Bound to Differ Wesley A. Kort,2010-11-01 Faith Facing Reality John W. de Gruchy,2022-10-21 The COVID 19 pandemic and the war in Ukraine have starkly reminded us of the realities that threaten our future on planet Earth Christian faith is not a way of escaping these realities but of engaging them in the struggle for justice and peace motivated by love enabled by faith and sustained by hope This is based on the conviction that in Jesus Christ the reality of God has become redemptively embodied within the reality of the world Written within the context of South Africa but with global vision and in conversation with the legacy of Dietrich Bonhoeffer this book is an attempt to stir up discussion and inform action in connecting worldly and transcendent reality Inevitably this will be controversial not least because that is something that Bonhoeffer risked This is certainly true when it comes to the five realities that provide much of the book's substance the persistence of racism the will to power scientism and soulless technology the conflict in Israel Palestine and the threat of wars and pandemics Is it possible to believe in the God of Jesus Christ in such a world If so what does that mean and how does it help us live creatively redemptively and faithfully To answer these questions the author examines the meaning of faith the human desire for transcendence and the need for conversion wisdom solidarity and responsible freedom

Premodern Faith in a Postmodern Culture Peter Drilling, 2006-07-26 Since the European Enlightenment of the 18th century traditional religious faith has been challenged from many sides Both the modern and postmodern worldviews have confronted religious belief The Christian doctrine of God is no exception Premodern Faith in a Postmodern Culture A Contemporary Theology of the Trinity acknowledges these challenges to the Christian doctrine of God and explains their sources in philosophical terms Through careful thoughtful analysis Peter Drilling offers a way to meet these challenges so that Christian Faith in the triune God survives and thrives By using the theological method articulated by the philosopher theologian Bernard Lonergan this book demonstrates a reasonable and authentic process of coming to faith This method includes various directions believers can take both theoretical and practical to apply faith in the Trinity Drilling's multi faceted approach looks at this faith through the diverse perspectives of analogous understanding spirituality ecclesiology philosophy and interreligious dialogue This work is unique in its view of the entire historical development of the Trinity from historical sources to the new postmodern conceptions of God

Hall, 2013-10-22 Black Separatism and Social Reality Rhetoric and Reason deals with the contemporary debate over black separatism in America It brings together for the first time many of the perspectives ideas orientations and ideologies that all directly or indirectly address the question of black separatism pro and con from the vantage point of their own realities It raises fundamental issues that have recurred throughout the last century and continue unabated today such as whether black Americans should seek their political destiny apart from white Americans or whether economic growth within the black community can eventually lead to true black power This book is comprised of 31 chapters and begins with a historical overview and social reality of black separatism in America how and why black separatist movements emerge and why separatism appeals to some individuals and not to others The next section explores the similarities of white racist assumptions and black separatism as well as the arguments for and against separatism The prospects of black separatism are analyzed along with Pan Africanism and black studies A comprehensive review of the history of separatist thought and a bibliography concerning the relation of Afro Americans with Africa are presented The possibility of a violent confrontation between whites and blacks is also considered Finally the book ponders the question of whether there is a need for a distinct black social science This monograph will appeal to sociologists social scientists political scientists politicians blacks and scholars of black studies José Martí Reader José Martí, 2016-08-22 Martí added a social agenda to the historic program of national liberation and instantly converted a movement devoted to the establishment of a new nation into a force dedicated to shaping a new society Martí transformed rebellion into revolution Like a master weaver Martí pulled together all the separate threads of Cuban discontent social economic political racial historical and wove them into a radical movement of enormous force Louis A Pérez Jr author of Jos Martí in the United States Oh Cuba the blood of Martí was not yours alone it belonged to an entire race to an entire and Culture Emmanuel Osigwe, 2022-12-05 The recognition of the intersection of faith and culture has become a significant trend in contemporary theology. Cultures are locations of divine activity. The Sacramental Theology of Elochukwu Uzukwu in Light of Vatican II and Its Application in African Context brings freshness to the dominant Catholic sacramental thinking by offering an African appropriation of the Christian faith through African cultures. It demonstrates the historical interaction of the Christian faith with multiple anthropologies that resonates with different peoples to celebrate rituals that convey divine activity. This work engages the theology of Elochukwu Uzukwu, a recent African sacramental liturgical theologian whose work reflects the elements of sacramental and liturgical renewal of the Second Vatican Council especially in its openness to a plurality of cultures. This book retrieves resources from the African universe to offer a contextual appropriation of the interface between faith and African cultures. It highlights the African view of the body in its expressive worship and significance of relationality as an undergirding existential philosophy of life. Consequently, it offers a flexible theological methodology that avoids polarities. It provides an additional resource to the philosophical and theological approach to the perennial problem of duality and theologies constructed on this template. This study moves beyond monocultural sacramental expression to engage symbols and indigenous resources to articulate an African sacramental theology. From Faith to Fun Russell Heddendorf, 2009-02-26 Abraham and Sarah were presented with a paradox when God told them they would have a son in their old age. Paradox in the Old Testament plays an important part in the dialogue between God and the Jews. In the New Testament, paradox is prominent in Jesus' teaching and helps to explain the Christian understanding of salvation.

Intuitive Leadership (ēmerision: Emergent Village resources for communities of faith) Tim Keel, 2007-10-01 As our culture shifts from modern to postmodern, pastors and church leaders are finding that old rigid church leadership systems and structures no longer seem to work. Church leaders are searching for and discovering new creative ways of leading, emphasizing intuition, creativity, narrative, and an embrace of the chaos and tension of our time. Tim Keel, pastor of a thriving emergent church and a rising leader in the emergent church movement, offers a thought-provoking yet practical exploration of this new style he calls Intuitive Leadership. His fresh approach will be welcomed by pastors and lay leaders interested in the emergent conversation and how Christian mission should look in our rapidly changing culture. Encounter, 1985
