Mirola, Michael O. Emerson, Susanne C Monahan, 2022-10-19 Religion Matters How Sociology Helps Us Understand Religion in Our World focuses on religion s interplay with broader society introducing students to the basic questions ideas and methods with which sociologists have analyzed the relationship between religion and society Since the first edition religion as a social force has changed dramatically in its content and consequences for the world In this new edition the authors update the foundational lenses used to understand religion s multiple roles in society assess the impact of technology and social media on religion and faith draw further reflection from contemporary studies of religion and gender and add a new chapter examining the increasing amount of religious polarization in the United States and throughout the world With new illustrations and connections that make this readable textbook more accessible and relevant for today s student the second edition of Religion Matters remains a perfect counterpart for introductory courses concerned with the sociological study of religion Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 30 Ralph W. Hood, Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor, 2019-12-16 The 30th volume of Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion consists of two special sections as well as two separate empirical studies on attachment and daily spiritual practices The first special section deals with the social scientific study of religion in Indonesia Indonesia is a predominantly Muslim country whose history and contemporary involvement in the study of religion is explored from both sociological and psychological perspectives The second special section is on the Pope Francis effect the challenges of modernization in the Catholic church and the global impact of Pope Francis While its focus is mainly on the Catholic religion the internal dynamics and geopolitics explored apply more broadly The Oxford Handbook of Religion, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Atalia Omer, R. Scott Appleby, David Little, 2015 The book provides a comprehensive overview of the literature on religion conflict and peacebuilding With a focus on structural and cultural violence the volume also offers a cutting edge interdisciplinary reframing of the scope of scholarship in the field Religion and Social Conflict Robert Lee, San Francisco Theological Seminary. Institute of Ethics and Society, 1964 The operative word in this collection of essays is conflict Conflict is inevitable within society yet we try to escape it or minimize it This book faces the issue of social conflict squarely It is unique in covering the entire spectrum of social conflict as it impinges upon religion and religious institutions Ten authorities including the editors probe in these pages various aspects of social conflict in their respective fields technology religious group formation racial protest movement right wing and left wing groups religion and politics church state relations inter religious group conflicts and the role of the pastor in social conflict The book is based upon lectures delivered at the Institute of Ethics and Society of San Francisco Theological Seminary The contributors are John R Bodo Charles Y Glock Will Herberg Seymour M Lipset Charles McCoy Robert A Nisbet Benjamin A Reist and Ralph Lord Roy Publisher The Structure of International Conflict C. R. Mitchell, 1989-03-15 What constitutes a conflict between human groups organisations or countries How do people perceive and behave in conflicts How do conflicts come to an end and what part can outsiders play in settling them or making them less damaging The present work seeks to answer such questions by examining common structures and processes found in human conflicts in many settings and by demonstrating how such common features reveal themselves in conflicts as ostensibly different as international war and interpersonal disagreements in organisations The Structure of International Conflict seeks to be a some permanent use to all students interested in penetrating beneath the surface details and ostensible dissimilarities of specific wars disputes and quarrels to the basic structure that underlies all human conflicts from the most peaceful to the most violent lethal and destructive Religion and the Politics of Peace and Conflict Linda Hogan, Dylan Lee Lehrke, 2009-01-01 The connections between religion and violence are complex and multifaceted From the conflicts in Middle East and the Balkans to those in Southeast Asia and beyond religion frames and legitimates political violence Moreover in international relations since 9 11 religious language and metaphors have acquired a new significance In this context the emerging consensus appears to be not only that violence is intrinsic to religion but also that religions incite legitimate and intensify political violence However such an unambiguous indictment of religions is incomplete in that it fails both to appreciate significant counter examples and to recognize the diversity that exists within religions on the issue of violence particularly the religious roots of pacifism and the ethics of non violence This collection explores aspects of this ambivalence between religion and violence It focuses on traditions of legitimation and pacifism within the three monotheistic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam and concludes with an examination of this ambivalence as it unfolds in each tradition s engagement with the politics of gender Religion and Conflict in South and Southeast Asia Linell E. Cady, Sheldon W. Simon, 2006-09-27 This is a major new contribution to comparative and multidisciplinary scholarship on the alignment of religion and violence in South and Southeast Asia Democracy, Religion, and Commerce Kathleen Flake, Nathan B. Oman, 2023-03-13 This collection considers the relationship between religion state and market In so doing it also illustrates that the market is a powerful site for the cultural work of secularizing religious conflict Though expressed as a simile with religious freedom functioning like market freedom free market religion has achieved the status of general knowledge about the nature of religion as either good or bad It legislates good religion as that which operates according to free market principles it is private with no formal relationship to government and personal a matter of belief and conscience As naturalized elements of historically contingent and discursively maintained beliefs about religion these criteria have ethical and regulatory force Thus in culture and law the effect of the metaphor has become instrumental not merely descriptive This volume seeks to productively complicate and invite further analysis of this easy conflation of democracy religion and the market It invites scholars from a variety of disciplines to consider more intentionally the extent to which markets are implicated and illuminate the place of religion in public life The book will be a valuable resource for researchers and academics working in the areas of law and religion ethics and economics
