lives The volume includes an appended index to women artists life stories in biographical compendia of the period
