Finding Faith in Foreign Policy Gregorio Bettiza,2019 Since the end of the Cold War religion has become an ever more explicit and systematic focus of US foreign policy across multiple domains US foreign policymakers for instance have been increasingly tasked with monitoring religious freedom and promoting it globally delivering humanitarian and development aid abroad by drawing on faith based organizations fighting global terrorism by seeking to reform Muslim societies and Islamic theologies and advancing American interests and values more broadly worldwide by engaging with religious actors and dynamics Simply put religion has become a major subject and object of American foreign policy in ways that were unimaginable just a few decades ago In Finding Faith in Foreign Policy Gregorio Bettiza explains the causes and consequences of this shift by developing an original theoretical framework and drawing upon extensive empirical research and interviews He argues that American foreign policy and religious forces have become ever more inextricably entangled in an age witnessing a global resurgence of religion and the emergence of a postsecular world society He further shows how the boundaries between faith and state have been redefined through processes of desecularization in the context of American foreign policy leading the most powerful state in the international system to intervene and reshape in increasingly sustained ways sacred and secular landscapes around the globe Drawing from a rich evidentiary base spanning twenty five years Finding Faith in Foreign Policy details how a wave of religious enthusiasm has transformed not just American foreign policy but the entire international system

It is Dialogue' not Clash Salah Ed-Din A. Nefeily, 2009-01-01 This book is an attempt to point out and account for the modern man s need to get into a constructive dialogue which will bring the peoples of the world together in the face of the powers of dissipation and segregation So many writers both Western and non Western realized the fact that the notion of the Clash of Civilizations is in its essence an attempt to create an enemy for economic and political reasons To achieve their desired ends defenders of this notion are ready to demolish cultures and to subdue nations Throughout the book I made it clear that the strategy of promoting the clash of civilizations is against the principle of democracy It is against the principle of dialogue which allows for the expression of the opposing point of view To suppress this notion of dialogue the other will have to be presented as an aggressor who needs to be checked

ISLAMIC MISSIONARY CULTURAL CONFLICT CULTURAL DIALOGUE     The Role of Religion and Ethnicity in Contemporary Conflict Basil Ugorji, René Lemarchand, Ph.D., Jamie L. Hurst, Zarrín Caldwell, Erna Anjarwati, Allison Trimble, Lanhe S. Shan, David Silvera, Ph.D., 2014-09-18

Welcome to the first edition of the International Center for Ethno Religious Mediation s Journal of Living Together We were surprised and delighted to receive so many outstanding submissions and see the resounding response to our very first call for papers as an appreciable indication of the connection people feel to our mission and our community Through this journal it is our intention to inform inspire reveal and explore the intricate and complex nature of human interaction in the context of ethno religious identity and the roles it plays in war and peace By sharing theories observations and valuable experiences we mean to open a broader more inclusive dialogue between policymakers academics researchers religious leaders representatives of ethnic groups and indigenous peoples and field practitioners around the world Lasting peace stems from changes in thinking about what it is to be a part of the human family who we are to one another and what mutual obligations and responsibilities exist between us It requires us to accept that we are each a resource an advantage an asset to the whole It hinges on our ultimate acceptance of cultural identity history faith and tradition as simply vivid aspects of our overarching human kinship The belief based perspectives that influence these patterns of being however are among the most deeply ingrained of all individual and social mechanisms Any efforts to reshape them are highly ambitious and fraught with seemingly insurmountable obstacles Yet cultures and their societies are not static and their adaptive nature requires that even within the most intractable of conflicts there will be change how they change will depend upon shifts in the environment changes in human experience and the availability of new information with which to make different choices

The theme of this issue The Role of Religion and Ethnicity in Contemporary Conflict Related Emerging Tactics Strategies and Methodologies of Mediation and Resolution looks at ways to influence these changes improve interethnic and interfaith experiences and offers information which can enlighten social discourse and reveal the possibility of previously unforeseen choices We begin with Words from the Board where Dr David Silvera explains that mediation is at the very heart of democratic thought lays out the value of mediation as a vital aspect of adult education in his commentary Education for Democratic Citizenship and Intercultural Conflicts by Mediation Dr Ren Lemarchand s cautionary discussion regarding the risks involved in mankind s willingness and even propensity to ignore some of history s worst atrocities follows in his article Remembering Forgotten Genocides Jamie L Hurst s paper Holy Conflict the Intersection of Religion and Mediation explores the junction where religion and mediation meet focusing on the unique challenges and opportunities this crossroads brings to bear In her piece Identity Reconsidered Zarr n Caldwell describes the cost of narrowly construed identity formations and puts forward the idea that the teachings of the Bah Faith on nested identities might offer some new ways of approaching peacebuilding Similarly in their work Storytelling as a Means for Peace Education Intercultural Dialogue in Southern Thailand Erna Anjarwati Allison Trimble describe their research conducting peace storytelling as a means to encourage social reconciliation between Thai Buddhists and Malay Muslims youth And finally Lanhe S Shan presents an in depth assessment of the long term outcomes following the implementation of unfortunate conflict mitigation strategies and offers suggestions for improved results in Analysis of Tito s Policies on Ethnic Conflict the Case of Kosovo This journal is not meant to be a bastion of declarative wisdom rather it is intended to be a conduit a medium for vibrant exchange and discussion of its contents is vital to its purpose We want your input your ideas your thoughts and your insights You will find plenty to discuss every quarter in the articles book reviews Living Together Movement updates social media buzz and Photos from the Field here and in the issues ahead

New international studies on religions and dialogue in education Martin Ubani,2018 What are the key questions highlighted in religious and spiritual education today Many global processes such as migration pluralism and the redefinition of citizenship challenge the traditional notions of borders concerning cultures states and nationalities ethnicities and even religions Consequently in societies today the distinction in religions or identities between global and local or inside and outside no longer functions well As the many borders in our world are becoming again more transparent and cultures blended there is an increasing and constant need to re examine the conceptions and theories concerning religion dialogue and education This volume brings together 14 new international studies based on selected presentations from the 14th Nordic Conference on Religious Education The topics of the articles include studies on religion dialogue and education in different contexts ranging from policy studies and higher education to home education and research on education about religions to confessional education The volume serves the interests of researchers policymakers practitioners and students of religious and spiritual education

Faith-based Diplomacy and Interfaith Dialogue Scott Blakemore,2019-05-27 Scholars are seeking to identify how to constructively integrate faith into diplomacy Proponents of faith based diplomacy recognise that incorporating faith into peacemaking activities assists in managing identity based conflict and religiously motivated violence in the contemporary international system A promising strategy within the scope of faith based diplomacy is interfaith dialogue The study and practice of interfaith dialogue has been reinvigorated since the advent of 9 11 and yet the link between interfaith dialogue and diplomacy remains underdeveloped The cases of Indonesia and the United States present lessons on how states can effectively use interfaith dialogue to achieve policy objectives while recognising that some policies are detrimental to achieving diplomatic goals This paper seeks to provide some framework for bringing interfaith dialogue into the scope of diplomacy by illuminating how faith based diplomacy and interfaith dialogue can be innovative diplomatic perspectives useful in addressing contemporary global issues
