Religious Lives Muhammad And Islam:

A Concise Guide to the Life of Muhammad Ayman S. Ibrahim, 2022-05-17 An expert in the study of Islam answers thirty important questions about Muhammad offering a clear and concise guide to his life and religious significance This companion volume to the author's A Concise Guide to the Quran answers many of the key questions non Muslims have about Muhammad reveals the importance of Muhammad for Christian Muslim and Jewish Muslim interfaith relations and examines Muslim and non Muslim primary sources This introductory guide is written for anyone with little to no knowledge of Islam who wants to learn about Muslims their beliefs and their prophet Religion in Multicultural Education Farideh Salili, Rumjahn Hoosain, 2006-05-01 The National Association for Multicultural Education in Washington D C listed a number of issues that the school curriculum should address with reference to multicultural education including racism sexism classism linguisticism ablism ageism heterosexism and religious intolerance It is noteworthy that of all these issues religion is about the only one that throughout history people are willing to die for although whether what is at issue is really religion or other things such as territory is another matter It is also interesting that all the others have isms in their names but religious issues are characterized by intolerance Perhaps we should try to understand this intolerance and look at what steps might help to alleviate it However while intolerance might seem a simple thing understanding what is behind it and how it plays such a crucial role in religion requires what we refer to in the Introduction chapter as a multifaceted approach at multiple levels It is not enough just to try to dispel stereotypes of followers of other religions or to point out commonalities in world religions We should for example try to understand and appreciate how adherents of other religions try to answer questions regarding their adaptation to the contemporary environment It is through understanding how different religions coexist side by side at various levels that we truly come to learn about religion in multicultural education

Black Muslim Religion in the Nation of Islam, 1960-1975 Edward E. Curtis IV, 2009-01-05 Elijah Muhammad's Nation of Islam came to America's attention in the 1960s and 1970s as a radical separatist African American social and political group But the movement was also a religious one Edward E Curtis IV offers the first comprehensive examination of the rituals ethics theologies and religious narratives of the Nation of Islam showing how the movement combined elements of Afro Eurasian Islamic traditions with African American traditions to create a new form of Islamic faith Considering everything from bean pies to religious cartoons clothing styles to prayer rituals Curtis explains how the practice of Islam in the movement included the disciplining and purifying of the black body the reorientation of African American historical consciousness toward the Muslim world an engagement with both mainstream Islamic texts and the prophecies of Elijah Muhammad and the development of a holistic approach to political religious and social liberation Curtis's analysis pushes beyond essentialist ideas about what it means to be Muslim and offers a view of the importance of local processes in identity formation and the appropriation of Islamic traditions

The Lives of Muhammad Kecia Ali, 2014-10-07 Kecia Ali delves into the many ways the Prophet's life story has been told from the earliest days of Islam to the present by both Muslims and non Muslims Emphasizing the major transformations since the nineteenth century she shows that far from being mutually opposed these various perspectives have become increasingly interdependent The Life and Work of Muhammad Yahya Emerick,2002 Given the current prominence of Islam it has become more important than ever that Westerners and Muslims gain an accurate look at who Muhammad was and what he stood for Provides a fascinating picture of both Muhammad and the world in which he lived Rather than settling in to the comfortable life of a merchant Muhammad had a vision of himself bringing the message of the one God to his idolatrous people Coverage includes the claim to prophethood Muhammad s teachings and his first converts the Muslim flight to Medina Muhammad s battles and the eventual bloodless Muslim conquest of Mecca Muhammad s political victory in the Arabian peninsula and wars with Byzantium and Persia the death of Muhammad and the ways in which his message lived beyond him and Muhammad s place in history his role in Muslim theology and cosmology the ways he is viewed in different Muslim sects and regions and the influence of Muhammad today in Islamic movements both peaceful and fundamentalist The Religious Life of Dress Lynne Hume,2013-10-24 From clothing to the painted and scarified nude body through overt public display or esoteric symbols known only to the initiated dress can convey information about beliefs faith identity power agency resistance and fashion Taking a senses approach Hume s engaging account takes into consideration the look smell feel touch and sound of religious apparel the smells and bells of dress and its accoutrements as well as the emotions evoked by donning religious garb The book s global perspective provides wide ranging yet detailed coverage of religious dress from the history and meaning of the simple no frills attire of the Anabaptists to the power structure displayed in the elaborate fabrics and colours of the Roman Catholic Church Hume examines the 2 500 year old tradition of Buddhist robes the nudity of India s holy men and much more With chapters on Sufism Vodou modern Pagans as well as painted and tattooed indigenous and modern Western bodies the reader is swept along on a sensual journey of the sight sound smell and feel of wearing religion Unique in its field this intriguing and informative anthropological approach to the body and dress is an essential read for students of Anthropology Anthropology of Dress Sociology Fashion and Textiles Culture and Dress Body and Culture and Cultural Studies Ethnicity, Religion and Politics Georgi Fotev,1999 Islam and Other Religions Irfan Omar,2013-09-13 This collection of essays assesses various dimensions of dialogue between Islam and other religions especially Christianity This book celebrates the work of Professor Mahmoud Ayoub and reflects the themes that are central in his scholarship spanned over the last three decades and which are more relevant than ever at the inauguration of the twenty first century The themes reflected are the Qur an and hadith theology and philosophy and Islam s interaction with other religions Ayoub needs no introduction to those familiar with and engaged in inter religious dialogue in general and Muslim Christian Jewish dialogue in particular He is a well known Muslim scholar and historian of religion currently director of the Islamic studies program in the department of religion at Temple University in Philadelphia His broad area of interest is of course Islamic studies but he has also exerted considerable scholarly efforts in comparative religion As evidenced from Dr Ayoub s works he moves with ease between philosophy and mysticism scripture and tradition and between Islam and other religions As a Muslim Ayoub has provided a model of being religious which combines openness to others without compromising rigorous historical scholarship Contributors to this volume include some of his close friends and colleagues as well as former students both Muslim and Christian This book was previously published as a special issue of Islam and Christian Muslim Relations
